The Mindset Lists of American History Tom McBride, Ron Nief, 2011-05-25 Snapshots of the U S s last nine generations from the creators of the Mindset List media sensation Just as high school graduates in 1957 couldn t imagine life without zippers those of 2009 can t imagine having to enter phone booths and deposit coins in order to call someone from the street corner Every August the Mindset List highlights the cultural touchstones that have shaped the lives of that year's incoming college class. Now this fascinating book extends the Mindset List approach to dramatize what it was like to grow up for every American generation since 1880, showcasing the remarkable changes in what Americans have considered normal about the world around them. Expands Tom McBride and Ron Nief's popular annual Mindset Lists to explore the mindset of nine generations of Americans from 1880 to the future high school graduates of 2030. Offers a novel and absorbing way to understand the frame of reference of Americans through history, whether it's the high school grads of 1918 who viewed riding an elevator as a thrill second only to roller coasters or those of 2009 who have always thought of friend as an active verb. Puts a human face on the evolution of historical changes related to technology, the struggle for rights and equality, the calamities of war and depression, and other areas. The annual Mindset List garners extensive media attention, including on Today, The Early Show, the NBC Nightly News, CNN, and Fox, as well as in the Wall Street Journal, the New York Times, USA Today, the Los Angeles Times, Time magazine, and hundreds of international publications. Whatever your own generational mindset, this book will give you an entertaining and important new tool for understanding the unique perspective and experience of Americans over more than a hundred and fifty years. Miesięcznik literacki, 1983

The Miscreants Christopher Hawkes, 2021. When their mother throws herself off the balcony of their Islington council flat, brothers Harry and Ethan are set adrift. Masterplots II. Charles Edward May, 2004. Examines the theme, characters, plot style, and technique of more than 1,200 nineteenth and twentieth century works by prominent authors from around the world.

Flicker Theodore Roszak, 2005. From the golden age of art movies and underground cinema to X-rated porn splatter films and midnight movies, this breathtaking thriller is a tour de force of cinematic fact and fantasy, full of metaphysical mysteries that will haunt the dreams of every moviegoer. Jonathan Gates could not have anticipated that his student studies would lead him to uncover the secret history of the movies, a tale of intrigue, deception, and death that stretches back to the 14th century. But he succumbs to what will be a lifelong obsession with the mysterious Max Castle, a nearly forgotten genius of the silent screen who later became the greatest director of horror films, only to vanish in the 1940s at the height of his talent. Now 20 years later, as Jonathan seeks the truth behind Castle's disappearance, the innocent entertainments of his youth—the sexy sirens, the screwball comedies, the high romance—take on a sinister appearance. His tortured quest takes him from Hollywood's Poverty Row into the shadowy lore of ancient religious heresies. He encounters a cast of exotic characters, including Orson Welles and John Huston, who teach him that there's more to film than meets the eye, and journeys through the dark side of nostalgia, where the Three Stooges and Shirley Temple join company with an alien god whose purposes are anything but entertainment.
