studied in Paris traveled in Spain and divided her time between Canada and the United States where she lived among America's Arts and Crafts movement titans. She left slender written records rather her art became her diary and Flower Diary unfolds with an artwork for each episode of her life. In this sumptuous and precisely researched biography celebrated poet and biographer Molly Peacock brings Mary Hiester Reid, foremother of painters such as Georgia O'Keeffe out of the shadows revealing a fascinating complex woman who insisted on her right to live as a married artist not as a tragic heroine. Peacock uses her poet's skill to create a structurally inventive portrait of this extraordinary woman whom modernism almost swept aside weaving threads of her own marriage with Hiester Reid's following the history of empathy and examining how women manage the demands of creativity and domesticity coping with relationships stoves and steamships too. How do you make room for art when you must go to the market to buy a chicken for dinner? Hiester Reid had her answers as Peacock gloriously discovers.
