Remembering Michigan's Civil War Soldiers David D. Finney Jr., Judith Stermer McIntosh, 2015-03-23 When the 1st Michigan Volunteer Infantry regiment arrived in Washington DC President Lincoln exclaimed Thank God for Michigan. The state raised more than 90,000 men to serve during the Civil War and 69 of them received the Medal of Honor. Notable Michiganders include Gen. Israel Richardson, Orlando Poe, Alpheus Williams, Orlando Willcox, and George Hartsuff, as well as The Boy General George Armstrong Custer and Officer Norman Hall who was stationed at Fort Sumter when the war began. Featuring images of the 4th Michigan Cavalry which captured Confederate president Jefferson Davis at the war's end and never before published photographs of Wolverine soldiers, Images of America: Remembering Michigan's Civil War Soldiers highlights hundreds of Michiganians who were committed to preserving the Union. Class Book United States. Naval Training School (Harvard University), 1942. Michigan Remembered Constance B. Schulz, 2001 In the collections of the Prints and Photographs Division of the Library of Congress are more than 1500 photographs of the state of Michigan during the depression and wartime years of the 1930s and 1940s taken by some of the most talented photographers of that generation. The FSA photographs have become the nation's visual memory of these trying times. Michigan Remembered contains 150 of these images chosen to represent various geographic areas of Michigan, the economic diversity of the state and its people, and a broad range of subjects ranging from urban and industrial scenes of Detroit and the surrounding areas to images of the Upper Peninsula and rural and community life in the Lower Peninsula. The two introductory essays enhance the story told by the photographs. The first by William H. Mulligan Jr. recounts the history of Michigan during the momentous events of the depression and wartime years. The second by Constance B. Schulz tells the lesser known story of the origins of the FSA in the agricultural program of the New Deal and explains the importance of Roy E. Stryker as the agency's director and the process by which more than 200,000 photographs were accumulated in the FSA OWI files. Brief biographical sketches of the photographers include descriptions of their travels and work in Michigan. Michigan Remembered joins more than a dozen other state studies of the FSA OWI photographs and provides a unique visual perspective on a key midwestern state during the mid-twentieth century. It will be of interest both to scholars of historical documentary photography and Michigan history and to those fascinated by historical photographs of years which they, their parents, or their grandparents can still
