Particular Grace A Defense Of Gods Sovereignty In Salvation:

Particular Grace Abraham Kuyper, 2001 Salvation and Sovereignty Kenneth Keathley, 2010-01-01 In Salvation and Sovereignty Kenneth Keathley asks What shall a Christian do who is convinced of certain central tenets of Calvinism but not its corollaries He then writes I see salvation as a sovereign work of grace but suspect that the usual Calvinist understanding of sovereignty that God is the cause of all things is not sustained by the biblical witness as a whole Aiming to resolve this matter the author argues that just three of Calvinism's five TULIP points can be defended scripturally and instead builds on the ROSES acronym first presented by Timothy George Radical depravity Overcoming grace Sovereign election Eternal life Singular redemption In relation Keathley looks at salvation and sovereignty through the lens of Molinism a doctrine named after Luis Molina 1535-1600 that is based on a strong notion of God's control and an equally firm affirmation of human freedom Salvation by Grace Matthew Barrett, 2013 In Salvation by Grace Matthew Barrett comprehensively defends the doctrine of monergism the teaching that regeneration is exclusively the work of God primarily by looking at Scripture but also by examining Reformed theologians and confessions Barrett also provides a helpful evaluation of both the Arminian position and contemporary attempts to chart a middle course between Calvinistic and Arminian systems Book jacket A Defense Of Calvinism Charles Haddon Spurgeon, The Sovereignty of Grace Arthur C. Custance, 2008 This is a straightforward clearly written book dispelling the notion that election and predestination are cold austere doctrines from the mind of John Calvin The author conclusively shows that these doctrines of grace are alive vital and are the very heart of the Gospel itself Explore useful practical applications of what is often thought of as purely theological matters Experience the comfort of God's sovereign grace in daily life here and now Gain new insights into that paradox of God's sovereignty and yet our sense of freedom of choice and responsibility Tackle knotty problems such as Why bother evangelizing if election guarantees salvation for the elect By compelling and engaging reason Arthur Custance points out the inconsistencies in the Arminian position as well as others and the undeniable necessity of embracing the doctrines known as Calvinism Publisher's description Creation and Salvation: Dialogue on Abraham Kuyper's Legacy for Contemporary Ecotheology Ernst M. Conradie, 2011-03-21 This volume explores the legacy of the Dutch theologian and statesman Abraham Kuyper for contemporary Christian ecotheology It focuses on Kuyper's understanding of the relationship between creation and salvation It includes essays and responses by contributors from four continents All That God Cares About Richard J. Mouw, 2020-06-16 How do Christians account for the widespread presence of goodness in a fallen world Richard Mouw one of the most influential evangelical voices in America presents his mature thought on the topic of common grace Addressing a range of issues relevant to engaging common grace in the 21st century Mouw shows how God takes delight in all things that glorify him even those that happen beyond the boundaries of the church and defends the doctrine of common grace from its detractors Biblical Interpretation and Doctrinal Formulation in the Reformed Tradition Arie C. Leder, Richard A.

Muller, 2014-04-16 The Reformed tradition is characterized by a rigorous commitment to theological formulation yet it is equally known for its commitment to rooting its life and practice in the authority of God's Word. While these two commitments are commonly acknowledged, the path from biblical interpretation to doctrinal formulation is often overlooked. Examining a diverse group of thinkers across the chronological and international spectrum of the Reformed tradition, this book demonstrates the depth and intricacies involved in the tasks of exegesis and dogmatic construction, the ways they intersect, and the effect it has on the church.

The Sovereignty of God Arthur Pink, 2022-05-17

The Sovereignty of God is a religion classic by English Bible teacher Arthur Pink who articulates and relates the Biblical truths of God's absolute Sovereignty with the main goal to exalt God solely from the pages of Scripture. Pink attempts to draw closer the tension between the sovereignty of God and the responsibility of man, an eternal question that remains debated even though it's seemingly plainly taught in the Scripture. The author's focus is on the divine side of the issue, defining God's sovereignty and presenting the different spheres that it works and operates. Further on, he turns to the tension between the sovereignty of God and human will and responsibility.

Reformed Dogmatics : Volume 3 Herman Bavinck, 2006-04-01

In partnership with the Dutch Reformed Translation Society, Baker Academic is proud to offer in English for the very first time the third volume of Herman Bavinck's complete Reformed Dogmatics. This masterwork will appeal not only to scholars, students, pastors, and laity interested in Reformed theology, but also to research and theological libraries. Bavinck was a man of giant mind, vast learning, ageless wisdom, and great expository skill. Solid but lucid, demanding but satisfying, broad and deep and sharp and stabilizing, Bavinck's magisterial Reformed Dogmatics remains after a century the supreme achievement of its kind.

J. I. Packer, Regent College

This magisterial work exhibits Bavinck's vast knowledge and appreciation of the Christian tradition. Written from a Reformed perspective, it offers a perceptive critique of modern theology.

