The Art of Fiction David Lodge, 2011-05-02 In this entertaining and enlightening collection David Lodge considers the art of fiction under a wide range of headings drawing on writers as diverse as Henry James Martin Amis Jane Austen and James Joyce Looking at ideas such as the Intrusive Author Suspense the Epistolary Novel Magic Realism and Symbolism and illustrating each topic with a passage taken from a classic or modern novel David Lodge makes the richness and variety of British and American fiction accessible to the general reader He provides essential reading for students aspiring writers and anyone who wants to understand how fiction works The Paris Review Book, 2003-05-03 To commemorate the 50th anniversary of the venerable Paris Review comes a unique anthology based on the themes of modern life The Paris Review Interviews Philip Gourevitch, 2008 The Paris Review was founded in 1953 and it has given us invaluable conversations with the greatest writers of our age vivid self portraits that are themselves works of finely crafted literature The magazine has spoken with most of the world's leading novelists poets and playwrights and the interviews themselves have come to be recognised as classic words of literature in their own right This third volume in the series builds on the success and acclaim of the first two editions It includes interviews with Ralph Ellison Salman Rushdie Norman Mailer Margaret Atwood Chinua Achebe and Joyce Carol Oates among many others All the Buildings in London James Gulliver Hancock, 2018-09-18 The follow up to the hugely popular All the Buildings in New York this is a charmingly illustrated journey through London one building at a time All the Buildings in London is a love letter to London told through James Gulliver Hancock's unique and charming drawings of the city's diverse architectural styles and streetscapes Hancock's offbeat drawing style gives a sense of whimsical and delightful fun to his illustrations while perfectly capturing each building's architectural details This unusual combination of the artistic and the technical presents London's cityscape like never before The book includes such beloved iconic buildings as St Paul's Cathedral and Buckingham Palace the latest modern landmarks such as the Shard and the London Eye celebrated cultural institutions such as the British Museum and Tate Modern and other notable attractions such as Piccadilly Circus and Trafalgar Square as well as the bridges and docks along the river Thames Also featured are the everyday buildings that may not be famous but whose stylishness or eccentricity make up an important part of London and its architectural landscape Londoners and tourists alike will savor this volume that uniquely celebrates the energy spirit and history of one of the greatest cities in the world Paris to the Moon Adam Gopnik, 2001-12-18 Paris The name alone conjures images of chestnut lined boulevards sidewalk cafés breathtaking façades around every corner in short an exquisite romanticism that has captured the American imagination for as long as there have been Americans In 1995 Adam Gopnik his wife and their infant son left the familiar comforts and hassles of New York City for the urbane glamour of the City of Light Gopnik is a longtime New Yorker writer and the magazine has sent its writers to Paris for decades but his was above all a personal pilgrimage to the place that had for so long been the undisputed capital of everything cultural and beautiful It was also the opportunity to raise a child who would know what it was to romp in the Luxembourg Gardens to enjoy a croque monsieur in a Left Bank caf a child and perhaps a father too who would have a grasp of that Parisian sense of style we Americans find so elusive So in the grand tradition of the American abroad Gopnik walked the paths of the Tuileries enjoyed philosophical discussions at his local bistro wrote as violet twilight fell on the arrondissements Of course as readers of Gopnik s beloved and award winning Paris Journals in The New Yorker know there was also the matter of raising a child and carrying on with day to day not so fabled life Evenings with French intellectuals preceded middle of the night baby feedings afternoons were filled with trips to the Mus e d Orsay and pinball games weekday leftovers were eaten while three star chefs debated a culinary crisis As Gopnik describes in this funny and tender book the dual processes of navigating a foreign city and becoming a parent are not completely dissimilar journeys both hold new routines new languages a new set of rules by which everyday life is lived With singular wit and insight Gopnik weaves the magical with the mundane in a wholly delightful often hilarious look at what it was to be an American family man in Paris at the end of the twentieth century We went to Paris for a sentimental reeducation I did anyway even though the sentiments we were instructed in were not the ones we were expecting to learn which I believe is why they call it an education
