Paras Versus the Reich Bernd Horn, Michel Wyczynski, 2003-08 This book traces the development of airborne forces from earliest mythology to their earth shattering debut in the Second World War      The Insubordinate and the Noncompliant Howard Coombs, 2008-03-28 The Unwilling and the Reluctant Theoretical Perspectives on Disobedience in the Military and The Apathetic and the Defiant Case Studies of Canadian Mutiny and Disobedience 1812 1919 are the first two volumes in a series devoted to disobedience issues in the Canadian military Now with The Insubordinate and the Noncompliant the trilogy is complete Military leadership has both formal and informal dimensions The formal leadership of any organization must ensure that it minimizes the divergence between institutional aims and the actions of informal leaders When this separation occurs the result is sometimes mutiny These incidents of insubordination and noncompliance represent a form of dialogue between military personnel and their leadership The Insubordinate and the Noncompliant offers a perspective on the Canadian experience with military mutiny in the twentieth century in an effort to provide relevant lessons for today

Armageddon Fed Up With This Derek Nudd, 2015-01-28 In 1940 Eric Nudd like millions of others found himself unexpectedly in uniform a raw conscript in a heavy anti aircraft regiment He grew over the next five years into a seasoned professional with the Normandy and North West European campaigns under his belt A previously unsuspected talent for maths took him from heaving shells to fire control and then radar giving him a ringside view of the manic wartime technology race As a Fleet Street journalist prolific letter writer and occasional poet Eric published improvised news sheets from a succession of gun sites and dugouts Armageddon Fed Up With This A Gunner s Tale is told by a civilian in uniform who was an acute observer and literate recorder of what he saw His wry sometimes scathing observations on the humour and idiocy of army life and the military political and cultural events of the time are set against the global cataclysm going on around him The author Derek Nudd colours in the background for those of us lucky enough to have missed it Inspired by authors such as Cyril Demarne and Spike Milligan Armageddon Fed Up With This provides a new perspective from underneath on the anti aircraft forces who for a while after the fall of France were the only part of the army shooting back This book will appeal to readers who enjoy historical and military biographies and provide new insights for students of the period The title was a contemporary joke

Victory Mark Zuehlke, 2010 The eighth Canadian Battle Series volume is the little told story of the tense final days of World War II remembered in the Netherlands as the sweetest of springs which saw the country's liberation from German occupation The Liberation Campaign a series of fierce desperate battles during the last three months of the war was bittersweet A nation's freedom was won and the war concluded but these final hostilities cost Canada 6 298 casualties including 1 482 dead With his trademark you are there style that draws upon official records veteran memories and a keen understanding of the combat experience Mark Zuehlke brings to life this concluding chapter in the story of Canada in World War II

A Perfect Hell John Nadler, 2010-03-05 It's 1942 and Hitler's armies stand astride Europe like a colossus Germany is winning on every front This is the story of how one of the world's first commando units put together for the invasion of Norway helped turn the tide in Italy 1942 When the British generals recommend an audacious plan to parachute a small elite commando unit into Norway in a bid to put Nazi Germany on the defensive Winston Churchill is intrigued But Britain fighting for its life can't spare the manpower to participate So William Lyon MacKenzie King is contacted and asked to commit Canadian troops to the bold plan King determined to join Roosevelt and Churchill as an equal leader in the Allied war effort agrees One of the world's first commando units the First Special Service Force or FSSF is assembled from hand picked soldiers from Canadian and American regiments Any troops sent into Norway will have to be rugged self sufficient brave and weather hardened Canada has such men in ample supply The all volunteer FSSF comprises outdoorsmen trappers rangers prospectors miners loggers Assembled at an isolated base in Helena Montana and given only five months to train before the invasion they are schooled in parachuting mountain climbing cross country skiing and cold weather survival They are taught how to handle explosives how to operate nearly every field weapon in the American and German arsenals and how to kill with their bare hands After the Norway plan is scrapped the FSSF is dispatched to Italy and given its first test to seize a key German mountain top position which had repelled the brunt of the Allied armies for over a month In a reprise of the audacity and careful planning that won Vimy Ridge for the Canadians in WWI the FSSF takes the twin peaks Monte la Difensa and Monte la Remetanea by storming the supposedly unscalable rock face at the rear of the German position and opens the way through the mountains Later the FSSF will hold one quarter of the Anzio beachhead against a vastly superior German force for ninety nine days a force of only 1 200 commandos does the work of a full division of over 17 000 troops Though badly outnumbered the FSSF takes the fight to the Germans sending nighttime patrols behind enemy lines and taking prisoners It is here that they come to be known among the dispirited Germans as Schwartzteufel Black Devils for their black camouflage face paint and their terrifying tactic of appearing out of the darkness John Nadler vividly captures the savagery of the Italian campaign fought as it was at close quarters and with desperate resolve and the deeply human experiences of the individual men called upon to fight it Based on extensive archival research and interviews with veterans A Perfect Hell is an important contribution to Canadian military history and an indispensable account of the lives and battlefield exploits of the men who turned the tide of the Second World War      Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975

Strangers in Arms Robert C. Engen,2016-04-04 Why do soldiers fight What keeps them going What compels them to face death when their long time comrades have fallen around them Strangers in Arms addresses these questions in a groundbreaking study of the behaviour morale and motivations of Canadian infantrymen on the front lines of the Second World War Canada's army has long faced intense criticism for its combat performance during the war and Canada's official history has presented Canadian soldiers as deficient inexperienced and unprepared in comparison with their enemies Questioning entrenched views Robert Engen explores a trove of contemporaneous documents to create a remarkable new portrait of Canadians at war Rather than the popular band of brothers image of soldier cohesion in battle he finds staggering casualty rates and personnel turmoil that left Canadian infantrymen often working with and fighting beside men they hardly knew Yet these strangers in arms continued to fight effectively and in good spirits against a tenacious and deadly enemy triumphing in the face of heartrending loss and sacrifice Challenging old narratives about the Canadian soldier and supported by cutting edge empirical and qualitative research Strangers in Arms crafts a new understanding of what happens at the sharp end of battle

Distance from the Belsen Heap Mark Celinscak,2015-11-26 Winner of the 2016 Vine Award for Nonfiction The Allied soldiers who liberated the Nazi concentration camp at Bergen Belsen in April 1945 were faced with scenes of horror and privation With breathtaking thoroughness Distance from the Belsen Heap documents what they saw and how they came to terms with those images over the course of the next seventy years On the basis of research in more than seventy archives in four countries Mark Celinscak analyses how these military personnel struggled with the intense experience of the camp how they attempted to describe what they had seen heard and felt to those back home and how their lives were transformed by that experience He also brings to light the previously unacknowledged presence of hundreds of Canadians among the camp's liberators including noted painter Alex Colville Distance from the Belsen Heap examines the experiences of hundreds of British and Canadian eyewitnesses to atrocity including war artists photographers medical personnel and chaplains A study of the complicated encounter between these Allied soldiers and the horrors of the Holocaust Distance from the Belsen Heap is a testament to their experience
