1852 Ohio twelve year old Owen steals aboard a floating circus called the River Palace with nothing more in mind than catching a little of the show But then a free black man named Solomon offers to take him on as an assistant animal keeper and Owen discovers a family among the ragtag members of the circus including a young elephant named Little Bet A brush with yellowfever in New Orleans and a devastating storm threaten the boat and its crew But it s the menace of slave catchers that poses the greatest danger of all and that will put Owen s loyalty to Solomon and Little Bet to the test This is a memorable tale of prejudice race and the relationships that transcend them Inspired by the riverboat circuses of the nineteenth century it also brings little known historical facts to life TRACIE VAUGHN ZIMMER has worked as a special
