P.E.T. in Action Thomas Gordon, Judith Gordon Sands, 1978 Parent Effectiveness Training Dr. Thomas Gordon, 2008-06-03 UPDATED 2019 EDITION The pioneering book that has guided millions of parents to more effectively resolve conflicts communicate and create loving relationships with their children from Nobel Peace Prize nominee Dr Thomas Gordon P E T or Parent Effectiveness Training began in 1962 as the first national parent training program to teach parents how to communicate more effectively with kids and offer step by step advice to resolve family conflicts so everybody wins This beloved classic is the most studied highly praised and proven parenting program in the world and it will work for you Now revised and updated this groundbreaking guide will show you How to avoid being a permissive parent How to listen so kids will talk to you and talk so kids will listen to you How to teach your children to own their problems and to solve them How to apply the No Lose method to resolve conflicts Using the timeless methods of P E T will have immediate results less fighting fewer tantrums and lies no need for punishment Whether you have a toddler striking out for independence or a teenager who has already started rebelling you ll find P E T a compassionate effective way to instill responsibility and create a nurturing family environment in which your child will thrive Leader Effectiveness Training: L.E.T. (Revised) Thomas Gordon, 2001-10-01 L E T has changed countless corporations and private businesses including many Fortune 500 companies with its down to earth communication and conflict resolution skills Now this indispensable source has been newly revised with updated research and timely case studies Teaching Children Self-discipline--at Home and at School Thomas Gordon, 1989 Provides new ways parents and teachers can build self control self esteem and self reliance by teaching the skills required to govern a family classroom or group more democratically less autocratically Parenting Matters National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Children, Youth, and Families, Committee on Supporting the Parents of Young Children, 2016-11-21 Decades of research have demonstrated that the parent child dyad and the environment of the family which includes all primary caregivers are at the foundation of children s well being and healthy development From birth children are learning and rely on parents and the other caregivers in their lives to protect and care for them The impact of parents may never be greater than during the earliest years of life when a child s brain is rapidly developing and when nearly all of her or his experiences are created and shaped by parents and the family environment Parents help children build and refine their knowledge and skills charting a trajectory for their health and well being during childhood and beyond The experience of parenting also impacts parents themselves For instance parenting can enrich and give focus to parents lives generate stress or calm and create any number of emotions including feelings of happiness sadness fulfillment and anger Parenting of young children today takes place in the context of significant ongoing developments These include a rapidly growing body of science on early childhood increases in funding for programs and services for families changing demographics of the U S population and greater diversity of family structure Additionally parenting is increasingly being shaped by technology and increased access to information about parenting Parenting Matters identifies parenting knowledge attitudes and practices associated with positive developmental outcomes in children ages 0 8 universal preventive and targeted strategies used in a variety of settings that have been effective with parents of young children and that support the identified knowledge attitudes and practices and barriers to and facilitators for parents use of practices that lead to healthy child outcomes as well as their participation in effective programs and services This report makes recommendations directed at an array of stakeholders for promoting the wide scale adoption of effective programs and services for parents and on areas that warrant further research to inform policy and practice It is meant to serve as a roadmap for the future of parenting policy research and practice in the United States

The Leader in Me Stephen R. Covey, 2012-12-11 Children in today's world are inundated with information about who to be what to do and how to live But what if there was a way to teach children how to manage priorities focus on goals and be a positive influence on the world around them The Leader in Me is that programme It is based on a hugely successful initiative carried out at the A B Combs Elementary School in North Carolina To hear the parents of A B Combs talk about the school is to be amazed In 1999 the school debuted a programme that taught The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People to a pilot group of students The parents reported an incredible change in their children who blossomed under the programme By the end of the following year the average end of grade scores had leapt from 84 to 94 This book will launch the message onto a much larger platform Stephen R Covey takes the 7 Habits that have already changed the lives of millions of people and shows how children can use them as they develop Those habits be proactive begin with the end in mind put first things first think win win seek to understand and then to be understood synergize and sharpen the saw are critical skills to learn at a young age and bring incredible results proving that it is never too early to teach someone how to live well
