Michael Hall, 2021-12-09 This book provides the first systematic and accessible text for students of hospitality and the culinary arts that directly addresses how more sustainable restaurants and commercial food services can be achieved Food systems receive growing attention because they link various sustainability dimensions Restaurants are at the heart of these developments and their decisions to purchase regional foods or to prepare menus that are healthier and less environmentally problematic have great influence on food production processes. This book is systematically designed around understanding the inputs and outputs of the commercial kitchen as well as what happens in the restaurant from the perspective of operators staff and the consumer The book considers different management approaches and further looks at the role of restaurants chefs and staff in the wider community and the positive contributions that commercial kitchens can make to promoting sustainable food ways Case studies from all over the world illustrate the tools and techniques helping to meet environmental and economic bottom lines This will be essential reading for all students of hospitality and the culinary Managing People in Commercial Kitchens Charalampos Giousmpasoglou, 2022 Managing People in Commercial arts Kitchens A Contemporary Approach uses original research to argue that senior managers Head Chefs should differentiate their people management practices in kitchen brigades from those used in the hospitality industry more generally induction socialisation and performance evaluation due to the group's strong occupational identity and culture The understanding of chefs work from a management perspective is critical for successful hospitality operations but has been historically under researched Chapters provide a detailed account of Chefs work in commercial kitchens from an HRM perspective Using occupational identity and culture as a vehicle this book explores the different aspects of managerial work in commercial kitchen settings general management leadership education and training skills and competencies managing deviant behaviour managing stress and managing diversity focused on gender segregation. The final chapter looks at future perspectives on this unique working environment and the many challenges arising from the latest developments such as the COVID 19 pandemic Providing both theoretical insights and practical applications with the use of case studies throughout this will be of great interest to upper level students and researchers in hospitality as well as a useful reference for current managers in the field The New York Times Index ,2004 Brands Adam Arvidsson, 2006 Brands are now a dominant feature of everyday life Drawing on rich empirical material this book builds up a critical theory arguing that brands have become an important tool for transforming everyday life into economic value Nefarious Crimes, Contested Justice Joanne M. Ferraro, 2008-12

Nefarious Crimes Contested Justice also traces shifting attitudes toward illegitimacy and paternity from the late sixteenth through the eighteenth centuries Both the Catholic Church and the Republic of Venice tried to enforce moral discipline and regulate sex and reproduction Unmarried pregnant women were increasingly stigmatized for engaging in sex Their claims for damages because of seduction or rape were largely unproven and the priests and laymen that they were involved with were often acquitted of any wrongdoing The lack of institutional support for single motherhood and the exculpation of fathers frequently led to abortion infant abandonment or even infant death
