Paris To Peking:

Peking to Paris Luigi Barzini,1986 Peking to Paris Dina Bennett,2013-05 In this thrilling road trip from Peking to Paris a woman tries to save her car her marriage and her confidence from breaking Peking to Paris: The Ultimate Driving Adventure , Border Crossing Rosie Thomas,1999 Race of the Century Julie M. Fenster,2006-06-27 Capturing the determination and thrill of an era when technology made anything seem possible this work tells the story of the death defying New York to Paris Auto Race held in 1908 Photos The Taoists of Peking, 1800-1949 Vincent Goossaert,2020-03-23 By looking at the activities of Taoist clerics in Peking this book explores the workings of religion as a profession in one Chinese city during a period of dramatic modernization The author focuses on ordinary religious professionals most of whom remained obscure temple employees Although almost forgotten they were all major actors in urban religious and cultural life The clerics at the heart of this study spent their time training disciples practicing and teaching self cultivation performing rituals and managing temples Vincent Goossaert shows that these Taoists were neither the socially despised illiterates dismissed in so many studies nor otherworldly ascetics but active participants in the religious economy of the city In exploring exactly what their crucial role was he addresses the day to day life of modern Chinese religion from the perspective of ordinary religious specialists This approach highlights the social processes institutions and networks that transmit religious knowledge and mediate between prestigious religious traditions and the people in the street In modern Chinese religion the Taoists are such key actors Without them Taoist ritual and Taoist self cultivation are just empty words City of Lingered Splendor John Blofeld,2001-05-01 In his early twenties John Blofeld spent what he describes as three exquisitely happy years in Peking during the era of the last emperor when the breathtaking greatness of China s ancient traditions was still everywhere evident Arriving in 1934 he found a city imbued with the atmosphere of the recent imperial past and haunted by the powerful spirit of the late Dowager Empress Tzu Hsi He entered a world of magnificent palaces and temples of the Forbidden City of lotus covered lakes and lush pleasure gardens of bustling bazaars and peaceful bathhouses and of flower houses with their beautiful young courtesans versed in the arts of pleasing men With a novelists command of detail and dialogue Blofeld vividly re creates the magic of these years and conveys to the reader his appreciation and nostalgia for a way of life long vanished Betrayal in Paris Paul French,2014-07-23 At the conclusion of the war to end war the victorious powers set about redesigning the world map at the Paris Peace Conference For China Versailles presented an opportunity to regain territory lost to Japan at the start of the war Yet despite early encouragement from the world s superpowers the country was to be severely disappointed In this First World War China Special Paul French explores China s betrayal by the West the charismatic advocates it sent to the conference and the hugely significant May Fourth Movement that resulted from the treaty Autumn in Peking Boris Vian,2005 Fiction Translated from the French by Paul Knobloch Originally published in 1947 In the Exopotamian desert where hepatrols blossom and children collect little animals called sandpeppers the sun shines in an unusual way it produces eerie black zones whose mysteries remain unexplained Above all Vian's peculiar way with language proves that indeed life in the desert is equal to none Since unusual language is bound to produce unusual fiction it follows that the story does not take place in the fall nor is it set in China from the Foreword by Marc Lapprand The fourth novel by Vian who was a contemporary of Sartre and Beauvoir His innovative style cutting edge during his lifetime but only successful in the sixties made him an icon of the May 1968 student movement

The Secret Lives of Colour Kassia St Clair, 2016-10-20 THE SUNDAY TIMES BESTSELLER A mind expanding tour of the world without leaving your paintbox Every colour has a story and here are some of the most alluring alarming and thought provoking Very hard painting the hallway magnolia after this inspiring primer Simon Garfield The Secret Lives of Colour tells the unusual stories of the 75 most fascinating shades dyes and hues From blonde to ginger the brown that changed the way battles were fought to the white that protected against the plague Picasso's blue period to the charcoal on the cave walls at Lascaux acid yellow to Kelly Green and from scarlet women to imperial purple these surprising stories run like a bright thread throughout history In this book Kassia St Clair has turned her lifelong obsession with colours and where they come from whether Van Gogh's chrome yellow sunflowers or punk's fluorescent pink into a unique study of human civilisation Across fashion and politics art and war The Secret Lives of Colour tell the vivid story of our culture Moment in Peking Yutang Lin, 1942 Beijing Bastard Val Wang, 2014-10-30 A humorous and moving coming of age story that brings a unique not quite outsider's perspective to China's shift from ancient empire to modern superpower Raised in a strict Chinese American household in the suburbs Val Wang dutifully got good grades took piano lessons and performed in a Chinese dance troupe until she shaved her head and became a leftist the stuff of many teenage rebellions But Val's true mutiny was when she moved to China the land her parents had fled before the Communist takeover in 1949 Val arrives in Beijing in 1998 expecting to find freedom but instead lives in the old city with her traditional relatives who wake her at dawn with the sound of a state run television program playing next to her cot make a running joke of how much she eats and monitor her every move But outside she soon discovers a city rebelling against its roots just as she is struggling too to find a new modern identity Rickshaws make way for taxicabs skyscrapers replace hutong courtyard houses and Beijing prepares to make its debut on the world stage with the 2008 Olympics And in the gritty outskirts of the city where she moves a thriving avant garde subculture is making art out of the chaos Val plunges into the city's dizzying culture and nightlife and begins shooting a documentary about a Peking Opera family who is witnessing the death of their traditional art Brilliantly observed and winningly told Beijing Bastard is a compelling story of a young woman finding her place in the world and of China as its ancient past gives way to a dazzling but uncertain future Peking to Paris Luigi Giorgio Barzini, 1972 The Great Peking to Paris Expedition Warren Brown, Mick Matheson, Lang Kidby, 2005 In March 1907 the Parisian newspaper Le Matin offered the world a challenge Will anyone agree to go this summer from Peking to Paris by motorcar Prior to this time the car was still a novelty an expensive toy for a wealthy elite hardly a dependable form of transport The 14000km challenge was ultimately taken up by drivers of four different makes of automobile There were to be no rules no maps and for that matter no roads for much of the route Now in a daring recreation of a milestone in motoring history adventurer Lang Kidby newspaper cartoonist and media personality Warren Brown and motoring journalist Mick Matheson will retrace the exact route of the original Peking to Paris Trial for the first time in almost 100 years Closed to the world for the best part of a century the route travelled by the original participants is now accessible The Great 2005 Peking to Paris Expedition is an historic recreation never before attempted and this book is a must have collectable for vintage car lovers and travel enthusiasts The book ties in with ABC TV s documentary to Driving the Silk Road DOUGLAS.
