Paraph Of Bone Other Kinds Of Blue:

Who Can Afford to Improvise? Ed Pavlić, 2015-10-12 More than a quarter century after his death James Baldwin remains an unparalleled figure in American literature and African American cultural politics In Who Can Afford to Improvise Ed Pavlić offers an unconventional lyrical and accessible meditation on the life writings and legacy of James Baldwin and their relationship to the lyric tradition in black music from gospel and blues to jazz and R B Based on unprecedented access to private correspondence unpublished manuscripts and attuned to a musically inclined poet's skill in close listening Who Can Afford to Improvise frames a new narrative of James Baldwin's work and life The route retraces the full arc of Baldwin's passage across the pages and stages of his career according to his constant interactions with black musical styles recordings and musicians Presented in three books or movements the first listens to Baldwin in the initial months of his most intense visibility in May 1963 and the publication of The Fire Next Time It introduces the key terms of his lyrical aesthetic and identifies the shifting contours of Baldwin's career from his early work as a reviewer for left leaning journals in the 1940s to his last published and unpublished works from the mid 1980s Book II listens with Baldwin and ruminates on the recorded performances of Billie Holiday and Dinah Washington singers whose message and methods were closely related to his developing world view It concludes with the first detailed account of The Hallelujah Chorus a performance from July 1 1973 in which Baldwin shared the stage at Carnegie Hall with Ray Charles Finally in Book III Pavlić reverses our musically inflected reconsideration of Baldwin's voice projecting it into the contemporary moment and reading its impact on everything from the music of Amy Winehouse to the street performances of Turf Feinz and the fire of racial oppression and militarization against black Americans in the 21st century Always with an ear close to the music and avoiding the safe box of celebration Who Can Afford to Improvise enables a new kind of lyrical travel with the instructive clarity and the open ended mystery Baldwin's work invokes into the world

Unpacking My Library Marcel Proust, 2017-01-01 A captivating tour of the bookshelves of ten leading artists exploring the intricate connections between reading artistic practice and identity Taking its inspiration from Walter Benjamin's seminal 1931 essay the Unpacking My Library series charts a spirited exploration of the reading and book collecting practices of today's leading thinkers Artists and Their Books showcases the personal libraries of ten important contemporary artists based in the United States Mark Dion Theaster Gates Wangechi Mutu Ed Ruscha and Carrie Mae Weems Canada Janet Cardiff and George Bures Miller and the United Kingdom Billy Childish Tracey Emin and Martin Parr Through engaging interviews the artists discuss the necessity of reading and the meaning of books in their lives and careers This is a book about books but it even more importantly highlights the role of literature in shaping an artist's self presentation and persona Photographs of each artist's bookshelves present an evocative glimpse of personal taste of well loved and rare volumes and of the individual touches that make a bookshelf one's own The interviews are accompanied by top ten reading lists assembled by each artist an introduction by Jo Steffens and Marcel Proust's seminal essay On Reading
