Lake Pavin T  lesphore Sime-Ngando, Pierre Boivin, Emmanuel Chapron, Didier Jezequel, Michel Meybeck, 2018-07-07 This book represents the first multidisciplinary scientific work on a deep volcanic maar lake in comparison with other similar temperate lakes The syntheses of the main characteristics of Lake Pavin are for the first time set in a firmer footing comparative approach encompassing regional national European and international aquatic science contexts It is a unique lake because of its permanently anoxic monimolimnion and furthermore because of its small surface area its substantially low human influence and by the fact that it does not have a river inflow The book reflects the scientific research done on the general limnology history origin volcanology and geological environment as well as on the geochemistry and biogeochemical cycles Other chapters focus on the biology and microbial ecology whereas the sedimentology and paleolimnology are also given attention This volume will be of special interest to researchers and advanced students primarily in the fields of limnology biogeochemistry and aquatic ecology

The WEB of Transport Corridors in South Asia Asian Development Bank, JICA, UKAID, World Bank, 2018-03-19 The WEB of Transport Corridors in South Asia develops a holistic appraisal methodology to ensure that economic benefits of investments in transport corridors are amplified and more widely spread and possible negative impacts such as congestion environmental degradation and other unintended consequences are minimized It focuses on South Asia not only as one of the world's most populous and poorest regions but as a hinge between East Asia Central Asia the Middle East and Europe The book is aimed at politicians technocrats civil society organizations and businesses It presents case studies of past and recent corridor initiatives provides rigorous analysis of the literature on the spatial impact of corridors and offers assessments of corridor investment projects supported by international development organizations A series of spotlights examines such issues as private sector co investment the impacts of corridors on small enterprises and women and issues with implementing cross border corridors The WEB in the title stands for both the wider economic benefits WEB that transport corridors are expected to generate and the complex web of transport corridors that has been proposed The appraisal methodology introduced in this book shows how the web of interconnected elements around corridors can be disentangled and the most promising corridor proposals the ones with the greatest wider economic benefits can be selected

Leveraging Export Diversification in Fragile Countries Jos   L  pez-C  lix, 2020-02-12 Despite multiple past efforts fragile Sub Saharan African economies such as those of Mali Chad Niger and Guinea still rank among the least diversified worldwide with natural resources constituting a high share of their gross domestic product or exports Large scale production of gold for Mali oil for Chad uranium for Niger and bauxite for Guinea offers substantial opportunities but also has major shortcomings Conclusive evidence shows poor economic performance by resource rich but fragile Sub Saharan African countries The primary reason is not only their high vulnerability to external shocks but the greed or grievances that typically lead to rents appropriation by a small group of elites in countries that are prone to conflict Leveraging Export Diversification in Fragile Countries explores the following questions What are Mali's Chad's Niger's and Guinea's main constraints to export diversification as perceived by key exporting firms How it could be beneficial for these countries to target certain emerging export products Are their current interventions to promote global value chain GVC adequate What lessons can be extracted from specific cases How can trade and logistic policies favor or hamper export diversification led growth The book lays the groundwork for effective step by step multidimensional policies to propel export diversification in fragile economies that are hindered not only by poor governance and weak institutions but also by their landlocked position except Guinea small domestic markets and business unfriendly environments Recognizing that traditional project interventions in these countries have had limited success mainly due to their unidimensional focus on single components of an agricultural value chain the book proposes a GVC 2.0 cluster based approach to export diversification in which complementary efforts attract foreign firms and public investment in support of agribusiness Promising pilot examples of joint implementation plans among multiple donors risk sharing facilities and agribusiness clusters provide valuable insights into recent global value chain developer interventions The Battle for Spain

The Barbary Macaque Julia E. Fa,2012-12-06 The Barbary macaque all too often mistakenly called an ape was first brought to the attention of the Conservation Working Party of the Primate Society of Great Britain late 1979 when John Fa reported that surplus animals were being sent from Gibraltar to dubious locations such as an Italian safari park Since there had been no scientific input into the Army's management of the monkey colony on Gibraltar and there was concern about inbreeding nutrition and health about the long term viability of the colony it was felt that the Society could help The Gibraltar Scientific Authority and the Army were very receptive to our offer and ideas and this topic occupied successive chairmen over the last few years Robin Dunbar and Richard Wrangham myself and now Miranda Stevenson with constant prompting and help from John Fa Considerations soon extended to the status of the species as a whole so that there have been three main aspects 1 the improved health of a larger self sustaining population on Gibraltar 2 the status and behavioural biology of natural populations in North Africa Morocco and Algeria and 3 the breeding achievements in European parks and zoos and their potential for reintroduction to suitable areas in North Africa along with other possibilities Robin Dunbar organized the compilation of recommendations for managing the Gibraltar colony with regard to numbers age sex structure and behavioural relationships with some observations on diet to avoid obesity and infertility

Corporate reputation Ángel Alloza, Enrique Carreras, Ana Carreras, 2013-06 Reputation has become an essential strategic asset for companies Those businesses that enjoy a good reputation are able to differentiate themselves thus attracting investments and retaining customers and employees while at the same time stakeholders of such companies demonstrate higher levels of satisfaction and loyalty towards the companies products and brands Currently corporate reputation is one of the most popular non financial indicators used by organizations both in the public and private sectors This book is an in depth investigation of the psychosocial nature of corporate reputation and we invite the reader to join us on a journey of discovery When reputation first appeared as a concept it brought about promises and hopes It was viewed as a solution capable of reconciling the interests of different stakeholders and making the whole organization stronger However this giant soon turned out to have feet of clay as it was lacking in sufficient theoretical and methodological foundation Nonetheless when we step into the terra incognita of corporate intangible assets we will understand that the vague idea of reputation is gradually acquiring a scientific form thanks to the development of measurement tools and models that lay a foundation for the long sought after means of managing reputation
