Marketing Michelin Stephen L. Harp, 2001-12-14 Harp uses the familiar figure of Bibendum and the promotional campaigns designed around him to analyze the cultural assumptions of belle époque France including representations of gender race and class He also considers Michelin's efforts to promote automobile tourism in France and Europe through its famous Red Guide first introduced in 1900 noting that in the aftermath of World War I the company sold tour guides to the battlefields of the Western Front and favourably positioned France's participation in the war as purely defensive and unavoidable Throughout this period the company successfully identified the name of Michelin with many aspects of French society from cuisine and local culture to nationalism and colonialism Bibliographie nationale française ,2000 The Making and Circulation of Nordic Models, Ideas and Images Haldor Byrkjeflot, Lars Mjøset, Mads Mordhorst, Klaus Petersen, 2021-10-19 This critical and empirically based volume examines the multiple existing Nordic models providing analytically innovative attention to the multitude of circulating ideas images and experiences referred to as Nordic It addresses related paradoxes as well as patterns of circulation claims about the exceptionality of Nordic models and the diffusion and impact of Nordic experiences and ideas Providing original case studies the book further examines how the Nordic models have been constructed transformed and circulated in time and in space It investigates the actors and channels that have been involved in circulating models journalists and media bureaucrats and policy makers international organizations national politicians and institutions scholars public diplomats and analyses where and why models have travelled Finally the book shows that Nordic models perspectives or ideas do not always originate in the Nordic region nor do they always develop as deliberate efforts to promote Nordic interests This book will be of key interest to Nordic and Scandinavian studies European studies and more broadly to history sociology political science marketing social policy organizational theory and public management The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
