s A Moveable Feast Gertrude Stein s The Autobiography of Alice B Toklas and The Diary of Ana s Nin 1931 1934 all of which depict the emergence and triumph of the creative imagination within the Paris context He then turns to Hemingway s The Sun Also Rises John Dos Passos Nineteen Nineteen and F Scott Fitzgerald s Tender Is the Night which dramatize the tragic potential in seeking a richness and intensity of creative expression within the city s setting Henry Miller s Tropic of Cancer a relatively late example of American expatriate writing constitutes a synthesis of the two tendencies Pizer shows Through careful readings of the texts Pizer identifies both the common threads in the expatriates response to the Paris moment and the distinctive expression each work gives to their shared experience Most important he addresses the neglected question of how the portrayal of the Paris scene helps shape a specific work s themes and form He traces such experimental devices as fragmented or cubistic narrative forms the dramatic representation of consciousness and sexual explicitness and explores the powerful and evocative tropes of mobility and feeding As Pizer demonstrates Paris between the two world wars was for the American expatriates more than a geographical entity It was a state of mind an experience that engendered the formal expression of a personal aesthetic The engaging and significant interplay between artist place and innovative self reflexive forms composes Pizer maintains the most distinctive contribution of expatriate writing to the literary movement called high modernism The Notable Library of Major W.
