Michelin 2003 Europe:

MICHELIN 2003 EUROPE. MICHELIN TRAVEL PUBLICATIONS.,2003 Directory of EU Case Law on Competition, René Barents,2017-10-30 This well known book prized since 2007 by practitioners in EU competition law for its easy to find extracts sorted by subject is now in its second and hugely expanded edition covering all decisions of the Court of Justice and the General Court of the European Union on competition law through the end of 2016 This new edition comprising of forty seven chapters follows the same easy to use format as the earlier volume and covers all the case law on the substantive and procedural aspects of the EU treaty rules and legislation on antitrust and mergers To improve the accessibility of the case law this book is structured as follows Hundreds of headings and subheadings present virtually every point from which a researcher is likely to start Each subject heading starts with extracts having a more general meaning followed by extracts relating to specific points or situations Extracts are accompanied by cross references where appropriate Extracts are drawn from all EC competition case law encompassing every judgment and order in the Reports of Cases before the Court of Justice and the General Court Summary of the Judgment until 2017 Although it is primarily of value to barristers solicitors in house lawyers of companies and associations of companies officials of national competition authorities and other active practitioners in EU competition law the book will also be welcomed by scholars and others who need to obtain in a minimum of time an overview of what the European courts have actually stated about a specific point including detailed references in the field European Competition Law Annual 2007 Claus-Dieter Ehlermann,Mel Marquis,2008-11-28 This is the twelfth in a series on EU Competition Law and Policy produced by the Robert Schuman Centre of the European University Institute in Florence The volume reproduces the written contributions and transcripts in connection with a roundtable debate which examined the EU s enforcement policy as regards the abuse of a dominant position under Article 82 EC The workshop participants included senior enforcement officials and policy makers from the European Commission from the national competition authorities of certain EU Member States and from the US Department of Justice and Federal Trade Commission and renowned international academics legal practitioners and professional economists In an intense intimate environment this group of experts debated a number of legal and economic issues structured according to three broad lines of discussion 1 comparisons of the concept of monopolization under Section 2 of the Sherman Act with that of abuse of dominance under Article 82 EC 2 a reformed approach to exclusionary unilateral conduct and 3 exploitative unilateral conduct and related remedies The Concept of Abuse in EU Competition Law Pinar Akman,2012-02-03 The objective s of Article 102 TFEU what exactly makes a practice abusive and the standard of harm under Article 102 TFEU have not yet been settled This lack of clarity creates uncertainty for businesses and coupled with the current state of economics in this area raises an important question of legitimacy Using law and economic approaches this book inquires into the possible objectives of Article 102 TFEU and proposes a modern approach to interpreting abuse In doing so this book establishes an overarching concept of abuse that conforms to the historical roots of the provision to the text of the provision itself and to modern economic thinking on unilateral conduct This book therefore inquires into what Article 102 TFEU is about what it can be about and what it should be about regarding both objectives and scope The book demonstrates that the separation of exploitative abuse from exclusionary abuse is artificial and unsound It examines the roots of Article 102 TFEU and the historical context of the adoption of the Treaty the case law policy and literature on exploitative abuses and where relevant on exclusionary abuses The book investigates potential objectives such as fairness and welfare as well as the potential conflict between such objectives Finally it critically assesses the European Commission's modernisation of Article 102 TFEU before proposing a reformed approach to abuse which is centred on three necessary and sufficient conditions exploitation exclusion and a lack of an increase in efficiency

