based on the results of the interdisciplinary research project Topos and Topography led by Anna Blennow and Stefano Fogelberg Rota From the case studies performed within the project it becomes evident that the guidebook as a phenomenon was formed in Rome during the later Middle Ages and early Renaissance The elements and rhetorical strategies of guidebooks over time have shown to be surprisingly uniform with three important points of development a turn towards a more user friendly structure from the seventeenth century and onward the so called Baedeker effect in the mid nineteenth century and the introduction of a personalized guiding voice in the first half of the twentieth century Thus the guidebook tradition is an unusually consistent literary oeuvre which also forms a warranty for the authority of every new guidebook In this respect the guidebook tradition is intimately associated with the city of Rome with which it shares a constantly renovating yet eternally fixed nature

A History of the French in London Debra Kelly, Martyn Cornick, 2013 This book examines for the first time the history of the social cultural political and economic presence of the French in London and explores the multiple ways in which this presence has contributed to the life of the city The capital has often provided a place of refuge from the Huguenots in the 17th century through the period of the French Revolution to various exile communities during the 19th century and on to the Free French in the Second World War It also considers the generation of French citizens who settled in post war London and goes on to provide insights into the contemporary French presence by assessing the motives and lives of French people seeking new opportunities in the late 20th and early 21st centuries It analyses the impact that the French have had historically and continue to have on London life in the arts gastronomy business industry and education manifest in diverse places and institutions from the religious to the political via the educational to the commercial and creative industries

Morocco Overland Chris Scott, José Brito, Tim Cullis, Eric De Nadai, Franck Simonnet, Raf Verbeelen, 2013-05 Covers over 10 000km from the High Atlas to the Mauritanian border with detailed GPS off road routes for 4WDs motorcycles campervans and mountain bikes Bertram

Driving Europe Frank Schipper, 2008 Today we can hardly imagine life in Europe without roads and the automobiles that move people and goods around In fact the vast majority of movement in Europe takes place on the road Travelers use the car to explore parts of the continent on their holidays and goods travel large distances to reach consumers Indeed the twentieth century has deservedly been characterized as the century of the car The situation looked very different around 1900 People crossing national borders by car encountered multiple hurdles on their way Technically they imported their vehicle into a neighboring country and had to pay astronomical import duties Often they needed to pass a driving test in each country they visited Early on automobile and touring clubs sought to make life easier for traveling motorists International negotiations tackled the problems arising from differing regulations The resulting volume describes everything from the standardized traffic signs that saved human lives on the road to the Europabus taking tourists from Stockholm to Rome in the 1950s Driving Europe offers a highly original portrait of a Europe built on roads in the course of the twentieth century
