Pariah Joan Williams, 2014-12-30 Ten poignant and perceptive stories from one of the most distinctive voices in Southern literature In these deeply affecting tales Joan Williams captures with heart wrenching clarity the pain and confusion of characters struggling to come to terms with a changing world The Morning and the Evening which would later be expanded into Williams's award winning novel of the same name is an exquisite and unsettling portrait of a mute man's isolation In Spring Is Now a Mississippi town grapples with its prejudices as integration becomes a reality No Love for the Lonely is the touching and gently humorous story of a bachelor liberated and bewildered by the death of his overbearing sister In the vivid and unsettling title story a troubled housewife faces her demons and mourns the life she never had Graceful elegiac and authentic the stories of Joan Williams are marked by their compassion and clear eyed insight With remarkable skill and an astonishing generosity of spirit she transforms the quiet lives of ordinary men and women into dazzling works of art
