Christian Ritual and the Creation of British Slave Societies, 1650-1780 Nicholas M. Beasley, 2010-01-25 This study offers a new and challenging look at Christian institutions and practices in Britain's Caribbean and southern American colonies Focusing on the plantation societies of Barbados Jamaica and South Carolina Nicholas M Beasley finds that the tradition of liturgical worship in these places was more vibrant and more deeply rooted in European Christianity than previously thought In addition Beasley argues white colonists' attachment to religious continuity was thoroughly racialized Church customs sacraments and ceremonies were a means of regulating slavery and asserting whiteness Drawing on a mix of historical and anthropological methods Beasley covers such topics as church architecture pew seating customs marriage baptism communion and funerals Colonists created an environment in sacred time and space that framed their rituals for maximum social impact and they asserted privilege and power by privatizing some rituals and by meting out access to rituals to people of color Throughout Beasley is sensitive to how this culture of worship changed as each colony reacted to its own political environmental and demographic circumstances across time Local factors influencing who partook in Christian rituals and how when and where these rituals took place could include the structure of the Anglican Church which tended to be less hierarchical and centralized than at home in England the level of tensions between Anglicans and Protestants the persistence of African religious beliefs and colonists' attitudes toward free persons of color and elite slaves This book enriches an existing historiography that neglects the cultural power of liturgical Christianity in the early South and the British Caribbean and offers a new account of the translation of early modern English Christianity to early America

Combiér-Donovan, 2009 Christianity and Belonging in Shimla, North India Jonathan Miles-Watson, 2020-10-01 This book explores the material religion of contemporary Shimla a vibrant postcolonial city famed for its colonial heritage set against the backdrop of the North Western Himalayas Jonathan Miles Watson demonstrates that this landscape is able to peacefully reconcile the apparent tensions of faith heritage and identity in a way that unseats traditional theories of religion politics and heritage It presents a mystery that is written in space through time the key to unlocking this mystery lies in clear view at the city's heart in the contemporary material religion that surrounds nominally Christian sacred sites Although the material religion centres on landscapes that are identifiable as Christian the book demonstrates that Hindus atheists and Sikhs all have a role to play in the mutually constitutive relations that lie at the centre of these knots of sacred entanglement This book builds upon over a decade of research to present an ethnographic account of devotional practices that speaks to contemporary developments in both the anthropology of Christianity and material religion Through this exploration the book answers the mystery of Shimla's postcolonial harmony while complicating established theories in the anthropology of religion postcolonial studies mythography heritage studies and material culture Annual Review of the Sociology of Religion.

Volume 9 (2018) Solange Lefebvre, Alfonso Pérez-Agote Poveda, 2018-09-11 Catholicism is generally over institutionalized and over centralized in comparison to other religions However it finds itself in an increasingly interrelated and globalized world and is therefore immersed in a great plurality of social realities The Changing Faces of Catholicism assembles an international cast of contributors to explore the consequent decline of powerful Catholic organisations as well as to address the responses and resistance efforts that specific countries have taken to counteract the secularization crisis in both Europe and the Americas It reveals some of the strategies of the Catholic Church as a whole and of the Vatican centre in particular to address problems of the global era through the dissemination of spiritually progressive writing World Youth Days and the transformation of Catholic education to become a forum for intercultural and interreligious dialogue The volume also reflects on the adaptation of Catholic institutions and missions as sponsored by religious communities and monastic orders centuries of Rome's history one which saw centuries of stability undermined by external crisis and the long period of reconstruction which followed

Tracing the cultural legacy of Irish Catholicism Eamon Maher, Eugene O'Brien, 2017-04-06 This book traces the steady decline in Irish Catholicism from the visit of Pope John Paul II in 1979 up to the Cloyne report into clerical sex abuse in that diocese in 2011. The young people awaiting the Pope's address in Galway were entertained by two of Ireland's most charismatic clerics Bishop Eamon Casey and Fr Michael Cleary both of whom were subsequently revealed to have been engaged in romantic liaisons at the time. The decades that followed the Pope's visit were characterised by the increasing secularisation of Irish society. Boasting an impressive array of contributors from various backgrounds and expertise the essays in the book attempt to trace the exact reasons for the progressive dismantling of the cultural legacy of Catholicism and the consequences this has had on Irish society

