Partition Of Bengal And Assam Contour Of Freedom:

The Partition of Bengal and Assam, 1932-1947 Bidyut Chakrabarty, 2004-08-02 The fragmentation of Bengal and Assam in 1947 was a crucial moment in India's socio-political history as a nation state. Both the British Indian provinces were divided as much through the actions of the Muslim League as by those of Congress and the British colonial power. Attributing partition largely to Hindu communalists is therefore historically inaccurate and factually misleading. The Partition of Bengal and Assam provides a review of constitutional and party politics as well as of popular attitudes and perceptions. The primary aim of this book is to unravel the intricate socio-economic and political processes that led up to partition as Hindus and Muslims competed ferociously for the new power and privileges to be conferred on them with independence. As shown in the book well before they divorced at a political level, Hindus and Muslims had been cleaved apart by their socio-economic differences. Partition was probably inevitable.

The Partition of Bengal and Assam, 1932-1947 Bidyut Chakrabarty, 2004-08-02 This book is a balanced account of the complex processes that finally culminated in the fragmentation of South Asia following decolonization.

The Partition of Bengal Debjani Sengupta, 2015-10-22 This study looks at the rich literature that has been spawned through the historical imagination of Bengali speaking writers in West Bengal and Bangladesh through issues of homelessness, migration and exile to see how the Partition of Bengal in 1947 has thrown a long shadow over memories and cultural practices. Through a rich trove of literary and other materials, the book lays bare how the Partition has been remembered or how it has been forgotten. For the first time, hitherto untranslated archival materials and texts in Bangla have been put together to assess the impact of 1947 on the cultural memory of Bangla speaking peoples and communities. This study contends that there is not one but many smaller partitions that women and men suffered each with its own textures of pain, guilt and affirmation.

Patriotism, Partition and the Persecuted Debal K. SinghaRoy, 2023-08-07 This book explores the theme of continuous wreaking of brutal persecution of a Hindu family on the one hand and the uncompromising efforts of Muslim friends and neighbours to protect this family on the other. It is set against the resultant and barbaric forces let loose after the propagation of the two nation theory and the ultimate partition of India in 1947. Based on the social biography of a Hindu family that stayed back in East Pakistan, it traces their journey how they became other in the country of their birth and faced persecution. This being branded the other led to part of the family migrating to India away from their natal roots. The 1965 India Pakistan war further brought prolonged separation and sufferings for these half families living on both sides of the borders. Subjecting one to encounter helplessness, uncertainty and poverty in India and the other to state sponsored apathy, coercion, arrests and physical tortures. The vicious atmosphere of violent communal aggression though did not stop their Muslim friends from protecting them. When the Muslim friend was killed by the religious fanatics in the newly liberated Bangladesh, the left behind member of the Hindu family realized that it was time to leave their motherland for India where they died with the desire to go back to their motherland buried along with them Despite prolonged violence and tragic separation thereafter numerous memories of the self sacrificing efforts of the compatriots served as recollection in collective living in the Indian subcontinent India-Bangladesh Border Disputes Amit Ranjan,2018-10-30 This book discusses history of mental construction of the border between India and Bangladesh It investigates how and when a border was constructed between the people and discusses how the mental construction preceded the physical construction It also examines the perils faced by those forced to leave their homes as a result of the partition of India in 1947 Globally throughout history the absence of borders made the movement of people from one place to another easier The construction of borders and sovereign de limitation of territory restricted or even prevented seamless migration The situation becomes more complex near borders that were previously open to the movement of people One such border is between India and Bangladesh where in August 1947 suddenly people were told that the places they used to visit on a daily basis were now a part of a different sovereign country This book argues that borders construct the identity of an individual or a group Those who cross to the other side of border for whatever reason are identified and categorized by the state and the people Sometimes these migrants face violence from the locals because they are considered a threat to the local working class The book also explains how after the liberation of Bangladesh in 1971 everyday encounter between people from India and Bangladesh have further embedded a feeling of us versus them In 2015 India and Bangladesh agreed to implement the India Bangladesh Land Boundary Agreement LBA This book assesses whether the implementation of this agreement will have impacts on border related problems like mobility migration and tensions It is a valuable resource for policymakers journalists researchers and students

