Parallel Lives Michael Martins, Dennis A. Binette, 2010 Shed's new light on the life of Lizzie Andrew Borden and at the same time provide a unique and previously neglected look at the social history of Fall River during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries from publisher website Parallel Stories Péter Nádas, 2011-11-10 In 1989 the memorable year when the Wall came down a university student in Berlin on his early morning run finds a corpse lying on a park bench and alerts the authorities This classic police procedural scene opens an extraordinary novel a masterwork that traces the fate of myriad Europeans Hungarians Jews Germans Gypsies across the treacherous years of the mid twentieth century The social and political circumstances of their lives may vary richly their sexual and spiritual longings may seem to each of them entirely unique yet Peter Nádas's magnificent tapestry unveils uncanny reverberating parallels that link them across time and space Three unusual men are at the heart of Parallel Stories Hans von Wolkenstein whose German mother is linked to dark secrets of fascist Nazi collaboration during the 1940s Gost Lippay Lehr whose influential father has served Hungary's different political regimes for decades and Andras Rott who has his own dark record of dark activities abroad They are friends in Budapest when we eventually meet them in the spring of 1961 a pivotal time in the postwar epoch and in their clandestine careers But the richly detailed dramatic memories and actions of these men like those of their friends lovers and family members range from Berlin and Moscow to Switzerland and Holland from the Mediterranean to the North Sea and of course across Hungary The ever daring ever original episodes of Parallel Lives explore the most intimate most difficult human experiences in a prose glowing with uncommon clarity and also with mysterious uncertainty as is characteristic of Nádas's subtle spirited art The web of extended dramas in Parallel Stories reaches not just forward to the transformative year of 1989 but back to the spring of 1939 with Europe trembling on the edge of war to the bestial times of 1944-45 when Budapest was besieged the final solution devastated Hungary's Jews and the war came to an end and to the cataclysmic Hungarian Revolution of October 1956 But there is much more to Parallel Stories than that it is a daring demanding and very moving exploration of humanity at its most constrained and its most free Conversations with Ben Okri Vanessa

Guignery, 2024-04-15 Conversations with Ben Okri collects twenty six interviews that range from 1986 to 2023 and reflect the international resonance of Nigerian writer Ben Okri's work The reader is given access to the various phases of Okri's life and career beginning with his childhood b 1959 and upbringing in Nigeria and the publication of his early short stories and novels The interviews also explore the tremendous success of The Famished Road for which Okri became the first Black

African writer to receive the Booker Prize in 1991 and the dazzling creativity of his subsequent work in a multiplicity of literary genres The volume offers insight into the writer's creative process and his unique views on literature history memory politics freedom spirituality and environmental issues The conversations often veer into fascinating philosophical discussions about the nature of art and reality the value of myth and the dynamics of storytelling Since the publication of his first novel in 1980 Okri has encouraged his readers to open their minds and eyes to new modes of perceiving reality Convinced of the universality of art he has been intent on redreaming the world from a variety of perspectives in poems essays short stories novels and plays written over a period of more than forty years Throughout his career Ben Okri has never stopped experimenting with new forms creating the stoku a mixture of short story and haiku endowing his fictional and nonfictional creations with poetic undertones and collaborating with visual artists musicians and dancers

Parallel Worlds Alma Gottlieb, Philip Graham, 1994-11 This suspenseful and moving memoir of Africa recounts the experiences of Alma Gottlieb an anthropologist and Philip Graham a fiction writer as they lived in two remote villages in the rain forest of Cote d'Ivoire With an unusual coupling of first person narratives their alternate voices tell a story imbued with sweeping narrative power humility and gentle humor Parallel Worlds is a unique look at Africa anthropological fieldwork and the artistic process A remarkable look at a remote society and an engaging memoir that testifies to a loving partnership compelling

James Idema Chicago Tribune

Mickey and Willie Allen Barra, 2014-04-01 Acclaimed sportswriter Allen Barra exposes the uncanny parallels and lifelong friendship between two of the greatest baseball players ever to take the field Culturally Mickey Mantle and Willie Mays were light years apart Yet they were nearly the same age and almost the same size and they came to New York at the same time They possessed virtually the same talents and played the same position They were both products of generations of baseball playing families for whom the game was the only escape from a lifetime of brutal manual labor Both were nearly crushed by the weight of the outsized expectations placed on them first by their families and later by America Both lived secret lives far different from those their fans knew What their fans also didn't know was that the two men shared a close personal friendship and that each was the only man who could truly understand the other's experience

