might regret becoming a mother Donath says our response should not be to silence and shame these women rather we need to ask honest and difficult questions about how society pushes women into motherhood and why those who reconsider it are still seen as a danger to the status quo Groundbreaking thoughtful and provocative this is an especially needed book in our current political climate as women s reproductive rights continue to be at the forefront of national debates What Every Mom Needs Elisa Morgan,Carol Kuykendall,1998-08-18 Based on responses to more than 1 000 questionnaires this book includes the personal insights of moms Mothering Maxims of condensed wisdom and Building Blocks containing exercises questions and practical tips Parenting Solo Emil J. Anderson,Susan Stewart,Sona Dimidjian,1994 The authors share the stories of single women in midlife as well as their practical advice on managing the mechanics of being single transforming loneliness redefining the place of work developing friendship and support networks living with and without intimacy and choosing to have and raise children In the process they define a new American lifestyle How We Show Up Mia Birdsong,2020-06-02 An Invitation to Community and Models for Connection After almost every presentation activist and writer Mia Birdsong gives to executives think tanks and policy makers one of those leaders quietly confesses how much they long for the profound community she describes They have family friends and colleagues yet they still feel like they re standing alone They re winning at the American Dream but they re lonely disconnected and unsatisfied It seems counterintuitive that living the good life the well paying job the nuclear family the upward mobility can make us feel isolated and unhappy But in a divided America where only a quarter of us know our neighbors and everyone is either a winner or a loser we've forgotten the key element that helped us make progress in the first place community In this provocative groundbreaking work Mia Birdsong shows that what separates us isn't only the ever present injustices built around race class gender values and beliefs but also our denial of our interdependence and need for belonging In response to the fear and discomfort we feel we've built walls and instead of leaning on each other we find ourselves leaning on concrete Through research interviews and stories of lived experience How We Show Up returns us to our inherent connectedness where we find strength safety and support in vulnerability and generosity in asking for help and in being accountable Showing up literally and figuratively points us toward the promise of our collective vitality and leads us to the liberated well being we all want
