Theatre (London, England), 1994     Jean Cocteau James S. Williams, 2019-01-31 This is a comprehensive original and accessible account of all aspects of Jean Cocteau's work in the cinema. It is the first major study in English to appear for over forty years and casts new light on Cocteau's most celebrated films as well as those often neglected or little known. Jean Cocteau is not only one of French cinema's greatest and most influential auteurs whose work covered all the major genres but also an experimenter, collaborator, theorist and all round ambassador of film. This lucid account provides a complete introduction to Cocteau's cinematic project in the context of his entire oeuvre, detailed analysis of individual films and a thematic engagement with all his cinema from a range of interdisciplinary perspectives. The Cocteau that emerges is at once a materialist filmmaker and visionary who is committed to realism in all its guises and reveals the wonder and mystery of what he called the cinematograph.

Decades Never Start on Time Michael Temple, Karen Smolens, 2019-07-25 Richard Roud, film writer and co-founder and director of the New York Film Festival, was one of the most influential film critics of the twentieth century. Renowned for his close relationships with French New Wave directors such as Godard and Truffaut, he played a key role in bringing European art cinema to the attention of American and British audiences. This anthology brings together selected writings from his published works with previously unpublished archival material from an unfinished study of Truffaut to extracts from his books on film makers such as Straub-Huillet and Ophüls and articles for The Guardian and Sight & Sound. Charting Roud's journey through the world of film festivals and film criticism from the 1950s to the 1980s, Decades Never Start on Time provides a fascinating insight into the flourishing film culture of the era. With a preface by David Thomson.

The Shameful Peace Frederic Spotts, 2008-12-09 The German occupation of France from 1940 to 1945 presented wrenching challenges for the nation's artists and intellectuals. Some were able to flee the country; those who remained, including Gide and Cocteau, Picasso and Matisse, Cortot and Messiaen and Cocteau and Gabin responded in various ways. This fascinating book is the first to provide a full account of how France's artistic leaders coped under the crushing German presence. Some became heroes, others villains, most were simply survivors. Filled with anecdotes about the artists, composers, writers, filmmakers and actors who lived through the years of occupation, the book illuminates the disconcerting experience of life and work within a cultural prison. Frederic Spotts uncovers Hitler's plan to pacify the French through an active cultural life and examines the unexpected vibrancy of opera, ballet, painting, theater and film in both the Occupied and Vichy Zones. In view of the longer term goal to supplant French with German culture, Spotts offers moving insight into the predicament of French artists as they fought to preserve their country's cultural and national identity.

The National Theatre Story Daniel Rosenthal, 2013-11-07 Winner of the STR Theatre Book Prize 2014, The National Theatre Story is filled with artistic, financial and political battles, onstage triumphs and the occasional disaster. This definitive account takes readers from the National Theatre's 19th-century origins through false dawns in the early 1900s and on to its hard-fought inauguration in 1963. At the Old Vic, Laurence Olivier was for ten years the inspirational Director of the NT Company before

Peter Hall took over and in 1976 led the move into the National's concrete home on the South Bank. Altogether the NT has staged more than 800 productions premiering some of the 20th and 21st centuries most popular and controversial plays including Amadeus, The Romans in Britain, Closer, The History Boys, War Horse and One Man Two Guvnors. Certain to be essential reading for theatre lovers and students, The National Theatre Story is packed with photographs and draws on Daniel Rosenthal's unprecedented access to the National Theatre's own archives, unpublished correspondence and more than 100 new interviews with directors, playwrights and actors including Olivier's successors as Director Peter Hall, Richard Eyre, Trevor Nunn and Nicholas Hytner, and other great figures from the last 50 years of British and American drama among them Edward Albee, Alan Bennett, Judi Dench, Michael Gambon, David Hare, Tony Kushner, Ian McKellen, Diana Rigg, Maggie Smith, Peter Shaffer, Stephen Sondheim and Tom Stoppard. The Look of the Book Peter Mendelsund, David J.

Alworth, 2020-10-06 Why do some book covers instantly grab your attention while others never get a second glance? Fusing word and image as well as design thinking and literary criticism, this captivating investigation goes behind the scenes of the cover design process to answer this question and more. NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY THE NEW YORK TIMES BOOK REVIEW. As the outward face of the text, the book cover makes an all-important first impression. The Look of the Book examines art at the edges of literature through notable covers and the stories behind them: galleries of the many different jackets of bestselling books, an overview of book cover trends throughout history and insights from dozens of literary and design luminaries. Co-authored by celebrated designer and creative director Peter Mendelsund and scholar David Alworth, this fascinating collaboration featuring hundreds of covers challenges our notions of what a book cover can and should be. The Death of Corinne R. T. Raichev, 2009 Who would want to kill legendary French diva Corinne Coreille?

Jean Cocteau Claude Arnaud, 2016-01-01 This passionate and monumental biography reassesses the life and legacy of one of the most significant cultural figures of the twentieth century. Unevenly respected, easily hated, almost always suspected of being inferior to his reputation, Jean Cocteau has often been thought of as a jack of all trades, master of none. In this landmark biography, Claude Arnaud thoroughly contests this characterization as he celebrates Cocteau's fragile genius, a combination almost unlivable in art but in his case so fertile. Arnaud narrates the life of this legendary French novelist, poet, playwright, director, filmmaker and designer who, as a young man, pretended to be a sort of a god but who died as a humble and exhausted craftsman. His moving and compassionate account examines the nature of Cocteau's chameleon-like genius, his romantic attachments, his controversial politics and his intimate involvement with many of the century's leading artistic lights, including Picasso, Proust, Hemingway, Stravinsky and Tennessee Williams. Already published to great critical acclaim in France, Arnaud's penetrating and deeply researched work reveals a uniquely gifted artist while offering a magnificent cultural history of the twentieth century. What Is Cinema? André Bazin, 2005 These two volumes have been classics of film studies for as long as they've been available and are considered the gold standard in the field of film criticism. Europe on Stage
