Paranormal Libido Jack Bowman, 2003-03-20 No Description Paranormal Libido Jack Bowman, 2003-03-19 No Description The Phantom Image Patrick R. Crowley, 2019-12-10 Drawing from a rich corpus of art works including sarcophagi tomb paintings and floor mosaics Patrick R Crowley investigates how something as insubstantial as a ghost could be made visible through the material grit of stone and paint In this fresh and wide ranging study he uses the figure of the ghost to offer a new understanding of the status of the image in Roman art and visual culture Tracing the shifting practices and debates in antiquity about the nature of vision and representation Crowley shows how images of ghosts make visible structures of beholding and strategies of depiction Yet the figure of the ghost simultaneously contributes to a broader conceptual history that accounts for how modalities of belief emerged and developed in antiquity Neither illustrations of ancient beliefs in ghosts nor depictions of afterlife these images show us something about the visual event of seeing itself The Phantom Image offers essential insight into ancient art visual culture and the history of the image Gothic Metaphysics Jodey Castricano, 2021-11-15 We live in the time of the Anthropocene which calls for a paradigm shift in our relation to this planet One of the themes of this book is to call attention to the shift This book is a challenge to Literary Gothic and Cultural Studies The case for rethinking approaches to gothic fiction is built on an extended critique of Freudian assumptions and antinomies of the occult associated with mechanism materialism and classical physics a critique informed by Jung and an engaging re evaluation of mystical animist and alchemical modes of thought linked to quantum physics new materialism along with curiously but effectively Derridean deconstruction and cryptonymy Readers will benefit from the depth and breadth of the research in this book that draws upon philosophical anthropological psychoanalytic and scientific thought to engage with a literary genre in a way that changes how we think about Gothic Studies Thanatos on a Southland Freeway Jack Bowman, 2002-03-01 In Thanatos on a Southland Freeway the reader senses a range of dark brooding cloud poems on the horizon and as the wind blows each moves overhead and deposits its contents on the reader below A sense of interesting dread and a mysterious forest of words attempt to lure the reader in and keeps him there trapped Minor Histories Mike Kelley, 2004-02-06 The second volume of writings by Los Angeles artist Mike Kelley focusing on his own work What John C Welchman calls the blazing network of focused conflations from which Mike Kelley s styles are generated is on display in all its diversity in this second volume of the artist s writings The first volume Foul Perfection contained thematic essays and writings about other artists this collection concentrates on Kelley s own work ranging from texts in voices that grew out of scripts for performance pieces to expository critical and autobiographical writings Minor Histories organizes Kelley s writings into five sections Statements consists of twenty pieces produced between 1984 and 2002 most of which were written to accompany exhibitions including Ajax which draws on Homer Colgate Palmolive and Longinus to present its eponymous hero Some Aesthetic High Points an exercise in autobiography that counters the standard artist bio included in catalogs and press releases and a sequence of creative writings that use mass cultural tropes in concert with high art mannerisms approximating in prose the visual styles that characterize Kelley's artwork Video Statements and Proposals are introductions to videos made by Kelley and other artists including Paul McCarthy and Bob Flanagan and Sheree Rose Image Texts offers writings that accompany or are part of artworks and installations This section includes A Stopgap Measure Kelley's zestful millennial essay in social satire and Meet John Doe a collage of appropriated texts Architecture features an discussion of Kelley's Educational Complex 1995 and an interview in which he reflects on the role of architecture in his work Finally Ufology considers the aesthetics and sexuality of space as manifested by UFO sightings and abduction scenarios

The Father Sharon Olds, 1992-04-21 A searing sequence of poems about a daughter's vision of a father's illness and death by the Pulitzer Prize and T S Eliot Prize for Poetry winner called a poet for these times a powerful woman who won't back down San Francisco Chronicle The Father chronicles these events in a connected narrative from the onset of the illness to reflections in the years after the death The book is most of all a series of acts of understanding The poems are impelled by a passion to know and a freedom to follow wherever the truth may lead The book goes into area of feeling and experience rarely entered in poetry The ebullient language the startling far reaching images the sense of extraordinary connectedness seize us immediately Sharon Olds transforms a harsh reality with truthfulness with beauty with humor and without bitterness The deep pain in The Father arises from a death and from understanding a life But there is joy as well In the end we discover we have been reading not a grim accounting but an inspiring tragedy transcending the personal The radiance and daring that have always distinguished Sharon Olds's work find here their most powerful expression Avoiding the Subject Justin Clemens, Dominic Pettman, 2004 Annotation Elizabeth A Kaye specializes in communications as part of her coaching and consulting practice She has edited Requirements for Certification since the 2000-01 edition Forty Studies that

