Parish Life On The Pentland Firth:

Parish Life on the Pentland Firth Morris Pottinger, 1997 Church Life in Ross and Sutherland Colin MacNaughton, 1915 British Gods Steve Bruce, 2020-08-28 The big picture is well known over the last century religion in Britain has lost power popularity and plausibility Here Steve Bruce charts the quantifiable changes in religious interest and observance over the last fifty years by returning to a number of towns and villages that were the subject of detailed community studies in the 1950s and 1960s to see how the status and nature of religion has changed Drawing on both detailed data on baptism rates church weddings church attendance and the like and on his extensive fieldwork he considers the broader picture of religion today the status of the clergy the churches attempts to find new roles links between religion and violence and the impact of the charismatic movement Along the way Bruce encounters and engages with the contemporary rise of secularism considering our everyday secular tensions with religion arguments over moral issues such as abortion and gay rights the effect of social class on belief the impact of religion on British politics and the ways that local social structures strengthen or weaken religion Analysing the obstacles to any religious revival he explores how the current stock of religious knowledge is so depleted religion so unpopular and committed believers so scarce that any significant reversal of religion's decline in Britain is unlikely Sin and Forgiveness Kay Carmichael, 2019-09-16 Originally published in 2003 Western attitudes to crime were in the past rooted in concepts of sin and therefore of hopes for redemption and forgiveness So what happens to offenders and society as a whole in a world where people no longer talk of sin but of evil If hopes of redemption go too will revenge take the place of forgiveness Kay Carmichael explores these dilemmas in this topical and provocative book She traces the stories of Myra Hindley Mary Bell Sarah Payne James Bulger and his killers comparing public responses to such crimes in various Western countries Art and literature are examined for the light they throw on the evolution of our ideas about sin and forgiveness from Rembrandt to Nathaniel Hawthorne Samuel Becket Dali and writings inspired by the Holocaust Turning to our own day Carmichael discusses the emergence of structural sins or iniquities in which we may all find ourselves involved poverty slavery violence and war are her themes Her analysis leaves her sceptical about many contemporary appeals for forgiveness but hopeful about ideas of restorative justice Life and Work Church of Scotland, 1884 Storm's Edge: Life, Death and Magic in the Islands of Orkney Peter Marshall, 2024-04-11 A surprising page turner full of humour and startling details THE TIMES If I read a better history this year I will be lucky TOM HOLLAND An astonishing tour de force SPECTATOR Longlisted for the 2024 Highland Book Prize Scottish Life and Society: Bibliography for Scottish ethnology, 2000 This major project comprises fourteen thematically arranged volumes The aim of the Compendium is to examine the interlocking strands of history and traditional culture that go into the making of a national identity in an up to date synthesis of the current state of knowledge By bringing together information from a variety of sources the Compendium not only provides a digest of topics but also points towards areas for new investigation The

Compendium concentrates upon the present and the historical period and does not generally deal with prehistory although for certain themes such as the development of agriculture and buildings early evidence is taken into account Where appropriate reference is made to foreign parallels and to the influence on Scotland of the cultures of neighbouring peoples Scottish influence on the world at large is also taken into account whether in relation to urban or rural maritime or land based topics Material and non material aspects of history and tradition are considered equally at all levels of society indeed oftentimes focusing on the interaction between people of differing social strata
