The

Assessment Debate Valerie J. Janesick, 2001-11-14 An authoritative reference on one of education s hottest topics describing how the latest testing and assessment tools can be used to help improve student performance In this comprehensive review of the wealth of techniques by which students can be assessed Valerie J Janesick points out that the politics of schooling often gets in the way of student progress High stakes standardized testing is frequently based on poorly constructed unfair tests that encourage teaching to the test which actually impedes educational goals Authentic testing relies more on essays and writing samples performances demonstrations and role plays Although it is fairer and provides a measure of student growth and progress it requires more effort by teachers who also require extra training Besides discussing authentic assessment in detail The Assessment Debate includes a chronology an annotated directory of organizations supporting performance assessment a list of state coordinators for testing reform and state by state report cards Yes We Can! Leanne L. Howell, Chance W. Lewis, Norvella Carter, 2011-12-01 Yes We Can Improving Urban Schools through Innovative Educational Reform is a empirically based book on urban education reform to not only proclaim that hope is alive for urban schools but to also produce a body of literature that examines current practices and then offer practical implications for all involved in this arduous task This book is filled with real world strategies to implement in your quest to inspire and bring about reform Additionally we hope that you garner hope from the school personnel school campuses and school resources used as examples within the body of this work We offer this book to all stakeholders who find themselves associated with urban schools teachers administrators parents and even students Consider this book an empirically based roadmap as you consider being a part of this transformation We hope that it not only inspire you to adopt the Yes We Can spirit but also empower you to be the beacon of light for urban students whose very future relies on people like you to keep the torch alive
