Partner Or Pariah? Hilal Khashan,1996-01-01

Muslim Attitudes to Jews and Israel Moshe Ma'oz,2011-11-02

Manifestations of hatred of Jews and Israel have risen over the last few decades in the Arab and Muslim world But is such hatred the result of Islamic anti Semitism This title explains that while anti Semitism is the credo of fanatic groups and regimes such an attitude is not representative of traditional and contemporary Islam Negotiating Arab-Israeli Peace, Second Edition Laura Zittrain Eisenberg,Neil Caplan,2010-07-14 Thoroughly updated and expanded this new edition of Negotiating Arab Israeli Peace examines the history of recurrent efforts to resolve the Arab Israeli conflict and identifies a pattern of negative negotiating behaviors that seem to repeatedly derail efforts to achieve peace In a lively and accessible style Laura Zittrain Eisenberg and Neil Caplan examine eight case studies of recent Arab Israeli diplomatic encounters from the Egyptian Israeli peace of 1979 to the beginning of the Obama administration in light of the historical record By measuring contemporary diplomatic episodes against the pattern of counterproductive negotiating habits this book makes possible a coherent comparison of over sixty years of Arab Israeli negotiations and gives readers a framework with which to assess the relative strengths and weaknesses of peace making attempts past present and future Peacemaking from Above, Peace from Below Norrin M. Ripsman,2016-05-05 In Peacemaking from Above Peace from Below Norrin M Ripsman explains how regional rivals make peace and how outside actors can encourage regional peacemaking Through a qualitative empirical analysis of all the regional rivalries that terminated in peace treaties in the twentieth century including detailed case studies of the Franco German Egyptian Israeli and Israeli Jordanian peace settlements Ripsman concludes that efforts to encourage peacemaking that focus on changing the attitudes of the rival societies or democratizing the rival polities to enable societal input into security policy are unlikely to achieve peace Prior to a peace treaty he finds peacemaking is driven by states often against intense societal opposition for geostrategic reasons or to preserve domestic power After a formal treaty has been concluded the stability of peace depends on societal buy in through mechanisms such as bilateral economic interdependence democratization of former rivals cooperative regional institutions and transfers of population or territory Society is largely irrelevant to the first stage but is critical to the second He draws from this analysis a lesson for contemporary policy Western governments and international organizations have invested heavily in efforts to promote Israeli Palestinian and Indo Pakistani peace by promoting democratic values economic exchanges and cultural contacts between the opponents Such attempts to foster peace are likely to waste resources until such time as formal peace treaties are concluded between longtime adversaries The Political Economy of Middle East Peace J.W. Wright Jr.,2013-06-17 The Political Economy of Middle East Peace looks at the political economy of the Middle Eastern peace process with a focus on the politics of trade Contributors investigate the ways new commercial alliances develop as a result of economic agencies established via the Arab Israeli peace process and look at institutions which contribute to redirection of Arab intra and inter regional trade such as the Palestine Monetary Authority the Middle East Development Bank and free trade zone agencies in Aquaba and Dubai

Educating Toward a Culture of Peace Yaacov Iram, 2006-06-01 This volume on Education towards a Culture of Peace is a timely undertaking since the United Nations has proclaimed the years 2001 2010 as the International Decade for a Culture of Peace and Non Violence for the Children of the World A culture of peace as defined by the UN is a set of values attitudes modes of behaviour and ways of life that reject violence and prevent conflicts by tackling their root causes to solve problems through dialogue and negotiation among individuals groups and nations UN Resolutions A RES 52 13 1998 Culture of Peace and A RES 53 243 1999 Declaration and Programme of Action on a Culture of Peace Most of the chapters in this book are based on lectures that were presented at the International Conference Education towards a Culture of Peace This conference was convened on 1 3 December 2003 by the The Josef Burg Chair in Education for Human Values Tolerance and Peace UNESCO Chair on Human Rights Democracy Peace and Tolerance School of Education at Bar Ilan University Israel This conference was held under the auspices of Israel National Commission for UNESCO and supported also by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs Jerusalem The office of Public Affairs of the US Embassy Tel Aviv Fulbright United States Israel Educational Foundation

The A to Z of the Arab-Israeli Conflict P R Kumaraswamy, 2009-07-24 The history religion culture and archeology that this rivalry has sparked between the Arabs and Israelis over the same piece of territory is traced in this book which offers the essential details using neutral terms and thereby allowing readers to draw conclusions for themselves

Historical Dictionary of the Arab-Israeli Conflict P R Kumaraswamy, 2015-10-08 This second edition of Historical Dictionary of the Arab Israeli Conflict covers the history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 600 cross referenced entries important events key personalities official positions of principal states and the UN and other efforts to find a peaceful settlement This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about this conflict