The Man Who Grew His Beard Olivier Schrauwen, 2011-09-27 The Man Who Grew His Beard is Belgian cartoonist Olivier Schrauwen's first American book after having staked a reputation as one of Europe's most talented storytellers It collects seven short stories each a head spinning display of craft and storytelling that mixes early twentieth century comics influences like Winsor McCay with a thoroughly contemporary voice that provokes and entertains with subversively surreal humor and subtle criticism of twentieth century tropes and images

NLT Parallel Study Bible Tyndale, 2011-08 Discovery and Application on the Same Page for the First Time Now you don't have to choose between context and application Expository study notes help you understand the Bible like a 1st century believer Number one selling Life Application notes help you apply its truths in a 21st century world This Bible recognizes that Bible application is best done with a thorough knowledge of historical and literary context The NLT Study Bible is excellent at establishing this base The Life Application Study Bible content can then guide the reader in concrete steps toward application The New Living Translation is an authoritative Bible translation rendered faithfully into today's English from the ancient texts by 90 leading Bible scholars The NLT's scholarship and clarity breathe life into even the most difficult to understand Bible passages That's why we call it The Truth Made Clear Nehru and Bose Rudrangshu Mukherjee,2015-09-15 Nobody has done more harm to me than Jawaharlal Nehru wrote Subhas Chandra Bose in 1939 Had relations between the two great nationalist leaders soured to the extent that Bose had begun to view Nehru as his enemy But then why did he name one of the regiments of the Indian National Army after Jawaharlal And what prompted Nehru to weep when he heard of Bose's untimely death in 1945 and to recount soon after I used to treat him as my younger brother Rudrangshu Mukherjee's fascinating book traces the contours of a friendship that did not quite blossom as political ideologies diverged and delineates the shadow that fell between them for Gandhi saw Nehru as his chosen heir and Bose as a prodigal son Parallel Lives of Jesus Edward Adams,2011-11-11 In this highly readable introduction to the Gospels Edward Adams demonstrates how the four canonical Gospels function separately as unique accounts of Jesus' life and as narrative renditions of a shared story the Fourfold Gospel Building on the premise that the Gospels are ancient biographies or lives of Jesus Adams examines parallel Gospel passages highlighting the similarities and differences between them He begins by approaching the four Gospels generally then looks at each of them individually and finally considers six key Gospel passages to further explore the unity and plurality of the Gospels in a more focused way Adams's lucid prose helps to make this text ideal for beginning students of the Gospels Tin House Win McCormack,2014-05-27 In our increasingly mediated society where joy is self-conscious and tweeted about as it is happening is it possible for the genuinely ecstatic experience From religious to chemically induced from biochemical analysis to attempts to capture the ineffable our issue on the ecstatic will feature poetry fiction and essays addressing the ecstatic and its counterparts the comedown and ecstasy thwarted whether by internal or external means Tin House is a beautifully designed periodical that features the best writers of our time alongside a new generation of talent poised to become the most important voices of the future Content includes short stories profiles author interviews poetry essays and unique departments such as Lost and Found in which writers review overlooked or underrated books and Blithe Spirits and Readable Feast which present tales and recipes for drinks and food in a literary way Parallel Lives Karl Baughman,Brook Poston,2022-06-01 This book compares selected Romans of the late Republic with American Founders in the style of Plutarch encouraging readers to rethink how we view heroes and villains and their conceptions of republicanism Through entertaining yet informative short comparisons this volume demonstrates the humanity of heroes and villains from different times and places through their often idiosyncratic similarities and differences Readers gain not only a fuller understanding of the late Roman and early American Republics and their leaders but also an appreciation for comparative biography in its ability to make connections across the human experience The book provides a way to connect two different areas of study focusing on how republicanism shaped both Romans and American Founders and providing a previously unexplored contribution to a growing trend of broadening historical exposure In doing so Baughman and Poston demonstrate the continued need for connecting different fields of history while also helping students understand their connection to the ancient past This book is suitable for students and scholars interested in the late Roman and the early American Republics and also appeals to readers of varied interests across historical times and places particularly those studying the connections between the classical past and modern world     Arsène Schrauwen OLIVIER.
