Adamson,2006-12-21 Through the use of photographs a list of acronyms a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on nearly every aspect of the religion and appendixes listing the genealogy of the Founders statistical information and lists of apostles disciples Hands of the Cause Knights of Bah_ u ll_ h as well as of more than 930 believers who have contributed to its growth and development this book is a fundamental tool for finding information on all things related to the Bah_ Faith Bahá'í Ethics in Light of Scripture: Doctrinal fundamentals Udo Schaefer,2007 There is a fundamental discrepancy between man as he is and man as he could be if only he recognized his true being and purpose Ethics is the discipline by which man can understand how he can pass from the first condition to the second Udo Schaefer s Bah Ethics in Light of Scripture is an attempt to analyse the underlying structures and detect the interior architecture of the Bah moral system and is a step towards developing a Bah moral theology Doctrinal Fundamentals the first of two volumes provides a historical overview of the Bah Faith a systematic survey of it doctrines and an overview of the origin and derivation of moral values It considers the metaphysical nature of human beings and human responsibilities looks at reason and conscience and explores liberty and its limits Schaefer s second volume deals with concrete values the virtues divine commandments and principles of social ethics from a Bah perspective A Concise Encyclopedia of the Baha'i Faith Peter Smith,2013-10-01 Written by a well known author in the field of Baha i studies this is a comprehensive and accessible encyclopedia to the youngest of the world religions Regarded as the second most widespread faith after Christianity with adherents in almost every country around the globe the Baha i faith is nevertheless unfamiliar to many here Dr Smith traces the origins and development of the religion from 19th century Iran to the modern day introducing its central figures and major historical events combining breadth with a readable yet concise style he provides a balanced overview of Baha i scriptures doctrines and practices social teachings and organization This reference work presents a clear and knowledgeable view of a fascinating new religion Life at First Sight Phyllis Edgerly Ring,2009 Phyllis Ring divulges in this collection of personal essays how to see the spiritual in everyday moments and everyday life Like love at first sight life at first sight focuses on instant recognition and irresistible attraction a sense of something mysteriously familiar and a sense of spiritual connection The essays show how to develop a new sense of being during daily activities and everyday interactions as well as through engagement with the natural world As a jumping off point for spiritual conversation these compositions offer food for thought on how to lead a more spiritual life Book jacket

Creative Dimensions of Suffering A. M. Ghadirian, 2009 Creative Dimensions of Suffering is an intriguing combination of psychiatry and spirituality that illustrates the power of creativity to treat suffering An examination of the lives of many famous artists who suffered including Van Gogh Tchaikovsky and Beethoven gives insight into how they dealt with their adversity through creativity Dr Ghadirian explores how various conditions such as alcoholism depression bipolar disorder and dementia can influence a person's creative impulse and how creativity and spirituality can help a person deal with trauma He describes the courage of many other well known figures such as Helen Keller and Christopher Reeve who were able to overcome their suffering and emerge victorious over daunting odds Finally drawing on principles found in the teachings of the Baha'i Faith Ghadirian attempts to explain suffering its place in human society and how it can lead us to a closer happier relationship with God as well as a better relationship with ourselves and with others Indeed many of those who have suffered the most have found new meaning through adversity and have emerged victorious

Peace Antony Adolf, 2013-05-08 How peace has been made and maintained experienced and imagined is not only a matter of historical interest but also of pressing concern Peace A World History is the first study to explore the full spectrum of peace and peacemaking from prehistoric to contemporary times in a single volume aimed at improving their prospects By focusing on key periods events people ideas and texts Antony Adolf shows how the inspiring possibilities and pragmatic limits of peace and peacemaking were shaped by their cultural contexts and in turn shaped local and global histories Diplomatic pacifist legal transformative non violent and anti war movements are just a few prominent examples Proposed and performed in socio economic political religious philosophical and other ways Adolf's presentation of the diversity of peace and peacemaking challenges the notions that peace is solely the absence of war that this negation is the only task of peacemakers and that history is exclusively written by military victors Without the victories of peacemakers and the resourcefulness of the peaceful he contends there would be no history to write This book is essential reading for students scholars policy shapers activists and general readers involved with how present forms of peace and peacemaking have been influenced by those of the past and how future forms can benefit by taking these into account

The Baha'i Faith in Africa Anthony Lee, 2011-10-28 In 1952 there were probably fewer than 200 Baha'is in all of Africa Today the Baha'i community claims one million followers on the continent Yet the Baha'i presence in Africa has been all but ignored in academic studies up to now This is the first monograph that addresses the establishment of this New Religious Movement in Africa Discovering an African presence at the genesis of the religion in Iran this study seeks to explain why the movement found an appeal in colonial Africa during the 1950s and early 1960 It also explores how the Baha i faith was influenced and Africanized by its new converts Finally the book seeks to make sense of the diverse and contradictory American Iranian British and African elements that established a new religion in Africa

Waiting for the Sunrise Elizabeth Gatorano,2008 This is a personal account of an interracial familys struggle against pervasive racism in the U S and the horrors of the civil war that plagued Rwanda in 1994 Raised in the American Midwest author Elizabeth Gatorano who is White had no idea of the trials she would face after marrying Phaniel who is Black and an immigrant to the U S from Rwanda Prejudice against their marriage followed them and their children wherever they went often making them the focus of racist discrimination and threats of violence at home and at work Throughout these ordeals Liz and Phaniel responded to hostility with love and patience their faith in each other and in God remaining unshakable even in the darkest hours Together they overcame all obstacles in their path and they continue to help those in need today

Illumine My Being ,2010 Illumine My Being is a collection of prayers and meditations from Baha i scripture that are intended to provide spiritual healing for the individual during times of crisis Many of these prayers ask God for the healing of the individual as well as the community the nation and the world These extracts from the sacred writings explain how individual healing can be achieved through one s relationship with God and they also elaborate on the nature of spiritual healing and how the healing of the entire human race can be achieved Healing has always been an essential component of religion and these prayers and meditations are meant to provide comfort hope and reassurance to anyone during these troubled times

Lights of the Spirit Gwendolyn Etter-Lewis,Richard Walter Thomas,2006 This groundbreaking work uncovers the role played by black people in the emergence of the Bah i faith in North America Drawing on a wide range of sources including personal essays letters and journals it offers a fascinating glimpse into the lives of some extraordinary individuals
