From Parent to Child Jere R. Behrman, Robert A. Pollak, Paul Taubman, 1995-08-15 How do parents allocate human capital among their children To what extent do parental decisions about resource allocation determine children's eventual economic success The analyses in From Parent to Child explore these questions by developing and testing a model in which the earnings of children with different genetic endowments respond differently to investments in human capital Behrman Pollak and Taubman use this model to investigate issues such as parental bias in resource allocations based on gender or birth order the extent of intergenerational mobility in income earnings and schooling in the United States the relative importance of environmental and genetic factors in determining variations in schooling and whether parents' distributions offset the intended effects of government programs designed to subsidize children In allocating scarce resources parents face a trade off between equity and efficiency between the competing desires to equalize the wealth of their children and to maximize the sum of their earnings Building on the seminal work of Gary Becker From Parent to Child integrates careful modeling of household behavior with systematic empirical testing and will appeal to anyone interested in the economics of the family

So How Do I Parent THIS Child? Bill Hendricks, Bev Hendricks Godby, 2021-09-07 Parents don't determine who their kids become They steward them into who they're meant to be One of the most common myths in parenting books you see it everywhere is that parents are responsible for who their children turn out to be Proper input yields proper output or so the thinking goes But that mindset works with machinery not people The truth is your child has a unique set of traits their giftedness that only they possess The parent's job isn't to crank out a product but to point an individual human being toward a healthy flourishing life In So How Do I Parent THIS Child brother and sister duo Bill Hendricks and Bev Hendricks Godby team up to help you understand the difference between producing a product and parenting a person They take you through all the stages of child rearing from diapers to driver's licenses to diplomas to give you a comprehensive look at how identifying giftedness and helping your children discover it for themselves makes all the difference As a parent you've got a lot of challenges ahead But with intentionality and an individualized approach you'll see your kids grow up to become the mature and confident adults that they're intended to be
