Partners In Parenthood:

When Partners Become Parents Carolyn Pape Cowan, Philip A. Cowan, 1992 Based on a landmark internationally known ten year study of men and women having a first child this book describes how couples can make small changes to avoid the toll that this happy transition can take on marriage And Baby Makes Three John Gottman, PhD, Julie Schwartz Gottman, PhD, 2007-01-09 Having a baby is a joyous experience but even the best relationships are strained during the transition from duo to trio Lack of sleep never ending housework and new fiscal concerns often lead to conflict disappointment and hurt feelings In And Baby Makes Three Love Lab experts John Gottman and Julie Schwartz Gottman teach couples the skills from their successful workshops so partners can avoid the pitfalls of parenthood by maintaining intimacy and romance replacing a culture of criticism and irritability with one of appreciation preventing post partum depression creating a home environment that nurtures physical emotional and mental health as well as cognitive and behavioral development for your baby Complete with exercises that separate the master from the disaster couples And Baby Makes Three helps new parents positively manage the strain that comes along with their bundle of joy Towards Parenthood Jeannette Milgrom, Jennifer Ericksen, Bronwyn Leigh, Elizabeth Loughlin, Yolanda Romeo, 2009 This guidebook aims to assist parents manage the complex demands of parenting An additional aim is to strengthen the couple relationship and the relationship between parents and infants Skills in coping problem solving enhancing self esteem assertive communication bonding with your baby and understanding your baby's cues are presented PARTNERS IN PARENTHOOD Raina Lynn, 2011-07-15 15th Anniversary Celebrating fifteen years of romance Silhouette INTIMATE MOMENTS Expectantly Yours THE PREGNANT BRIDE Jill Mathesin was marrying the man she loved with all her heart But Mason Bradshaw didn't love her He was only marrying her because of the child she carried his child conceived in an explosive burst of passion neither had been able to deny What had happened to make this man so wary and how could Jill win his love Jill made a second vow on her wedding day to capture her new husband's heart for life Baby on the way

Parenting Matters National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Children, Youth, and Families, Committee on Supporting the Parents of Young Children, 2016-11-21 Decades of research have demonstrated that the parent child dyad and the environment of the family which includes all primary caregivers are at the foundation of children's well being and healthy development From birth children are learning and rely on parents and the other caregivers in their lives to protect and care for them The impact of parents may never be greater than during the earliest years of life when a child's brain is rapidly developing and when nearly all of her or his experiences are created and shaped by parents and the family environment Parents help children build and refine their knowledge and skills charting a trajectory for their health and well being during childhood and beyond The experience of parenting also impacts parents themselves For instance parenting can enrich and give focus to parents' lives generate stress or calm and create any number of emotions including feelings of happiness sadness fulfillment and anger Parenting of young children today takes place in the context of significant ongoing developments These include a rapidly growing body of science on early childhood increases in funding for programs and services for families changing demographics of the U S population and greater diversity of family structure Additionally parenting is increasingly being shaped by technology and increased access to information about parenting Parenting Matters identifies parenting knowledge attitudes and practices associated with positive developmental outcomes in children ages 0 8 universal preventive and targeted strategies used in a variety of settings that have been effective with parents of young children and that support the identified knowledge attitudes and practices and barriers to and facilitators for parents use of practices that lead to healthy child outcomes as well as their participation in effective programs and services This report makes recommendations directed at an array of stakeholders for promoting the wide scale adoption of effective programs and services for parents and on areas that warrant further research to inform policy and practice It is meant to serve as a roadmap for the future of parenting policy research and practice in the United States

Rage Darcy Lockman, 2019-05-07 Why do men do so little at home Why do women do so much Why don't our egalitarian values match our lived experiences Journalist turned psychologist Darcy Lockman offers a clear-eyed look at the most pernicious problem facing modern parents how progressive relationships become traditional ones when children are introduced into the household In an era of seemingly unprecedented feminist activism enlightenment and change data shows that one area of gender inequality stubbornly persists the disproportionate amount of parental work that falls to women no matter their background class or professional status All the Rage investigates the cause of this pervasive inequity to answer why in households where both parents work full time and agree that tasks should be equally shared mothers household management mental labor and childcare contributions still outweigh fathers How in a culture that pays lip service to women's equality and lauds the benefits of father involvement benefits that extend far beyond the well-being of the kids themselves can a commitment to fairness in marriage melt away upon the arrival of children Counting on male partners who will share the burden women today have been left with what political scientists call unfulfilled rising expectations Historically these unmet expectations lie at the heart of revolutions insurgencies and civil unrest If so many couples are living this way and so many women are angered or just exhausted by it why do we remain so stuck Where is our revolution our insurgency our civil unrest Darcy Lockman drills deep to find answers exploring how the feminist promise of true domestic partnership almost never in fact comes to pass Starting with her own marriage as a ground zero case study she moves outward chronicling the experiences of a diverse cross-section of women raising children with men visiting new mothers groups and pioneering co-parenting specialists and interviewing experts across academic fields from gender studies professors and anthropologists to neuroscientists and primatologists Lockman identifies three tenets that have upheld the cultural gender division of labor and peels back the ways in which both men and women unintentionally perpetuate old norms If we can all agree that equal pay for equal work should be a given can the same apply to unpaid work Can justice finally come home All Joy and No Fun

Jennifer Senior, 2014-01-28 Thousands of books have examined the effects of parents on their children In All Joy and No Fun award-winning journalist Jennifer Senior now asks what are the effects of children on their parents In All Joy and No Fun award-winning journalist Jennifer Senior tries to tackle this question isolating and analyzing the many ways in which children reshape their parents' lives whether it's their marriages their jobs their habits their hobbies their friendships or their internal senses of self She argues that changes in the last half century have radically altered the roles of today's mothers and fathers making their mandates at once more complex and far less clear Recruiting from a wide variety of sources in history sociology economics psychology philosophy and anthropology she dissects both the timeless strains of parenting and the ones that are brand new and then brings her research to life in the homes of ordinary parents around the country The result is an unforgettable series of family portraits starting with parents of young children and progressing to parents of teens Through lively and accessible storytelling Senior follows these mothers and fathers as they wrestle with some of parenthood's deepest vexations and luxuriate in some of its finest rewards Meticulously researched yet imbued with emotional intelligence All Joy and No Fun makes us reconsider some of our culture s most basic beliefs about parenthood all while illuminating the profound ways children deepen and add purpose to our lives By focusing on parenthood rather than parenting the book is original and essential reading for mothers and fathers of today and tomorrow