Diffusion of responsibility Obey at Any Cost Milgram S 1963 Behavioral study of obedience Ghost-Managed Medicine Sergio Sismondo, 2018 On Their Own Terms Benjamin A. Elman, 2009-07-01 In On Their Own Terms Benjamin A. Elman offers a much needed synthesis of early Chinese science during the Jesuit period 1600 1800 and the modern sciences as they evolved in China under Protestant influence 1840s 1900 By 1600 Europe was ahead of Asia in producing basic machines such as clocks levers and pulleys that would be necessary for the mechanization of agriculture and industry In the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Elman shows Europeans still sought from the Chinese their secrets of producing silk fine textiles and porcelain as well as large scale tea cultivation Chinese literati borrowed in turn new algebraic notations of Hindu Arabic origin Tychonic cosmology Euclidian geometry and various computational advances Since the middle of the nineteenth century imperial reformers early Republicans Guomindang party cadres and Chinese Communists have all prioritized science and technology In this book Elman gives a nuanced account of the ways in which native Chinese science evolved over four centuries under the influence of both Jesuit and Protestant missionaries In the end he argues the Chinese produced modern science on their own terms A Space Apart Meredith Sue Willis, 2005-03 Willis fleshes out with warmth and tenderness the complexities of family love which not only defines commitment but deepens the need An important new talent The Kirkus Reviews This is the story of a broken family trying to mend itself through three generations It is a painful but essential process and like all such repair jobs it is only partly successful Before it is over we come to know John and Vera and Mary Kay as well as Vera's daughters Lee and Tonie to understand the wars they must declare and the peaces that they are able to proclaim within the state of being Scarlins The Philadelphia Inquirer Willis views the Scarlin family ties and loyalties limits and tensions with realism sensitivity and precision A noteworthy first novel Publisher's Weekly Noise, Water, Meat Douglas Kahn, 2001-08-24 An examination of the role of sound in twentieth century arts This interdisciplinary history and theory of sound in the arts reads the twentieth century by listening to it to the emphatic and exceptional sounds of modernism and those on the cusp of postmodernism recorded sound noise silence the fluid sounds of immersion and dripping and the meat voices of viruses screams and bestial cries Focusing on Europe in the first half of the century and the United States in the postwar years Douglas Kahn explores aural activities in literature music visual arts theater and film Placing aurality at the center of the history of the arts he revisits key artistic questions listening to the sounds that drown out the politics and poetics that generated them Artists discussed include Antonin Artaud George Brecht William Burroughs John Cage Sergei Eisenstein Fluxus Allan Kaprow Michael McClure Yoko Ono Jackson Pollock Luigi Russolo and Dziga Vertov The Ego Tunnel Thomas Metzinger, 2009-03-17 Examine the inner workings of the mind and learn what consciousness and a sense of self really means and if it even exists We're used to thinking about the self as an independent entity something that we either have or are In The Ego Tunnel philosopher Thomas Metzinger claims otherwise No such thing as a self exists The conscious self is the content of a model created by our brain an internal image but one we cannot experience as an image Everything we experience is a virtual self in a virtual reality But if the self is not real why and how did it evolve How does the brain construct it Do we still have souls free will personal autonomy or moral accountability In a time when the science of cognition is becoming as controversial as evolution The Ego Tunnel provides a stunningly original take on the mystery of the mind

Leonard Cohen, the Modern Troubadour Jiří Měsíc, 2020-12-23 This monograph arose from thinking about the literary tradition as described by the Anglo American modernist writers Ezra Pound and T S Eliot In their view the tradition of European love lyrics crystallized in the work of the medieval Occitan troubadours who represented the cultural and political milieu of the Occitanie of that period and whose work reflected the religious influences of Judaism Christianity and Islam The main subject of their poetry was the worship of a divinized feminine character resembling the Virgin Mary the Gnostic Sophia or the ancient Mother Goddess Their literary preoccupations further flourished in Tuscany as well as among the German Minnesingers and at the court of the Sicilian King Frederick II 1194 1250 from where they infiltrated into English literature during the Renaissance In this period Classical literature in combination with troubadour poetry became the cornerstone of English artistic production However it is not so well known that troubadour poetry took as its model the medieval poetry written in Andalusian Arabic This enigmatic essence is what makes this literature so relevant as it is the first instance of the synthesizing of religions mythologies philosophies literatures symbols and motifs coming from cultures other than our own Nowadays it is not surprising that contemporary artists draw on the troubadour poets and that they are even contrasted with them by critics Such is the case of Leonard Cohen who during his career revealed erudition in medieval poetry and religion and whose work shows many parallels with the work of his Occitan and Andalusian predecessors For this reason the book presents a comparison of the texts and motifs present in their works and refers to another important facet of theiruvre religion and mysticism The purpose is to highlight the importance of troubadour poetry in the rise of popular culture in the second half of the 20th century