Common Grace Abraham Kuyper, 2016-03-24 In Common Grace Abraham Kuyper presents a constructive public theology of cultural engagement rooted in the humanity Christians share with the rest of the world He addresses a gap in the development of Reformed teaching on divine grace and he articulates a Reformed understanding of God's gifts that are common to all people after the fall into sin This first volume contains Kuyper's demonstration of common grace in its origin and operation This new translation of Common Grace created in partnership with the Kuyper Translation Society and the Acton Institute is part of a major series of new translations of Kuyper's most important writings The Abraham Kuyper Collected Works in Public Theology marks a historic moment in Kuyper studies aimed at deepening and enriching the church's development of public theology

In Defense of the Gospel Lou Martuneac, 2006-02 This volume is a thorough biblical expose of what has come to be called Lordship Salvation Throughout the volume Lou Martuneac rightly emphasizes that one's personal salvation from sin is by God's grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone The Lordship of Christ is not a condition for salvation but is most assuredly God's desire for His own Dr Robert P Lightner Dallas Theological Seminary Back cover

Sayyid Qutb's Radical Islamism and the Comparative Political Theology Dragos Stoica, 2025-02-15 Sayyid Qutb's Radical Islamism and The Comparative Political Theology argues that Sayyid Qutb's radical critique of secular modernity seen as a product of a great theft of sovereignty that usurps the monopoly of God over the entire world of creation is not idiosyncratic or incoherent but a quintessential expression and an extreme type of a specific tradition of political theology that until now has been exclusively the province of the Western thought Dragos Stoica claims that Sayyid Qutb's political theology of Hakimiyyah God's Sovereignty is better understood by integrating it in a wider context of the antimodern political theology Thus throughout this book he compares Qutb's critique of modernity with the Pakistani Islamist thinker Abu al A la Mawdudi 1903 1979 the Spanish Catholic counter revolutionary political theologian Juan Donoso Cortés 1809 1853 as well as the Protestant political theologians Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 and Rousas J Rushdoony 1916 2001 This book employs a family resemblance cross cultural comparative method and applies a cross disciplinary analytical model that combines comparative political theology with critical discourse analysis Employing these analytical instruments this book compares Qutb and his counterparts via the category of anti modern political theology more precisely through a set of shared antitheses organized around the master concept of God's Sovereignty. The ultimate objective is to augment the understanding of the Qutbian critique of secular modernity as an essential dimension of anti-modern political theology. Thus by recasting Sayyid Qutb as an essential Muslim political theologian of God's Sovereignty placed within a larger cross-cultural paradigm, this book contributes as well to the necessary process of decolonization of political theology.

T&T Clark Handbook of Neo-Calvinism Nathaniel Gray Sutanto, Cory Brock, 2024-01-25. Neo-Calvinism critically advances Reformed orthodoxy for the sake of modern life. Birthed in the Netherlands at the turn to the twentieth century initiated by Abraham Kuyper (1837-1920) and Herman Bavinck (1854-1921), it argued that a life before God entailed the leavening of faith over all human existence. While the movement originated in the Netherlands, the tradition now has a global reach with practitioners and thinkers applying its insights in diverse ways and in their own contexts. This handbook is a genealogical introduction to this lively and modern branch of the Reformed tradition with contributors that reflect its global reach. Its four sections chart the theological roots, important original figures, historical contours, and the contemporary influence of neo-Calvinism across a diversity of fields.

Herman Hoeksema: A Theological Biography Patrick Baskwell, 2009-07-01. The historic development of the theology of Herman Hoeksema presented as a biography by Dr. Patrick Baskwell, Theology Professor at ST Petersburg Theological Seminary. 334 pages, paperback.

Driven by God Jae-Eun Park, 2018-10-01. For more than two millennia, believers have struggled with the antinomy of God's absolute sovereignty over and man's ultimate responsibility in justification and sanctification. Theologians have used some version of the terms active justification and definitive sanctification in an attempt to illuminate this mystery. However, in the past decade, scholars have begun to criticize these concepts, saying that they are unsupported in Scripture, lead to theological confusion, and are of no practical benefit to believers. Through the work of theologians from the broader Dutch Reformed tradition, especially Herman Bavinck, Alexander Comrie, Herman Witsius, and Abraham Kuyper, Jae Eun Park demonstrates that the terms active justification and definitive sanctification are derived from Scripture and serve to clarify, not obscure, the doctrines of justification and sanctification. In addition, the book shows that neglect, misuse, or misunderstanding of the terms have resulted in contemporary criticisms that are unconvincing and unfounded. Writings of the aforementioned theologians define and expound four characteristics held in common between active justification and definitive sanctification: inseparability, objectivity, and decisiveness, Christ-centeredness, and God's absolute sovereignty. Concepts of the mentioned theologians. All four characteristics of active justification and definitive sanctification emphasize the God-driven nature of salvation. Jae Eun Park explains how, when properly defined and presented, the two terms are important theologically, bringing clarity to the issue of the perfect balance between God's sovereignty and human responsibility in salvation. He also shows how active justification and definitive sanctification offers practical assurance of their perseverance unto glory to true believers and provides pastors with an invaluable tool for exhorting parishioners who may have lapsed into either triumphalism or
