School Choice in Michigan Matthew Joseph Brouillette,1999 This primer explains school choice historically reviewing the origins and growth of tax funded schools nationwide and how they became synonymous with public education It examines the rise of government funded and operated schools in Michigan through the efforts of Isaac Crary and John Pierce and describes the negative effects of a 1970 state constitutional amendment that severely restricts parents ability to exercise school choice The primer demonstrates the failure of many past and present education reforms including ever increasing funding to significantly improve the quality of government education and it explains different types of school choice including intra and inter district choice charter schools tuition vouchers and tax credits Finally it evaluates the progress of school choice programs available nationwide identifies individuals and organizations who support oppose or are ambivalent to greater school choice in Michigan and outlines strategic plans that parents and other concerned citizens can follow to get involved in efforts to improve education through greater school choice Appendixes include a glossary a sample illustration of how to advocate for school choice with letters to the editor of local newspapers and a list of where to go for more information on this and other education issues Contains 175 endnotes SM      The State of Charter Schools ,2000      Religion Index One ,1993      When Government Speaks Mark G. Yudof,2009-04-03 Government's ever increasing participation in communication processes Mark Yudof argues threatens key democratic values that the First Amendment was designed to protect Government control over the exchange of ideas and information would be inconsistent with citizen autonomy informed consent and a balanced and mutually responsive relationship between citizens and their government Yet the danger of government dominance must be weighed against the necessary role of government in furthering democratic values by proposing and promotion policies and by disseminating information and educating citizens Restraints on government's ability to control communications processes are desirable but excessive or inappropriate restrictions threaten democracy Professor Yudof identifies a number of formal and informal checks on government as disseminator withholder and controller of ideas and information Where more controls are needed the strengthening of pluralism and legislative oversight is generally the answer Constitutional redress in the courts should be sought only in extreme instances he cautions to avoid judicial interference with legitimate policy objectives
