The Measure of Paris Stephen Scobie,2012-03-01 Paris remains one of the most fascinating cities in the world It provides a measure of excellence in many areas of culture and it is itself constantly being measured both by its lovers and by its critics This book presents a series of studies on the images of Paris presented by writers mostly Canadian from John Glassco to Mavis Gallant to Lola Lemire Tostevin but also in such other areas as social history and personal memoir The result is a wide ranging discussion of the city's history in 20th century literature and thought which will appeal to all those who love Paris or who have ever walked on its streets

Paris Knopf Guides,2020-01-07 This opening fold out contains a general map of Paris to help you visualize the 8 large districts discussed in this guide and 4 pages of valuable information handy tips and useful addresses Discover Paris through 8 districts and 6 maps Latin Quarter The islands Montparnasse Orsay Louvre Opera Les Halles Le Marais Invalides Champ de Mars Trocadero Grands Boulevards Montmartre Bastille Faubourg Saint Antoine Oberkampf Menilmontant Belleville La Villette Place d'Italie Bibliotheque Nationale Bercy For each district there is a double page of addresses restaurants listed in ascending order of price cafés bars music venues and stores followed by a fold out map for the relevant area with the essential places to see indicated on the map by a star These places are by no means all that Paris has to offer but to us they are unmissable The grid referencing system A B2 makes it easy for you to pinpoint addresses quickly on the map Transportation and hotels in Paris The last fold out consists of a transportation map and 4 pages of practical information that include a selection of hotels A thematic index lists all the sites and addresses featured in this guide

Bibliographic Guide to Maps and Atlases ,2003 The Map Thief Michael Blanding,2015-06-02 The story of an infamous crime a revered map dealer with an unsavory secret and the ruthless subculture that consumed him Maps have long exerted a special fascination on viewers both as beautiful works of art and as practical tools to navigate the world But to those who collect them the map trade can be a cutthroat business inhabited by quirky and sometimes disreputable characters in search of a finite number of extremely rare objects Once considered a respectable antiquarian map dealer E Forbes Smiley spent years doubling as a map thief until he was finally arrested slipping maps out of books in the Yale University library The Map Thief delves into the untold history of this fascinating high stakes criminal and the inside story of the industry that consumed him Acclaimed reporter Michael Blanding has interviewed all the key players in this stranger than fiction story and shares the fascinating histories of maps that charted the New World and how they went from being practical instruments to quirky heirlooms to highly coveted objects Though pieces of the map theft story have been written before Blanding is the first reporter to explore the story in full and had the rare privilege of having access to Smiley himself after he'd gone silent in the wake of his crimes Moreover although Smiley swears he has admitted to all of the maps he stole libraries claim he stole hundreds more and offer intriguing clues to prove it Now through a series of exclusive interviews with Smiley and other key individuals Blanding teases out an astonishing tale of destruction and redemption The Map Thief interweaves Smiley's escapades with the stories of the explorers and mapmakers he knew better than anyone Tracking a series of thefts as brazen as the art heists in Provenance and a subculture as obsessive as the oenophiles in The Billionaire's Vinegar Blanding has pieced together an unforgettable story of high stakes crime

Locating the Global Holger Weiss, 2020-08-10 This volume adds to the plurality of global histories by locating the global through its articulation and manifestation within particular localities It accomplishes this by bringing together interlinked case studies that analyse various temporal and spatial dimensions of the global in the local and the interactions between the local and the global The case studies apply a spatial approach to analyse how global questions of space movement networks borders and territory are worked out at a local level The material draws on the Nordic countries Europe the Atlantic world Africa and Australia and ranges from the seventeenth to the twentieth century It is further divided into sections that address topics such as the translocality of humans and goods local articulations of identities and globalities parliamentarism and anti colonialism the organization of knowledge and the construction of spaces of representation and memory
