Partial Payments Joseph Epstein, 1989 A collection of essays by Joseph Epstein on authors to whom he feels indebted has revered and learned from

Estranging the Familiar George Douglas Atkins, 1992 In Estranging the Familiar G Douglas Atkins addresses the often lamented state of scholarly and critical writing as he argues for a criticism that is at once theoretically informed and personal The revitalized critical writing he advocates may entail but is not limited to a return to the essay the form critical writing once took and the form that is now enjoying a resurgence of popularity and excellence Atkins contends that to reach a general audience criticism must move away from the impersonality of modern criticism and contemporary theory without embracing the old fashioned essay The venerable familiar essay may remain the basis Atkins writes but its conventional openness receptivity and capaciousness must extend to theory philosophy and the candor that seems to mark the tail end of the twentieth century In noting the timeliness if not the necessity of a return to the essay Atkins also considers our culture's parallel return to the personal When the essay combines good writing with the concerns of the personal Atkins says it becomes a form of criticism that is readable vital and potentially attractive to a large readership Atkins hopes critics will tap into the revitalized interest the essay now enjoys without ignoring the considerable insights and advances of contemporary theory He argues that despite claims to the contrary there is no inherent incompatibility between the essay and modern theory As Atkins considers various experiments in critical writing from Plato to the present notably feminist interest in the personal and autobiographical he contends that these attempts although undeniably important fall short of the desired goal when they emphasize the merely expressive and neglect the artful quality good writing can bring to personal criticism The final third of the book consists of a series of experiments in critical writing that represent the author's own attempts to bridge the gap between theory and popular criticism between an academic and a general audience In essays that illustrate the rhetorical power of the form Atkins describes the reciprocal relationship between his life experience and a reading of The Odyssey explains the role that theory has played in his personal development and chronicles his attempts to find a voice as a writer

Never Say You've Had a Lucky Life Joseph Epstein, 2024-04-16 A rich and comic portrait of the radical changes in American life and the literary world over the last eighty years An autobiography usually requires a justification The great autobiographies those by Benvenuto Cellini Jean Jacques Rousseau Benjamin Franklin and Henry Brooks Adams were justified by their authors living in interesting times harboring radically new ideas or participating in great events Joseph Epstein qualifies on none of these counts His life has been quiet lucky in numerous ways and far from dramatic But it has also been emblematic of the great changes in our country since World War II He grew up in a petit bourgeois Midwestern milieu and the city of Chicago looms large in his life He drew a lucky ticket in the parent lottery and his was a happy boyhood spent on playgrounds and hanging around drug stores At high school dances he was the rumba king and at drive in movies he was never allowed to go as far with girls as he so ardently desired At twenty six after two years in the army he found himself married the father or stepfather of four children and living in New York on the meager salary of a magazine subeditor He was ablaze with ambition and fettered by frustration He broke out by moving to Little Rock Arkansas to direct the city's anti poverty program at the height of the Civil Rights movement His writing career blossomed he began teaching at Northwestern University and for twenty five years edited one of great intellectual magazines Never Say You've Had a Lucky Life is an intimate look at one life steeped in radical change from a traditionally moral culture to a therapeutic one from an era when the extended family was strong to its current diminished status from print to digital life featuring the war of pixel on print and on But for all the seriousness of Epstein's themes this book is memorable for its comic point of view and the constant reminder of how unpredictable various and wondrously rich life can be The New Diaspora Avinoam Patt, Mark Shechner, Victoria Aarons, 2015-05-01 Readers of contemporary American fiction and Jewish cultural history will find The New Diaspora enlightening and deeply engaging Imagining Adoption Marianne Novy, 2011-05-06 Imagining Adoption looks at representations of adoption in an array of literary genres by diverse authors including George Eliot Edward Albee and Barbara Kingsolver as well as ordinary adoptive mothers and adoptee activists exploring what these writings share and what they debate Marianne Novy is Professor of English and Women's Studies University of Pittsburgh 52 McGs Chris Calhoun, 2003 Among his devoted fans his pieces were known simply as McGs Robert McG Thomas Jr commemorated fascinating unconventional lives with signature style and wit for New York's premier newspaper Here are 52 of his post mortem best Ruined Time Robert Briggs, 2008-11-24 The Making of a Bestseller Arthur T. Vanderbilt, 1999-01-01 Writer F Scott Fitzgerald's career itself is a metaphor for the vagaries of book publishing If Fitzgerald would have had his way we would today refer to The Great Gatsby as either Gold Hatted Gatsby Trimalchio in West Egg or The High Bouncing Lover A few years before Gatsby Fitzgerald had become a literary sensation at the age of 23 Helen Hooven Santmyer a contemporary of Fitzgerald's would not have a successful novel published until she was 88 and living in a nursing home In this book the author explores that mysterious place in publishing where art and commerce can either clash mesh or both Along the way a wide range of authors from the literary greats to today's commercial superstars editors agents and publishers share their thoughts insights and experiences What inspires writers John Steinbeck for example wrote every novel as if it were his last as if death were imminent Why are some books successful and appreciated while others fall into oblivion The answers are often elusive never absolute but the stories and anecdotes are always fascinating Hirschfeld Ellen Stern, 2021-07-06 The definitive biography of Al Hirschfeld renowned caricaturist and artist Al Hirschfeld knew everybody and drew everybody He occupied the twentieth century and illustrated it Hirschfeld The Biography is the first portrait of the renowned artist's life as spirited and unique as his pen and ink drawings Beginning in the 1920s he caricatured Hollywood actors Washington politicians and his favorite celebrities of the stage Broadway belonged to Hirschfeld His work appeared in the New York Times and other publications as well as on book jackets album covers posters and postage stamps for more than seventy five years He lived in Paris Moscow and Bali and in a pink New York townhouse on a star studded block where his closest friends Carol Channing S J Perelman Gloria Vanderbilt Brooks Atkinson Elia Kazan Marlene Dietrich and William Saroyan flocked in and out He played the piano went to jazz joints with Eugene O'Neill and wrote a musical that bombed He drove until he was ninety eight years old and always found a parking space He worked every day threw dinner parties twice a week and hosted New Year's Eve soirees that were legendary He had three wives a formidable agent and a daughter Nina the most famous little girl that no one knows Hirschfeld died in 2003 at the age of ninety nine If you live long enough he liked to say everything happens For him it did And good and bad it's all here Through interviews with Hirschfeld himself his friends and family including the mysterious Nina and his famous subjects as well as through letters scrapbooks and home movies Ellen Stern has crafted a delightful detailed and definitive portrait of Al Hirschfeld one of our most beloved and most influential artists Familiarity Breeds Content Joseph

