Claims for Reflective Loss in International Investment Law Lukas Vanhonnaeker,2020-07-16 In recent years investor state tribunals have often permitted shareholders claims for reflective loss despite the well established principle of no reflective loss applied consistently in domestic regimes and in other fields of international law Investment tribunals have justified their decisions by relying on definitions of investment in investment agreements that often include shares while the no reflective loss principle is generally justified on the basis of policy considerations pertaining to the preservation of the efficiency of the adjudicatory process and to the protection of other stakeholders such as creditors Although these policy considerations militating for the prohibition of shareholders claims for reflective loss also apply in investor state arbitration they are curable in that context and must be balanced with policy considerations specific to the field of international investment law that weigh in favor of such claims the protection of foreign investors in order to promote trade and investment liberalization

International Adjudication Luiz Eduardo Salles,2014-05-22 Forum shopping which consists of strategic forum selection parallel litigation and serial litigation is a phenomenon of growing importance in international adjudication Preliminary objections or a party s placement of conditions on the existence and development of the adjudicatory process have been traditionally conceived as barriers to adjudication before single forums This book discusses how adjudicators and parties may refer to questions of jurisdiction and admissibility in order to avoid conflicting decisions on overlapping cases excessive exercises of jurisdiction and the proliferation of litigation It highlights an emerging overlooked function of preliminary objections transmission belts of procedure regulating rules across the international judiciary Activating this often dormant managerial function of preliminary objections would nurture coordination of otherwise independent and autonomous tribunals The Defaulting State and the South China Sea Arbitration Alfredo C. Robles Jr.,2023-05-27 This book focuses on the legal and procedural problems caused by China's default in the South China Sea Arbitration. Many of these problems arose because in several respects China departed from the conduct of other defaulting States in cases before the International Court of Justice. The book argues that the Tribunal confronted with the difficulties of maintaining the balance between two parties in a situation of default drew on the full range of its powers to ensure that neither China nor the Philippines would suffer from China's default. Further, the book describes the shortcomings of the submissions of putative amicus curiae. It refutes China's questioning of the independence and impartiality of the experts and of the judges. In so doing, it explains the expert opinions and the Tribunal's assessments of the latter in the areas of satellite imagery, coral reef ecology and navigational safety while rebutting the half truths and counter truths disseminated by Chinese scholars about the proceedings. The book compares China's threats to the independence of the Tribunal to its behavior towards Chinese judges. It places China's accusations of bias against the Tribunal in the context of China's domestic situation and concludes that the Tribunal acting independently and impartially was able to perform the judicial function despite China's default.

The African Union (AU) Konstantinos D. Magliveras, Gino J. Naldi, 2024-01-18. The monograph proceeds logically from the organization's genesis and historical development to the structure of its membership, its various organs and their mandates, its role in intergovernmental cooperation and its interaction with decisions taken at the national level. Its competence, its financial management and the nature and applicability of its data and publications are fully described. Systematic in presentation, this valuable time-saving resource offers the quickest, easiest way to acquire a sound understanding of the workings of the African Union (AU) for all interested parties. Students and teachers of international law will find it especially valuable as an essential component of the rapidly growing and changing global legal milieu.

Status of NGOs in International Humanitarian Law Claudie Barrat, 2014-07-24. In Status of NGOs in International Humanitarian Law, Claudie Barrat examines the legal framework applicable to NGOs in situations of armed conflict. The author convincingly demonstrates, contrary to convention, that in addition to the ICRC, the National Societies and the IFRC, numerous other NGOs referenced in humanitarian law treaties have a legal status in IHL and therefore a legitimate claim to employ IHL provisions to respond to current challenges. On the basis of clear and thorough definitions of these entities, Barrat argues that existing NGOs meeting stringent definition can benefit from customary rights and obligations in both international and non-international armed conflict.
