writing days a treasure for readers interested in Canadian literature because this is where it all began Prairie Fire Review of Books The outburst of cultural energy that took place in the 1960s was in part a product of the two decades that came before It s always difficult for young people to see their own time in perspective when you re in your teens a decade earlier feels like ancient history and the present moment seems normal what exists now is surely what has always existed In this short work Margaret Atwood author of The Handmaid s Tale and Canada s most famous writer The New Yorker compares the Canadian literary landscape of the 1960s to the Burgess Shale a geological formation that contains the fossils of many strange prehistoric life forms The Burgess Shale is not entirely about writing itself however Atwood also provides some insight into the meager writing infrastructure of that time taking a lighthearted look at the early days of the institutions we take for granted today from writers organizations prizes and grant programs to book tours and festivals Allows the reader a brief glimpse into the mind of a great writer and her perspective and experience living through what would now seem to many the Stone Age of the Canadian writing scene invaluable and very readable Canadian Literature Paddy Bogside Paddy Doherty,2001 A carpenter and builder by trade Paddy Doherty was strongly active in the Civil Rights agitation of the late 1960s and early 1970s and was on occasion a victim of police brutality A radical and trade unionist this is his story as he gives an account of his life in the city of Derry Barthélémé Toguo Philippe Dagen,2020-11-30 Barth l my Toguo is a multiple disciplinary artist whose work addresses migration colonialism race exile and displacement Born in 1967 in Cameroon he lives and works between Bandjoun and Paris After studying at the fine arts academy in Abidjan Ivory Coast Toguo made his way to the fine arts academy in Grenoble then the Kunstakademie in D sseldorf Freely encompassing drawing sculpture video installation and performance his creations draw inspiration from his experience travels and encounters Watercolour has a central place in his work Toguo plays with the spaces where different materials overlap He created pathways between Western and African traditions and observes the language and new identities that arise therein His cultural and social engagement is evident in the Bandjoun Station art centre that he created in Cameroon in 2013 Toguo s work is in the collections of the Museum of Modern Art and the Studio Museum in Harlem New York Centre Georges Pompidou Paris Mus e d art contemporain Lyon Fondation Louis Vuitton and Kunstsammlungen der Stadt D sseldorf among others Solo exhibitions of his work have been presented at institutions including Uppsala Art Museum Sweden Mus e d art moderne et contemporain de Saint Etienne France La Verri re by Herm s Brussels Funda ao Gulbenkian Lisbon and Palais de Tokyo Paris Languages French and English Type Ammonites Sydney Savory Buckman,1972 I Have a Dog Charlotte Lance,2014-05-01 I have a dog An inconvenient dog When I wake up my dog is inconvenient When I m getting dressed my dog is inconvenient And when I m making tunnels my dog is SUPER inconvenient But sometimes an inconvenient dog can be big and warm and cuddly Sometimes an inconvenient dog can be the most comforting friend in the whole wide world The Logic of Science in Sociology [sound Recording] Walter L. Wallace,1971 The subject of this book is limited to the

abstract form or logic of science as applied particularly to scientific sociology The chief aim is to compress to simplify and to organize into an easily understood and reasonably well documented scheme some principal answers to questions such as What makes a discipline scientific in the first place What are theories empirical generalizations hypotheses and observations and how are they related to each other What is meant by the scientific method What roles do induction and deduction play in science What are the places of measurement sampling techniques descriptive statistics statistical inference scale construction tests of significance grand theories and middle range theories What parts are played by our ideas concerning logic causality and chance What is the significance of the rule of parsimony How do verbal and mathematical languages compare in expressing scientific statements The intended use of this book goes beyond these abstract questions The discussion presented here may serve a practical role in the sociology and history of science by providing a framework for reducing the enormous variety of scientific researches both within a given field and across all fields to a limited number of interrelated formal elements Such a framework it is hoped may prove useful in assessing empirical relationships between the formal aspects of scientific work and its substantive social economic political and historical aspects Wallace identifies four ways of generating and testing the truth of empirical statements authoritarian mystical logico rational and scientific and considers each in depth As he concludes In science as in everyday life things must be believed to be seen as well as seen to be believed and questions must already be answered a little if they are to be asked at all This is a work of synthesis that merits close attention It provides an area for viewing theory as something more than a review of the history of any single social science discipline Walter L Wallace is Professor of Sociology Emeritus at Princeton University He is also the author of Sociological Theory An Introduction and Principles of Scientific Sociology available from AldineTransaction Yvain Chretien de Troyes,Chrétien (de Troyes),1987-09-10 A twelfth century poem by the creator of the Arthurian romance describes the courageous exploits and triumphs of a brave lord who tries to win back his deserted wife s love Human Zoos Pascal Blanchard,Nicolas Bancel,Eric Deroo,2008 Human zoos forgotten symbols of the colonial era have been totally repressed in our collective memory In these anthrozoological exhibitions exotic individuals were placed alongside wild beasts and presented behind bars or in enclosures Human zoos were a key factor however in the progressive shift in the West from scientific to popular racism Beginning with the early nineteenth century European exhibition of the Hottentot Venus this volume underlines the ways in which these exhibitions affected the lives of tens of millions of visitors from London to New York from Warsaw to Milan from Moscow to Tokyo Human Zoos puts into perspective the spectacularization of the Other a process that is at the origin of contemporary stereotypes and of the construction of our own identities This is a unique book on a crucial phenomenon which takes us to the heart of Western fantasies and allows us to understand the genesis of identity in Japan Europe and North America BOOK JACKET Michelin Haute-loire Mark Sumner,2001 Michelin Guide No. 322 Michelin Travel Publications,1989-12-01 Michelin Chateaux of the Loire Michelin Tyre
