Encyclopedia of the Social Sciences Edwin Robert Anderson Seligman, Alvin Saunders Johnson, 1963 Politics in Plural Societies Alvin Rabushka, Kenneth A. Shepsle, 2009 This landmark study in the field of comparative politics is being celebrated for its return to print as the newest addition to the Longman Classics in Political Science series Politics in Plural Societies presents a model of political competition in multi ethnic societies and explains why plural societies and the struggle for power within them often erupt with inter ethnic hostility Distinguished scholars Alvin Rabushka and Kenneth Shepsle collaborate again in this reissuing of their classic work to demonstrate in a new epilogue the persistence of the arguments and evidence first offered in the book They apply this thesis to the multi ethnic politics of countries that are of great interest today Iraq Lebanon Sudan Yugoslavia and more International Handbook of Historical Archaeology Teresita Majewski, David Gaimster, 2009-06-07 In studying the past archaeologists have focused on the material remains of our ancestors Prehistorians generally have only artifacts to study and rely on the diverse material record for their understanding of past societies and their behavior Those involved in studying historically documented cultures not only have extensive material remains but also contemporary texts images and a range of investigative technologies to enable them to build a broader and more reflexive picture of how past societies communities and individuals operated and behaved Increasingly historical archaeology refers not to a particular period place or a method but rather an approach that interrogates the tensions between artifacts and texts irrespective of context In short historical archaeology provides direct evidence for how humans have shaped the world we live in today Historical archaeology is a branch of global archaeology that has grown in the last 40 years from its North American base into an increasingly global community of archaeologists each studying their area of the world in a historical context Where historical archaeology started as part of the study of the post Columbian societies of the United States and Canada it has now expanded to interface with the post medieval archaeologies of Europe and the diverse post imperial experiences of Africa Latin America and Australasia The 36 essays in the International Handbook of Historical Archaeology have been specially commissioned from the leading researchers in their fields creating a wide ranging digest of the increasingly global field of historical archaeology The volume is divided into two sections the first reviewing the key themes issues and approaches of historical archaeology today and the second containing a series of case studies charting the development and current state of historical archaeological practice around the world This key reference work captures the energy and diversity of this global discipline today Principles of Management Charles W. L. Hill, Steven Lattimore McShane, 2009 Methods and Results of Testing School Children Evelyn Dewey, Emily Child, Beardsley Ruml, 1920 Strategic Trade Policy and the New International Economics Paul R. Krugman, 1986 This volume of original essays brings the practical world of trade policy and of government and business strategy together with the world of academic trade theory It focuses in particular on the impact of changes in the international trade environment and on how

new developments and theory can guide our trade policy Contents New Thinking about Trade Policy Paul Krugman Sloan School of Management MIT Rationales for Strategic Trade and Industrial Policy James A Brander University of British Columbia Strategic Export Promotion A Critique Gene M Grossman Woodrow Wilson School Princeton University Government Policy and the Dynamics of International Competition in High Technology Michael Borras Laura d Andrea Tyson and John Zysman all at the University of California Berkeley What Should Trade Policy Target Barbara Spencer University of British Columbia Credit Policy and International Competition Jonathan Eaton University of Virginia Industrial Policy An Overview Geoffrey Carliner National Bureau of Economic Research Japan s Industrial Strategy Kozo Yamamura University of Washington U S Trade and Industrial Policy William R Cline Institute for International Economics Strategic Behavior and Trade Policy Alvin K Klevorick Yale University and William Branson Princeton University The New Political Economy of Trade Policy J David Richardson University of Wisconsin Trade Policy An Agenda for Research Avinash K Dixit Woodrow Wilson School Princeton University Paul Krugman is Professor of Economics at MIT A former member of the staff of the Council of Economic Advisers Krugman is also coauthor with Elhanan Helpman of Market Structure and Foreign Trade MIT Press 1985

Tourism and the Environment Helen Briassoulis, Jan van der Straaten, 2012-12-06 The issue of maintaining a balanced relationship between tourism and the environment has received considerable attention since the 1970s However only in the 1980s and 1990s did it become a topic of systematic academic inquiry and research distinguished from the broader area of the environmental impacts of recreation and leisure activities This volume dwells on the environmental and economic impacts of tourism and is divided as follows Part 1 Introduction and Overview Part 2 Tourism and the Environment General Considerations Part 3 Regional Issues Part 4 Economic Issues Part 5 Policy Issues The work is complemented by a subject index