Fertility, Conjuncture, Difference Philip Kreager, Astrid Bochow, 2017-09-01 In the last forty years anthropologists have made major contributions to understanding the heterogeneity of reproductive trends and processes underlying them. Fertility transition rather than the story of the triumphant spread of Western birth control rationality reveals a diversity of reproductive means and ends continuing before, during and after transition. This collection brings together anthropological case studies placing them in a comparative framework of compositional demography and conjunctural action. The volume addresses major issues of inequality and distribution which shape population and social structures and in which fertility trends and the formation and size of families are not decided solely or primarily by reproduction

The Material Culture of Sex, Procreation, and Marriage in Premodern Europe A. McClanan, K. Encarnación, 2016-09-23 This interdisciplinary anthology takes as its starting point the belief that as the material grounds of lived experience material culture provides an avenue of historical access to women's lives extending beyond the reaches of textual evidence. Studies here range from utilitarian tools used in Late Roman abortion to sacred magical or ritual objects associated with sex, procreation and marriage in the Renaissance. Together the essays demonstrate the complex relationship between language and object and explore the ways in which objects become forms of communication in their own right transmitting both rather specific messages and more generalized social and cultural values

Scandal in the Parish Karen E. Carter, 2019-05-15 In 1770 the priest Nicolas Vernier was accused of neglecting church services, inappropriate behaviour in the confessional, financial improprieties and affairs with the village schoolmistresses. In a contentious church court case parishioners described all of their priest's wrongdoings and in turn he detailed many of theirs. Ultimately Vernier finished his career as a cathedral canon in another diocese. Scandal in the Parish recounts Vernier's story and many similar eighteenth century cases. In fascinating detail that reveals essential facets of rural religion during the Catholic Reformation period Karen Carter considers French lay people's relationship with their parish cur who governed and influenced so much of their religious practice. Although the priest's role as purveyor of God's grace through the sacraments was secure as long as he performed his duties appropriately priests who were unable to navigate the pressures and high expectations put on them by their superiors and parishioners risked broken relationships public disturbances of the peace and even prosecution These scandals Carter demonstrates tell us much about rural parish life the processes of negotiation and accommodation between cur s and their parishioners and ongoing religious reforms and enforcement throughout the eighteenth century An engaging venture into the world of the parish that highlights the centrality of the priest parishioner relationship Scandal in the Parish reveals the attitudes and practices of ordinary people who were active agents in their religious and spiritual lives Chicana Traditions Norma E. Cantú, Olga

Nájera-Ramírez, 2002 The first anthology to focus specifically on the topic of Chicana expressive culture Chicana Traditions features the work of native scholars Chicanas engaged in careers as professors and students performing artists and folklorists archivists and museum coordinators and community activists Blending narratives of personal experience with more formal scholarly discussions Chicana Traditions tells the insider story of a professional woman mariachi performer and traces the creation and evolution of the escaramuza charra all female precision riding team within the male dominated charreada or Mexican rodeo Other essays cover the ranchera country or rural music of the transnational performer Lydia Mendoza the complex crossover of Selena s Tejano music and the bottle cap and jar lid art of Goldie Garcia Framed by the Chicana feminist concept of the borderlands a formative space where cultures and identities converge Chicana Traditions offers a lively commentary on how women continue to invent reshape and transcend their traditional culture Power and

Ceremony in European History Anna Kalinowska, Jonathan Spangler, 2021-09-09 From oaths and hand kissing to coronations and baptisms Power and Ceremony in European History considers the governing practices courtly rituals and expressions of power prevalent in Europe and the Ottoman Empire from the medieval age to the modern era Bringing together political and art historical approaches to the study of power this book reveals how ceremonies and rituals far from simply being ostentatious displays of wealth served as a primary means of communication between different participants in political and courtly life It explores how ceremonial culture changed over time and in different regions to provide readers with a nuanced comparative understanding of rituals and ceremonies since the middle ages showing how such performances were integral to the evolution of the state in Europe This collection of essays is of immense value to both historians and art historians interested in representations of power and the political culture of Europe from 1450 onwards Art and Drama on a Late Medieval Rood Screen Michael Calder, 2024-12-02 With little scholarly attention having been given to the late medieval iconography that features on rood screens in the southwest of England the significance of the figures painted at Berry Pomeroy has long been underappreciated The unlocking of their meaning by the author has led to the discovery of a unique iconographic program The gestures adopted by many of these figures belong to a common visual culture in the art and drama of the medieval church The iconography which reflects a Gothic Mannerist style of the early sixteenth century displays a marked theatricality giving expression to the mysteries of the faith in the form of a drama The narrative recorded has notable similarities to that found in a dramatic trilogy which was once performed in Cornwall called the Ordinalia This book makes an important contribution to scholarship in the genre of mysticism in art and to our understanding of popular devotional practices on the eve of the Reformation