Wyatt and Dashwood's European Union Law Alan Dashwood, Michael Dougan, Barry J Rodger, Eleanor Spaventa, Derrick Wyatt, 2011-06-14 First published 30 years ago Wyatt and Dashwood's European Union Law was a landmark publication designed and written for students taking degree level courses in EU law In the intervening years new editions have appeared at regular intervals firmly establishing the book as a reliable and authoritative text Besides introducing generations of students to the intricacies of European law it has also been increasingly relied upon by scholars practitioners and the courts as a valuable source of reference on this complex and ever expanding body of law While the book cannot cover every aspect of the subject matter it nevertheless offers comprehensive coverage of those aspects of EU law most commonly studied at degree level Part I introduces the history and foundations of the Union's primary law Part II looks at the Union's institutions decision making procedures and competences It also deals with the Union judiciary focusing on direct actions before the Union courts and preliminary references from national courts The constitutional fundamentals of direct effect and supremacy effective judicial protection before national courts general principles of Union law and the Charter of Fundamental Rights are dealt with in Part III Part IV covers the internal market free movement of goods Union citizenship workers establishment and services the services directive mutual recognition of qualifications corporate establishment and company law harmonisation Part V deals with competition law Articles 101 and 102 TFEU the enforcement of Union competition rules and other related competition law issues Part VI then includes a brand new chapter concerned with the EU's external relations together with treatment of the legal effects of international agreements entered into by the EU As with previous editions the aim is to provide an accurate critical pragmatic and original account of the subject at times also offering unique insiders insights The book holds to its reputation as being both broad and profound the ideal foundation for gaining a deep understanding of EU law This edition reflects the law post Lisbon It has also been restructured and re-designed so as to facilitate ease of use Its original authors Derrick Wyatt and Alan Dashwood continue to make a significant contribution Michael Dougan Eleanor Spaventa and Barry Rodger complete the team of authors working on this invaluable textbook and reference work The 6th edition has already been cited in the Northern Ireland High Court by

Identifying Exclusionary Abuses by Dominant Undertakings under EU Competition Law Eirik Østerud, 2010-11-15 Under Article 102 TFEU dominant firms are allowed to compete but only to the extent their market behaviour does not constitute an abuse Needless to say the wording of the article neither explains what an abusive restriction of competition is nor how such a practice can be identified Rather than developing a one size fits all test applicable to all forms of market behaviour by dominant firms the European Court of Justice ECJ and the General Court ex Court of First Instance have set out a system of tests for separate categories of conduct Drawing on the full range of the EU Courts relevant case law this very useful book analyses the conditions that must be fulfilled for a broad range of business practices to be deemed abusive within the meaning of Article 102 TFEU and also identifies the criteria that must be fulfilled for a practice to be objectively justified The potentially abusive practices studied here as defined in the relevant case law include the following predatory pricing margin squeezing exclusivity agreements loyalty rebates refusals to supply to induce exclusivity secondary line price discrimination vexatious litigation acquisitions of intellectual property rights IPRs refusals to supply necessary inputs provision of storage equipment on the condition of exclusive use selective above cost price cuts tying technological integration and refusal to license IPRs The author also contrasts the Commission's decisional practice with the case law assesses approaches under U S antitrust law to similar forms of conduct and incorporates insights from economic theory This study greatly enhances our understanding of the distinction between abusive conduct and lawful competition In the course of its clarification of the EU Courts responses to individual forms of market behaviour an overall approach to the identification of exclusionary abuses under Article 102 TFEU begins to come into view Apart from the important new synthesis the work offers legal scholars there can be little doubt this book will prove a valuable asset and even an inspiration to competition lawyers

Intellectual Property, Antitrust and Cumulative Innovation in the EU and the US Thorsten Käseberg, 2012-06-08 For decades the debate about the tension between IP and antitrust law has revolved around the question to what extent antitrust should accept that IP laws may bar competition in order to stimulate innovation The rise of IP rights in recent years has highlighted the problem that IP may also impede innovation if research for new technologies or the marketing of new products requires access to protected prior innovation How this cumulative innovation is actually accounted for under IP and antitrust laws in the EU and the US and how it could alternatively be dealt with are the central questions addressed in this unique study by lawyer and economist Thorsten Käseberg Taking an integrated view of both IP and antitrust rules in particular on refusals to deal based on IP the book assesses policy levers under European and US patent copyright and trade secrecy laws such as the bar for and scope of protection as well as research exemptions compulsory licensing regimes and misuse doctrines It analyses what the allocation of tasks is and should be between these IP levers and antitrust rules in particular the law on abuse of dominance Article 102

