A Taste of Power Elaine Brown, 1993-12-01 Profound funny wild and moving heartbreaking accounts of a lonely black childhood Brown sees racial oppression in national and global context every political word she writes pounds home a lesson about commerce money racism communism you name it A glowing achievement Los Angeles Times Elaine Brown assumed her role as the first and only female leader of the Black Panther Party with these words I have all the guns and all the money I can withstand challenge from without and from within Am I right Comrade It was August 1974 From a small Oakland based cell the Panthers had grown to become a revolutionary national organization mobilizing black communities and white supporters across the country but relentlessly targeted by the police and the FBI and increasingly riven by violence and strife within How Brown came to a position of power over this paramilitary male dominated organization and what she did with that power is a riveting unsparing account of self discovery Brown's story begins with growing up in an impoverished neighborhood in Philadelphia and attending a predominantly white school where she first sensed what it meant to be black female and poor in America She describes her political awakening during the bohemian years of her adolescence and her time as a foot soldier for the Panthers who seemed to hold the promise of redemption And she tells of her ascent into the upper echelons of Panther leadership her tumultuous relationship with the charismatic Huey Newton who would become her lover and her nemesis her experience with the male power rituals that would sow the seeds of the party's demise and the scars that she both suffered and inflicted in that era's paradigm shifting clashes of sex and power Stunning lyrical and acute this is the indelible testimony of a black woman's battle to define herself Emotional Literacy Claude Steiner, 2003 This step by step program opens the door to achieving emotional power Instructions are given on how emotional literacy intelligence with a heart can be learned through practising specific exercises that foster the awareness of emotion in oneself and others by increasing capacities to love others and oneself while developing honesty and by taking responsibility for one's actions. Provided are instructions on how to reverse the dangerous self-destructive emotional patterns that can rule a person's life. This program shows individuals how to open their hearts and minds to honest and effective communication, how to survey the emotional landscape and ultimately how to take responsibility for their emotional lives.

Stop Negotiating with Your Teen Janet Sasson Edgette, 2002-08-06 The sullen withdrawn sarcastic teenager. The defensive wary and helpless parent. This book builds a bridge between the two sides with practical and supportive advice on how to contain conflicts before they escalate into violence. Break through the teen's verbal intimidation. Avoid futile arguments. Turn confrontation into communication. Stand firm against teen rage. Manage teen manipulation. Build the teen's self-esteem. Talk to teens when no one knows what to say. For ever parent who's screamed "What am I going to do with you?" this book finally provides the answer.

The Memoirs of Lady Hyegyong JaHyun Kim Haboush, 2013-09-14 Lady Hyegyong's memoirs, which recount the chilling murder of her husband by his father, form one of the best known and most popular classics of Korean literature. From 1795 until 1805 Lady Hyegyong composed this masterpiece depicting a court life Shakespearean in its pathos, drama, and grandeur. Presented in its social, cultural, and historical contexts, this first complete English translation opens a door into a world teeming with conflicting passions, political intrigue, and the daily preoccupations of a deeply intelligent and articulate woman. JaHyun Kim Haboush's accurate fluid translation captures the intimate and expressive voice of this consummate storyteller. Reissued nearly twenty years after its initial publication with a new foreword by Dorothy Ko, The Memoirs of Lady Hyegyong is a unique exploration of Korean selfhood and an extraordinary example of autobiography in the premodern era.

Managing Your Crazy Self! Randy Guttenberger, 2016-05-25 Teaches you how the brain generates thoughts and emotions, how to take charge of those, and gain peace in your life. The book uses illustrations with the rhino and ostrich to represent the conscious mind and the instinctive brain. The flow of the book is to teach how the brain works in a practical way: what problems it generates, what the solutions are, what relationships it affects most, and tips how to gain control.