Epstein, 2024-04-16 A collection of personal essays from America's most revered essay writer Joseph Epstein America's greatest living essayist writes about life and aging and being all too nicely out of it In these personal pieces he takes on topics as varied as grieving for a dead son learning Latin late in life and the pleasures of living with cats Epstein gives us a bonfire of his own vanities his thoughts about why watching sports is so impossibly seductive what it is like to be short and why he misses smoking even decades as a health obsessed non smoker Above all he writes about the literary life and the endless joys that reading and writing have brought to a self confessed lucky man The Novel, Who Needs It? Joseph Epstein, 2023-07-18 In this brief but highly engaging book Joseph Epstein argues for the primacy of fiction and specifically of the novel among all intellectual endeavors that seek to describe the behavior of human beings Reading superior fiction he holds arouses the mind in a way that nothing else quite does He shows how the novel at its best operates above the level of ideas in favor of taking up the truths of the heart No other form probes so deeply into that eternal mystery of mysteries human nature than does the novel Along the way Epstein recounts how we read fiction differently than much else we read He sets out how memory works differently in the reading of fiction than in that of other works He notes that certain novels are best read at certain ages and suggests that novels like movies might do well to carry ratings with some novels best read no later than one's early twenties others not to be read before the age of forty The knowledge one acquires from reading novels differs from all other kinds of knowledge for the subject of all superior fiction is human existence itself in all its variousness and often humbling confusion The spirit of the novel entails questioning much that others consider home truths This is demonstrated by the fact that so many important philosophers social scientists jurists and other intellectuals have been devoted readers of fiction among them Oliver Wendell Holmes Jr Michael Oakeshott Edward Shils and Clifford Geertz The Novel Who Needs It takes up those current elements in the culture that militate against the production of first rate fiction Prominent among them are the rise of online reading the expansion of creative writing programs the artistically discouraging effects of political correctness and the pervasiveness of therapeutic thinking throughout contemporary culture As for the title The Novel Who Needs It Joseph Epstein s answer is that we all do
