Morrissette, 2013-05-13 Self Supervision synthesizes past and current literature on the theory and practice of self supervision and provides counselors and human service professionals with a plan for the pursuit of independent professional growth Beginning with a historical overview and discussion of the counselor client relationship boundary transgressions the counselor's family of origin and unresolved issues and disclosure styles the author provides the reader with a foundation for understanding the issues that must be examined when evaluating one s own work He then outlines the reflective process and describes the actual practice guiding principles and strategies for self supervision Finally the author presents several proactive measures for counselor Communication in Organizations Henk T. van der Molen, Yvonne H. self care that readers will find useful Gramsbergen-Hoogland, 2005 Simultaneously published in the USA and Canada Communication in Organizations ,2005-11-21 One of the most important requirements of leadership is effective communication. The idea that some people are natural leaders and that others will never learn to show good leadership is now outdated It has been replaced by the conviction that leadership and communication skills can be learnt Providing a thorough introduction to skilled interpersonal communication Communication in Organizations consists of three parts Part I introduces basic communication skills and makes a distinction between regulating skills listening skills and sender skills Part II considers a number of different dialogues the interview used to gather information the selection interview the employment interview the performance evaluation interview the personal problems interview handling complaints breaking bad news and the sales interview Part III is dedicated to conversations in more complex group situations discussing decision making conflict management negotiations and giving presentations Practical examples and concrete conversations are used to give students and professionals straight forward advice on key leadership skills including motivating people delegating tasks leading meetings and overseeing projects This book will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students of psychology as well as those studying business economics and the hospitality industry Behavioral Methods in Social Welfare Steven Paul Schinke, James. K Whittaker, Scott Briar, 2017-09-08 Behavioral Methods in Social Welfare offers positive proof that behaviorism has come of age in social work Steven Paul Schinke and the contributors to this volume are social work practitioners who document their attempts to extend the basic tenets of behavioral psychology from the laboratory clinic and classroom to the full range of client groups and social problems that make up the practice of social work In social work education traditionally to the extent it appeared in the curriculum at all behavioral content appeared in electives or in courses not focused on practice It is a true measure of progress that behavioral methods are now visible integral component of social work education and practice The authors of each piece in this collection indicate progress in developing an empirically based approach to social work practice Despite the impressive documentation contained in the present volume no conclusive evidence as to the effectiveness of behavioral methods exists What behavioral methods do offer however is a systematic format for both problem intervention and evaluation that over time should produce a more empirically based practice A promising sign well documented in the present effort is the facility with which this book has subjected practice procedures to the rigor of research and evaluation This blending of clinical practice and research develops the sense of competence that student practitioners acquire in understanding and controlling both the art and science of their clinical practice Steven Schinke and his colleagues offer a series of snapshots of important work in process Their collective portrait provides a fresh perspective and new stimulus for all social work practice as well as an affirmation that disciplined responsive and sensitive social work intervention can make a difference in the lives of people The SAGE Handbook of Counselling and Psychotherapy Colin Feltham, Ian Horton, 2012-01-20 Electronic Inspection Copy available for instructors here At about 700 pages and with contributions from more than 100 authors the editors have shown considerable skill not to mention application in sculpting a text that is economically delivered and lucid in its writing Dave Mearns Professor Emeritus University of Strathclyde Glasgow The field of counselling and psychotherapy moves on but The Sage Handbook of Counselling and Psychotherapy keeps up Professor Sue Wheeler Director of the Doctoral Programme Institute of Lifelong Learning University of Leicester This book is the definitive text on the theory and practice of counselling and psychotherapy The editors are to be commended Professor Robert Bor CPsychol FBPsS CSci UKCP Reg FRAeS Lead Consultant Clinical Counselling Health Psychologist Royal Free Hospital and Co Director Dynamic Change Consultants www dccclinical com The what s what from the who s who in counselling in psychotherapy Professor Del Loewenthal RCTE University of Roehampton This long awaited third edition brings together the fundamentals of counselling and psychotherapy theory research skills and practice It addresses what every successful trainee or practitioner needs to know do think feel and use in a way that is entirely comprehensive accessible and jargon free Including new material on interpersonal psychotherapy cognitive analytic therapy pluralistic therapy and mindfulness as well as body psychotherapy hypnotherapy Asperger Syndrome ADHD and low self esteem this book continues to be essential reading for trainees or experienced practitioners alike Colin Feltham is Emeritus Professor of Critical Counselling Studies Sheffield Hallam University Fellow of the British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy BACP Senior Registered Practitioner and former co editor of the British Journal for Guidance and Counselling Ian Horton is now retired and was Principal Lecturer in Counselling and Psychotherapy at University of East London Chair of the UKRC Executive a BACP accredited counsellor and UKRC registered independent counsellor He is a fellow of the BACP Heart to Heart Constance Raab, Jeanne L. Tillotson, 1983 Abstract A reference text for nutrition counselors provides recommendations developed during two 1975 conferences and several nutrition counseling workshops for reducing cardiovascular disease risk through improved nutrition practices Topics include techniques for nutritional assessment and patient monitoring practical nutrition counseling guidelines group counseling for achieving nutritional behavior changes and a program and recommendations for improving on the job counseling skills Lists of recommended readings for nutrition counselors patient education materials relevant professional associations and a checklist for assessing patient education materials are appended wz Counseling Alcoholic Clients National Center for Alcohol Education, 1978 On Becoming a Psychotherapist Robert H. Klein, Harold S. Bernard, Victor L. Schermer, 2010-12-31 On Becoming a Psychotherapist explores how psychotherapists develop as practitioners through both professional training and the training that can only be obtained through personal experience IDM Supervision Cal D. Stoltenberg, Brian W. McNeill, 2011-04-27 The third edition of this book is an updated and expanded presentation of the widely used Integrative Developmental Model of Supervision In contrast to other volumes on clinical supervision Stoltenberg and McNeill present a comprehensive time tested and empirically investigated model of supervision rather than a broad summary of other existing or historical approaches In addition to presenting a model of therapist development that spans beginning through advanced training the book integrates theory and research from numerous perspectives including learning cognition and emotion as well as an up to date treatment of research directly addressing the supervision process The model also examines the role of clinical supervision from an evidence based practice perspective and addresses issues of common factors in therapy The impact of cultural issues in supervision and training as well as recent work in a competencies approach to supervision and trainee development are also examined