Literature, Gender, and the Trauma of Partition Debali Mookerjee-Leonard, 2017-04-07

Partition occurring simultaneously with British decolonization of the Indian subcontinent led to the formation of independent India and Pakistan. While the political and communal aspects of the Partition have received some attention, its enormous personal and psychological costs have been mostly glossed over, particularly when it comes to the splitting of Bengal. The memory of this historical ordeal has been preserved in literary archives, and these archives are still being excavated. This book examines neglected narratives of the Partition of India in 1947 to study the traces left by this foundational trauma on the national and regional cultural imaginaries in India, Pakistan, and Bangladesh. To arrive at a more complex understanding of how Partition experiences of violence, migration, and displacement shaped postcolonial societies and subjectivities in South Asia, the author analyses, through novels and short stories, multiple cartographies of disorientation and anxiety in the post-Partition period. The book illuminates how contingencies of political geography cut across personal and collective histories, and how these intersections are variously marked and mediated by literature. Examining works composed in Bengali and other South Asian languages, this book seeks to broaden and complicate existing conceptions of what constitutes the Partition literary archive. A valuable addition to the growing field of Partition studies, this book will be of interest to scholars of South Asian history, gender studies, and literature.

South Asia Dhananjay Tripathi, Sanjay Chaturvedi, 2021-11-24. Postcolonial and post-partition South Asia, one of the fastest growing and yet one of the least integrated regions of the world, is marked by both optimism and pessimism. This intriguing dichotomy of strength and weakness, security and insecurity, hope and fear, connections and disconnects, underpins South Asia's regionalism conundrum and gives birth to borders and boundaries, both material and mental, with a complex territoriality. The Janus-faced nature of South Asian borderlands, the inward nationalizing impulses entangled with the outward regional frontier orientations, is a stark reminder that history of mobility in this eco-geographical region is much older than the history of territoriality and colonial cartography and ethnography. This collection of meticulously researched, theoretically informed case studies from South Asia provides useful insights into bordering, ordering, and othering narratives as practices and performances that are intricately entangled with identity politics and security discourses. It shows how a sharper focus on subterranean subregionalism's border communities, popular geopolitics of enmity, and transborder challenges to sustainability could open up spaces for new multiple reimaginings of borders at diverse scales and sights, including sub-urban neighbourhoods, school textbooks, cinema, and trans-border conservation initiatives. The chapters in this edited volume have been contributed by both renowned as well as young emerging scholars looking into the borders and boundaries in South Asia. Each chapter offers new perspectives and insights into themes like trans-Himalayan borderlands, India-Pakistan physical and mental borders, Afghanistan-Pakistan border, and numerous social boundaries that we see in everyday South Asia. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Borderlands Studies.

Trans-Border Transactions in North East India Asok Kumar Ray, 2024-12-02. This book analyses the cross-border transactions in North East India with particular focus on the Tripura-Bangladesh border. It explores the inter relationship between community state and market and also discusses the spatial identity of Tripura in pre and post partition era and the implications of partition and border making to the cross border communities of Tripura and Bangladesh It reflects on trade transactions between India and Bangladesh and more significantly on informal cross border trade social transactions and people to people contact across the border The subject matter in this book also captures the community anxieties emerging from land boundary institutions and the issues of conflict and development in the cross border space of Tripura Bangladesh It also discusses the dynamics of community inter dependence and opposition in the post partition condition in the Tripura and Bangladesh Print edition not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan or Bhutan

Decolonization in South Asia Sekhar Bandyopadhyay, 2009-06-03 This book explores the meanings and complexities of India's experience of transition from colonial to the post colonial period It focuses on the first five years from independence on 15th August 1947 to the first general election in January 1952 in the politics of West Bengal the new Indian province that was created as a result of the Partition The author a specialist on the history of modern India discusses what freedom actually meant to various individuals communities and political parties how they responded to it how they extended its meaning and how in their anxiety to confront the realities of free India they began to invent new enemies of their newly acquired freedom By emphasising the representations of popular mentality rather than the institutional changes brought in by the process of decolonization he draws attention to other concerns and anxieties that were related to the problems of coming to terms with the newly achieved freedom and the responsibility of devising independent rules of governance that would suit the historic needs of a pluralist nation Decolonization in South Asia analyses the transitional politics of West Bengal in light of recent developments in postcolonial theory on nationalism treating the nation as a space for contestation rather than a natural breeding ground for homogeneity in the complex political scenario of post independence India It will appeal to academics interested in political science sociology social anthropology and cultural and Asian studies