Negotiating Arab-Israeli Peace Laura Zittrain Eisenberg, Neil Caplan, 2025-04-22 Fifteen years since the publication of its second edition this foundational text in the history of Arab Israeli peacemaking endeavors has been updated to include developments from the past twenty five years Thoroughly revised and expanded the third edition of Negotiating Arab Israeli Peace examines the history of recurrent efforts to resolve the Arab Israeli conflict since the 1970s and identifies a pattern of negative negotiating behaviors that repeatedly derail peacemaking efforts In addition to updating all of the book s existing chapters with post 2010 sources and developments authors Eisenberg and Caplan have added new chapters on the Arab Peace Initiative the Annapolis Conference the Kerry mission and the Abraham Accords as well as a conclusion that questions several core notions regarding the nature of the conflict the possibility of its resolution Arab Israeli normalization and the viability of the two state solution An epilogue extends the book s framework into present day crises in the region specifically Hamas s 7 October 2023 attack on Israel and Israel s war against Hamas in Gaza A companion website comprises nine appendices among them 145

primary source documents expanded notes links to websites for maps data and analysis peace activities and additional visual and documentary sources Also online is a robust instructor s guide offering supplementary resources and ideas for assignments research and classroom exercises all of which draw upon and complement the themes running throughout the text By measuring contemporary diplomatic episodes against the historical pattern of counterproductive negotiating habits Negotiating Arab Israeli Peace makes possible a coherent comparison of some eighty years of Arab Israeli negotiations and offers readers a framework with which to assess the relative strengths and weaknesses of peace making attempts past present and future

Bridging the Gap Cindy R. Jebb,2004-01-01 In Bridging the Gap scholar and military officer Cindy R Jebb asks why the United States with its considerable diplomatic economic and military resources vested in the Middle East has not been able to successfully implement plans to quell unrest in the region To find an answer Jebb specifically focuses on the factors that drive United States foreign policy decisions in Egypt and Syria in a Cold War and post Cold War context The epilogue brings forward the post Cold War findings to a post 9 11 world providing insights on the changing legitimacy formulas for both states Using comparative politics literature to answer the international relations question of why states behave as they do this searching study builds an important foundation for further research in other critical areas of current scholarly interest including democratization consensus building multilateral institutions and ethnic studies Bridging the Gap will be indispensable to scholars in the international comparative and security fields and Jebb s insights will be of particular value to Middle East regional experts and policy makers

Fratricide in the Holy Land Avner Falk,2005-02-17 This is the first English language book ever to apply psychoanalytic knowledge to the understanding of the most intractable international struggle in our world today the Arab Israeli conflict Two ethnic groups fight over a single territory that both consider to be theirs by historical right essentially a rational matter But close historical examination shows that the two parties to this tragic conflict have missed innumerable opportunities for a rational partition of the territory between them and for a permanent state of peace and prosperity rather than perennial bloodshed and misery Falk suggests that a way to understand and explain such irrational matters is to examine the unconscious aspects of the conflict He examines large group psychology nationalism group narcissism psychogeography the Arab and Israeli minds and suicidal terrorism and he offers psychobiographical studies of Ariel Sharon and Yasser Arafat two key players in this tragic conflict today

Bring Down the Walls C. Dagher,2002-01-04 Lebanon is more than a country it is a message these words of Pope John Paul II illustrate Lebanon s post war endeavor to preserve its age old Christian Muslim coexistence and power sharing formula and to invalidate Samuel Huntington s assumption of a Clash of Civilizations Lebanon s current challenge is also the challenge of a whole region the Middle East where the fate of minorities including Eastern Christians reveals the prospects of democracy pluralism and political participation Carole H Dagher a journalist for Lebanese media as well as an academic presents an insightful account on how Christian and Muslim communities emerged from the sixteen year old Lebanese war what their points of friction and their common grounds are and what the prospects of Lebanon s communal representation system and pluralistic society are She describes the central role played by the Holy See and John Paul II in bridging the gap between Christians and Muslims in Lebanon and analyzes the impact other countries such as Syria Iran and Saudi Arabia have had on the power game and conversely the impact of Christian Muslim interaction on the future of the Arab Israeli peace process Bring Down the Walls draws crucial lessons from the recent history of Christian Muslim relations in Lebanon Journal of Palestine Studies ,1997 The Political Economy of Transitions to Peace Galia Press-Barnathan,2009 How is peace actually achieved reinforced and made permanent This is the question that this book tackles as the author examines the outcomes of a series of conflicts in the Middle East Asia and Europe from 1945 to the present The insights and lessons emerging from these cases and drawn out by Press Barnathan s analysis will help scholars and decision makers to better understand and more skillfully manage transitions to peace in present day conflicts Parameters ,1997 The Future of U.S.-Israel Strategic Cooperation Shai Feldman,1996 Research Report American University of Beirut,1995
