Michiko Matsumoto Portraits Women Artists:

Portraits Michiko Matsumoto, Soho Photo Gallery, 1988 North American Women Artists of the Twentieth Century Jules Heller, Nancy G. Heller, 2013-12-19 First Published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company Women Photographers Constance Sullivan, Eugenia Parry, 1990 The two hundred pictures reproduced here are arranged chronologically and sequenced visually Most photographers are represented with several works which meant excluding others who would have been part of a broader survey I chose to emphasize a particular period of work or series by each rather than attempting with so few examples to outline the scope of a unique accomplishment or describe the visual ideas explored throughout a lifetime Preface What Kind of House Party is This? Jonathan Fleming, 1995 Niki de Saint Phalle: Structures for Life , 2021-03-09 Catalogue published for the exhibition organized by the Guggenheim Museum Bilbao and the Réunion des Musées Nationaux Grand Palais with the participation of the Niki Charitable Art Foundation Santee Held at the Grand Palais Galeries Nationales Paris France September 17 2014 February 2 2015 and Guggenheim Museum Bilbao Spain February 27 June 11 2015 The Photograph Collector , 1987 Colette Colette, 1985 Louise Nevelson Robert Indiana, Anthony Haden-Guest, 2012 Louise Nevelson 1899 1988 is one of the most important sculptors of the last century famous for her large scale monochromatic wood assemblages and outdoor works Nevelson was born in Czarist Russia immigrating to the US with her family at the age of three and had her first solo exhibition at the prestigious Nierendorf Gallery in 1941 This extensively illustrated publication with 157 images in color is the first to focus on her collage work Made throughout her career and every bit as important as her parallel work of the time Nevelson's collages have been out of the public eye for three decades With never before published documentary images alongside personal essays by Robert Indiana and Bill Katz this long overdue publication repositions these treasures of art history as well as the reputation of their creator for today's audience Flash Art , 1988 Kiki Smith Siri Engberg, Kiki Smith, Linda Nochlin, San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, 2005 Widely considered to be one of the most engaging and fascinating artists of our time Kiki Smith has over the past 25 years developed into a major figure in the world of twenty first century art Her subject matter is as wide ranging as the materials her work has encompassed In the 1980s with her earliest figural sculptures in plaster glass and wax Smith developed an elaborate vocabulary around the forms and functions of the body and its metaphorical as well as physical relationship to society By the early 1990s she began to engage with themes of a more religious and mythological nature Her reimaginings of biblical women as inhabitants of physical bodies rather than as abstract bearers of doctrine led her to make series of sculptural works related to the figure of the Virgin Mary Mary Magdalene Lilith and others The artist has more recently considered fairy tales and folk narratives as well as nurturing a growing menagerie of work concerned with animals and the natural world Smith has now earned a considerable reputation as a virtuoso printmaker and draftsman and as a reinventor of the startling sculptural possibilities present in materials ranging from paper and resin to bronze and porcelain

Organized by the Walker Art Center with the full collaboration of the artist the exhibition Kiki Smith represents the artist's first full scale monograph Women in Photography International Archive, 1997 The Bishop's Daughter Honor Moore, 2009-04-28 Paul Moore's vocation as an Episcopal priest took him from prominence as an activist to two decades as the bishop of New York This work is his daughter's story of the complex visionary man 22 photographs Feminism in Modern Japan Vera Mackie, 2003-02-26 Feminism in Modern Japan is an original and path breaking book which traces the history of feminist thought and women's activism in Japan from the late nineteenth century to the present The author offers a fascinating account of those who struck out against convention in the dissemination of ideas which challenged accepted notions of thinking about women men and society generally Feminist activism took diverse forms as women questioned their roles as subjects of the Emperor or explored the limits of citizenship under the more liberal post war constitution The story is brought to life through translated extracts of the writings of Japanese feminists This cogent carefully documented analysis will be welcomed by students from a range of disciplines including those working on gender studies and feminist history where nothing comparable is currently available Pro Bono Seicho Matsumoto, 2022-10-04 When Kiriko Yanagida first came to Otsuka's law offices she had only a familial conviction of her brother's innocence despite his confessing to the murder To the high profile and high priced lawyer Otsuka this small town girl's belief was nothing more than naive hope so he sent her away advising her to find a local lawyer or something Now Kiriko plots to avenge her brother entirely pro bono

Niki de Saint Phalle in the 1960s Jill Dawsey, Michelle White, 2021-08-24 A timely reassessment of the artist's early performances and feminist sculptures affirming their radical engagements and art historical significance This volume is a focused look at two bodies of work the Tirs shooting paintings and Nanas dames in the experimental 1960s practice of the French American artist Niki de Saint Phalle 1930 2002 Alongside a poetic response to the work four essays treat Saint Phalle's oeuvre as works of radical performance and feminist art as well as highlighting her transatlantic projects and collaborations A chronology with photo documentation and known participants details for the first time all Tirs shooting events in Europe and the United States and another timeline recaps Saint Phalle's life in the 1960s Tirs were made by firing a 22 caliber rifle at the surfaces of paintings The bullets pierced bags of pigment aerosol paint cans or even food embedded in dense assemblages covered in painted plaster Saint Phalle's increasingly liberated female figures with outstretched arms curvaceous forms and powerful poses developed into her well known Nanas an evolution contemporaneous with the rise of a Euro American feminist movement Video from Tokyo to Fukui and Kyoto Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 1979

Japanese Counterculture Steven C. Ridgely, 2010 Explores the significant impact of this countercultural figure of postwar Japan Art of Japanese Architecture David Young, Michiko Young, 2019-03-26 The Art of Japanese Architecture presents a complete overview of Japanese architecture in its historical and cultural context The book begins with a discussion of early prehistoric dwellings and concludes with a description of works by important modern Japanese architects Along the