The Indian Ideology Perry Anderson, 2021-07-13 The historiography of modern India is largely a pageant of presumed virtues harmonious territorial unity religious impartiality the miraculous survival of electoral norms in the world's most populous democracy Even critics of Indian society still underwrite such claims But how well does the Idea of India correspond to the realities of the Union In an iconoclastic intervention Marxist historian Perry Anderson provides an unforgettable reading of the Subcontinent's passage through Independence and the catastrophe of Partition the idiosyncratic and corrosive vanities of Gandhi and Nehru and the close interrelationship of Indian democracy and caste inequality The Indian Ideology caused uproar on first publication in 2012 not least for breaking with euphemisms for Delhi's occupation of Kashmir This new expanded edition includes the author's reply to his critics an interview with the Indian weekly Outlook and a postscript on India under the rule of Narendra Modi

The 1947 Partition in The East Subhasri Ghosh, 2021-12-28 This book explores the experiences of people affected by the Partition of British India and princely states in 1947 through first person accounts memoirs archival material literature and cinema It focuses on the displacement violence and trauma of the people affected and interrogates the interrelationships between nationalism temporality religion and citizenship The authors examine the mass migrations triggered by the 1947 Partition amidst nationalist posturing religious violence and debates on crucial issues of refugee rehabilitation and redistribution of land and resources It focuses on the drawing of the borders and the ruptures in the socio cultural bonds within regions and communities brought on by demographic changes violence and displacement The volume reflects on the significant mark left by the event on the socio political sensibilities of various communities and the questions of identity and citizenship It also studies the effects of Partition on the politics of Bangladesh and India s east and northeast states specifically Bengal Assam and Tripura A significant addition to the existing corpus on Partition historiography this book will be of interest to modern Indian history partition studies border studies sociology refugee and migration studies cultural studies literature post colonial studies and South Asian studies particularly those concerned with Bengal Northeast India and Bangladesh

The Bengal Delta I. Iqbal, 2010-10-20 With a focus on colonial Bengal this book demonstrates how the dynamics of agrarian prosperity or decline communal conflicts poverty and famine can only be properly understood from an ecological perspective as well as discussions of state s coercion and popular resistance market forces and dependency or contested cultures and consciousness

Regional perspectives on India's Partition Anjali Gera Roy, Nandi Bhatia, 2023-05-04 This book expands the scope of understanding of the vast albeit uneven experience of the 1947 Partition of India by including localities and life stories from and beyond the regions of Punjab and Bengal Building on existing research on Partition the chapters present and analyse the consequences of Partition displacement and the resilience of communities in different parts of the nation Regions discussed include the Chitmahals Assam Tripura Mizoram Hyderabad Andaman Islands and Jammu and Kashmir The contributors show that the heterogeneity of people s experiences reside in spaces of the family home neighbourhoods villages towns and cities refugee settlements letters memoirs biographies films fiction oral histories and testimonies The book examines the Partition s complex effects in regions localities and contexts and its material and psychological ramifications This book is a unique and comprehensive contribution in enabling a more complex understanding of how Partition played out and continues to do so for groups and generations across India It will be of interest to a multidisciplinary audience including history literature comparative literature colonial and postcolonial studies modern Asian studies studies of South Asia and studies of memory and trauma

Theorizing a Bengali Nation Sucharita Sen, 2024-06-07 This book explores the philosophical and political roots of the United Bengal movement of 1947 that emerged as a final bid to keep the province united against Partition Through Abul Hashim one of its architects it explores the idea of an independent Bengali nation in the years preceding Independence and examines the underlying tensions of the concept of a Muslim led independent Bangalistan and its repercussions on a sizeable Hindu minority Focusing on Hashim s writings and political contributions this monograph highlights his vision of an aesthetic identity rooted within religious principles as well as civic ideals in a new united Bengal where common law underwritten through religious ideals did not need to be necessarily opposed to western discourses of a modern state A major new intervention this book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of modern Indian history especially the Partition politics and South Asian studies
