development of the novel genre and the modern family She demonstrates that these writers confronted with ever more reified exclusion from public life and relegated to narrowly defined domestic roles intervened in and subverted the process in their novels Daniels shows that women writers used the novel first to imagine different social rules that might define alternative kinship systems Graffigny and later to find and create loopholes within a firmly entrenched system of official and unofficial law Charriere and Sand Spanning a crucial period in the emergence of modernity this interdisciplinary study addresses problems in French literary and social history gender studies and the history of mentalites BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Ask the TaxGirl: Everything Parents

On Love Luc Ferry, 2013-08-27 All the great ideals that gave life meaning in earlier societies God the nation revolution freedom democracy are in disarray today questioned by many and rejected by those who have lost faith in them But there is another value rooted in the birth of the modern family and in the passage from traditional to modern marriage that has transformed our lives in profound and often unrecognized ways love It affects not only our personal lives but many aspects of our social and collective life too from art and education to politics In this book Luc Ferry shows how the quiet rise of love as the central value in modern societies has created a new principle of meaning and a new definition of the good life that requires a completely different kind of philosophical thinking It forms the basis for a new philosophy for the twenty first century and a new kind of humanism for the modern world not a humanism of reason and rights but a humanism of solidarity and sympathy The ideal that this new humanism realizes is no longer that of nationalisms and revolutions of the perpetrating of organized violence in the name of deadly principles that are pursued over and above humanity Rather it is about preparing and ensuring a future for those we love most our future generations
