Eskin, Greg Drake, 1998 This 3 vol work constitutes a vastly enlarged and expanded new edition of the Index to American Photographic Collections 3rd enlarged edition differing from the previous editions in two important respects First is the inclusion of holdings from outside the United States a natural evolution in our shrinking world The second is the inclusion of exhibition histories cross referenced by photographer and sponsoring institution providing a useful new context for evaluating less well known photographers Art Now/U.S.A. , 1988 The Photograph and the American Dream, 1840-1940 Stephen White, Andreas Blühm, 2001 Perhaps no nation has been so thoroughly shaped by its dreams as has America and perhaps no other dreams have been captured on camera as often and as diversely as America's The mythic American Dream has been the subject of photographic documentation since the 1840s when photographers first began traveling to the New World in search of subjects From an unknown photographer's picture of newborn George B Billings Rego scion of an immigrant Portuguese family and the first child ever born at Boston Long Wharf to Lewis Hine's wrenching image of a young cotton mill worker in Georgia to Alfred Stieglitz's awesome New York cityscapes the photographs collected here reveal the multiple facets of 100 of the most decisive years of American development Between 1840 and 1940 immigrants became homeowners untouched lands exploded in superhuman industrial growth tourists replaced pioneers and the American metropolis grew taller and shinier and the camera caught it all Art Now Gallery Guide , 1990-06
