Raising Girls

Who Like Themselves Kasey Edwards, Christopher Scanlon, 2021-02-02 Nearly one in five girls aged 16-17 years meet the clinical criteria for depression. One in fourteen young Australians 7% aged 4-17 experienced an anxiety disorder. These figures only get worse as our girls age, with one in three women in Australia experiencing anxiety. This indispensable guide will provide the tools to raising a girl who is happy and confident. Because when you raise a girl who likes herself, everything else follows because she has faith in her ability to achieve it and the confidence to pick herself up because it's natural to care for something you love because she believes she deserves nothing less, knowing that her greatest friend and most capable ally is herself. Packed with practical evidence-based advice, Raising Girls Who Like Themselves details the seven qualities that enable girls to thrive and arm themselves against a world that tells them they are flawed:

1. A girl who likes herself has a power perspective.
2. A girl who likes herself has body confidence.
3. A girl who likes herself owns her body.
4. A girl who likes herself is calm.
5. A girl who likes herself is independent and masterful.
6. A girl who likes herself has strong relationships.
7. A girl who likes herself is herself.

Free of parental guilt and grounded in research, Raising Girls Who Like Themselves is imbued with the warmth and wit of a mum and dad who are in the same parenting trenches as you, fighting for their daughters' futures. Relatable, practical, real. DANA KERFORD URSTRONG. A remarkable resource for mums and dads alike. SARAH MCMAHON. BODYMATTERS AUSTRALASIA. An indispensable guide. BETTER READING.

What Every Parent Should Know Thomas Gordon, 1984

Parent/teen Break-through Mira Kirshenbaum, Charles Foster, 1991 If you're like most parents of teenagers, you wish you could break down the barriers and build a solid, honest relationship with your son or daughter. Now here's a book that will help you discover the key to becoming a welcoming person in your teenager's life. Getting your son or daughter to really talk and listen to you. Trusting yourself as a parent and getting your needs met. Asking the one magic question that will break down barriers between you and your teen. As you've probably discovered, controlling approaches like tough love, setting limits, and just saying no don't work. What does work is this respectful, loving, effective approach, one that ensures that parent and child will be friends as the stormy seas of adolescence subside. Family therapists Kirshenbaum and Foster have developed a program that will help you dramatically improve your relationship with your teenager, a program so simple that any parent can put it into effect in the midst of the turmoil and distractions of everyday life.
