

A woman in a dark dress is lifting a young child into the air on a beach. The scene is set at sunset, with the sun low on the horizon over the ocean. The sky is a mix of blue and orange, and the water reflects the sunset colors. The woman and child are silhouetted against the bright light of the setting sun. The child is reaching out with their arms. The woman is looking up at the child with a joyful expression. The overall mood is peaceful and heartwarming.

Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it.

Essential to every healthy church is a biblical model of leadership In the New Testament church leadership is built around a team of elders working together each bringing his own unique skills and gifts to the cause of shepherding the flock God entrusted to them However in many churches today the principle of plurality in leadership is often misunderstood mistakenly applied or completely ignored Dave Harvey encourages church leaders to prioritize plurality for the surprising ways that it helps churches to flourish This book not only builds a compelling case for churches to adopt and maintain biblical elder pluralities guided by solid leadership but also supplies practical tools to help elders work together for transformation