TFEU and monopolisation Section 2 Sherman Act while particular attention is paid to the essential facilities doctrine including pricing methodologies for access to IP Many recent decisions and judgments are put into a coherent analytical framework such as IMS Health AstraZeneca GlaxoSmithKline in the EU Apple France Orange Book Standard Germany Trinko Rambus NYMEX eBay US Microsoft and IBM T3 both EU and US Further topics covered include IP protection for software interoperability information and databases industry specific tailoring of IP antitrust innovation market analysis and the WTO law on the IP antitrust interface

European Competition Law Lennart Ritter, W. David Braun, 2005-01-01 No branch of European law has been as subject to expansion and change as competition law Between the enormous forces of globalisation technology and EU enlargement the Commission and national competition authorities have been compelled to keep rethinking their practices and procedures and issuing new regulations Now in the wake of its highly acclaimed predecessors the new Third Edition of European Competition Law offers the practitioner everything required to act in accordance with the latest developments in the field Along with the thorough guide to continuing practice that its readers have come to expect European Competition Law in its Third Edition fully covers such areas as the following the Commission's new assessment of distribution practices and vertical restraints in particular the block exemptions granted by Regulations 2790/1999 and 1400/2002 procedure before national competition authorities and national courts for enforcement of European rules under Regulation 1 2003 the new Merger Control Regulation in force as of 1 May 2004 the new Transfer of Technology Regulation and the increased fines for hard core cartel practices or abuse of dominant market position The Third Edition is remarkable in that it actually previews the substantive and procedural rules that will be coming into effect during 2004 and subsequent years And like prior editions the work has no peer in its coverage of past administrative practice and the case law of the Court of Justice All in all European Competition Law Third Edition will be of immeasurable value to practitioners who need to keep informed about how EC competition laws are applied so they can continue to render practical meaningful advice to firms whose agreements transactions and conduct in the marketplace are governed by competition rules Patent Settlements in the Pharmaceutical Industry under US Antitrust and EU Competition Law Amalia

Athanasiadou, 2018-08-14 Reverse payment settlements or pay for delay agreements between originators and generic drug manufacturers create heated debates regarding the balance between competition and intellectual property law These settlements touch upon sensitive issues such as timely generic entry and access to affordable pharmaceuticals and also the need to preserve innovation incentives for originators and to strengthen the pipeline of life saving pharmaceuticals This book is one of the first to critically and comparatively analyse how such patent settlements and various other strategies employed by the pharmaceutical industry are scrutinised by both United States US and European courts and enforcement authorities and to discuss the applicable legal tests and the main criteria used for their assessment The book's ultimate objective is to provide guidance to the pharmaceutical industry regarding the types of patent settlements strategies and conduct which may be problematic from US antitrust and European Union EU competition law perspectives and to assist practitioners in structuring settlements which are both efficient and compliant To this end an exhaustive legal analysis of some of the most controversial issues regarding pharmaceutical patent settlements is provided including the lengthy split among US Circuit Courts on the issue of pay for delay settlements its resolution by the US Supreme Court in FTC v Actavis and subsequent jurisprudence the decision of Lundbeck v Commission by the European General Court and the Servier decision of the European Commission the Roche Novartis decision of the European Court of Justice and the most important decisions by National Competition Authorities on pharma patent settlements in the EU an overview of other types of strategies such as product hopping and product reformulations no authorised generic commitments problematic side deals mechanisms affecting generic substitution the rejection of the scope of the patent test in both the US and the EU and the balancing of patent law and antitrust law considerations in the prevailing applicable tests the benefits of settlements and the main criteria for assessing their legitimacy under US antitrust and EU competition law The analysis provides concrete examples of both illegitimate and legitimate settlements and strategies emphasising on conduct that falls within a grey zone and on the circumstances and criteria under which such conduct could be deemed problematic from an antitrust perspective This book will serve as a valuable guide for pharmaceutical companies wishing to minimise the risk of engaging in conduct that could potentially infringe US antitrust and EU competition law It further aims to save courts and enforcement agencies and also practitioners and academics considerable time and resources by providing an exhaustive analysis of the relevant caselaw with the ultimate goal to increase legal certainty on the most controversial aspects of patent settlements in the pharmaceutical industry
