The Strassburger family and allied families of Pennsylvania; being the ancestry of Jacob Andrew Strassburger, esquire, of Montgomery county, Pennsylvania

Ralph Beaver Strassburger,1922-01-01

The Jedburghs Will Irwin,2005-10-10 The Jedburghs were a pioneering Special Forces unit uniquely made up of American British and French volunteers They parachuted deep behind the German lines to assist with the recapture of France in 1944 Dropped in teams of three the Jeds would rally local opposition to the Germans and conduct guerrilla warfare sabotage ambush and intelligence gathering ahead of the advancing Allied armies In doing so they contributed to the Allied breakout from the Normandy bridgehead and to the rapid advance to the German border Above all the Jedburgh teams were trained to survive The three man teams could not be certain that their communications with London would survive the drop or that any meaningful resupply would be possible They had to operate alone against extraordinary odds in a country almost entirely occupied by a hostile force prepared to survive pitched battles with the Wehrmacht and relentless manhunts by the Gestapo Nor did they know how long they would have to wait before the Allied front line reached them It was an enormous test of endurance cunning and strength of will The Jedburghs tells the story of these heroic young men and offers a new perspective on the D Day landings Will Irwin who served in the modern U S Army Special Forces himself has selected seven of the Jedburgh teams and told their stories as gripping personal narratives He has gathered archival documents diaries and correspondence and interviewed veterans and family members in order to present a full portrait of their crucial role recognized by Churchill and Eisenhower in the struggle to liberate Europe It is narrative history at its most compelling a vivid drama of the battle for France from deep behind enemy lines BOOK JACKET

Fire In the East Paul Bracken,2000-06-20 On May 11 1998 India began testing nuclear weapons The world will never be the same The Indian test of five atomic bombs and the Pakistani tests that answered a few weeks later marked the end of the arms control system that has kept the world from nuclear war for half a century As Paul Bracken professor of management and political science at Yale University explains in this landmark study they signal the reemergence of something the world hasn't seen since the sixteenth century modern technologically adept military powers on the mainland of Asia In Fire in the East Professor Bracken reveals several alarming trends and secrets such as how close Israel actually came to a germ warfare attack during the Gulf War why globalization will spur the development of weapons of mass destruction how American interests are endangered by Asian nationalism and how to navigate what he names the second nuclear age Fire in the East is a provocative account of how the Western monopoly on modern arms is coming to an end and how it will forever transform America's role on the stage of international politics

The Making of Modern Colombia David Bushnell, 1993-02-09

Colombia's status as the fourth largest nation in Latin America and third most populous as well as its largest exporter of such disparate commodities as emeralds, books, processed cocaine and cut flowers makes this the first history of Colombia written in English, a much needed book. It tells the remarkable story of a country that has consistently defied modern Latin American stereotypes: a country where military dictators are virtually unknown, where the political left is congenitally weak and where urbanization and industrialization have spawned no lasting populist movement. There is more to Colombia than the drug trafficking and violence that have recently gripped the world's attention. In the face of both cocaine wars and guerrilla conflict, the country has maintained steady economic growth as well as a relatively open and democratic government based on a two party system. It has also produced an impressive body of art and literature. David Bushnell traces the process of state building in Colombia from the struggle for independence, territorial consolidation and reform in the nineteenth century to economic development and social and political democratization in the twentieth. He also sheds light on the modern history of Latin America as a whole.

Managing the Historic Rural Landscape Jane Grenville, 2014-04-04

First published in 1999, The Issues in Heritage Management series is a joint venture between Routledge and English Heritage. It provides accessible, thought provoking books on issues central to heritage management. Each book within the series is designed to provide a topical introduction to a key issue in heritage management for students in higher education and for heritage professionals. Rapid changes are taking place in countryside management today, making their impact on the historic landscape. In an accessible format, this volume examines the questions and conflicts that arise in Managing the Historic Rural Landscape. It is essential reading for students and professionals concerned with countryside management, in particular those involved with cultural landscapes and students of planning.

Bronze Age Worlds Robert Johnston, 2020-10-26

Bronze Age Worlds brings a new way of thinking about kinship to the task of explaining the formation of social life in Bronze Age Britain and Ireland. Britain and Ireland's diverse landscapes and societies experienced varied and profound transformations during the twenty fifth to eighth centuries BC. People's lives were shaped by migrations, changing beliefs about death, making and thinking with metals and living in houses and field systems. This book offers accounts of how these processes emerged from social life, from events, places and landscapes, informed by a novel theory of kinship. Kinship was a rich and inventive sphere of culture that incorporated biological relations but was not determined by them. Kinship formed personhood and collective belonging and associated people with nonhuman beings, things and places. The differences in kinship and kinwork across Ireland and Britain brought textures to social life and the formation of Bronze Age worlds. Bronze Age Worlds offers new perspectives to archaeologists and anthropologists interested in the place of kinship in Bronze Age societies and cultural development.
