Part-time Dog ... Pictures by Seymour Fleishman Jane THAYER (pseud. [i.e. Catherine Woolley]),1913 Going to the dogs Keith Laybourn,2019-01-14 Greyhound racing emerged rapidly in Britain in 1926 but in its early years was subject to rabid institutional middle class opposition largely because of the legal gambling opportunities it offered to the working class Though condemned as a dissipate and impoverishing activity it was in fact a significant leisure opportunity for the working class which cost little for the minority of bettors involved in what was clearly little more than a bit of the flutter This book is the first national study of greyhound racing in Britain from its beginnings to its heyday in the 1930s and 1940s and up its long slow decline of the late twentieth century Much of the study will be defined by the dominating issue of working class gambling and the bitter opposition to both it and greyhound racing although the attractions of this American Night Out will also be examined How to Start a Home-Based Pet-Sitting and Dog-Walking Business Cathy Vaughan,2011-01-11 Just fifteen years ago pet sitter meant the kid down the street who helped feed pets when the neighbors traveled Today this fledgling field is fast becoming an established profession Combining the appeal of working with animals a viable customer base and truly low start up costs it is for many people the ideal home based business And yet its fun aspects are often overshadowed by the daunting tasks of registering the business purchasing insurance and knowing what first steps to take and how to continue from there With a simple step by step format How to Start a Home Based Pet Sitting Business guides aspiring pet sitters from the dreaming stage to the doing stage more clearly and comprehensively than any such book to date
