Parenting Paul David Tripp, 2016-09-14 Winner of the ECPA Book of the Year Award for Christian Living What is your calling as a parent In the midst of folding laundry coordinating carpool schedules and breaking up fights many parents get lost Feeling pressure to do everything right and raise up good children it's easy to lose sight of our ultimate purpose as parents in the quest for practical tips and guaranteed formulas In this life giving book Paul Tripp offers parents much more than a to do list Instead he presents us with a big picture view of God's plan for us as parents Outlining fourteen foundational principles centered on the gospel he shows that we need more than the latest parenting strategy or list of techniques Rather we need the rescuing grace of God grace that has the power to shape how we view everything we do as parents Freed from the burden of trying to manufacture life change in our children's hearts we can embrace a grand perspective of parenting overflowing with vision purpose and joy children In All Joy and No Fun award winning journalist Jennifer Senior now asks what are the effects of children on their parents In All Joy and No Fun award winning journalist Jennifer Senior tries to tackle this question isolating and analyzing the many ways in which children reshape their parents lives whether it s their marriages their jobs their habits their hobbies their friendships or their internal senses of self She argues that changes in the last half century have radically altered the roles of today s mothers and fathers making their mandates at once more complex and far less clear Recruiting from a wide variety of sources in history sociology economics psychology philosophy and anthropology she dissects both the timeless strains of parenting and the ones that are brand new and then brings her research to life in the homes of ordinary parents around the country The result is an unforgettable series of family portraits starting with parents of young children and progressing to parents of teens Through lively and accessible storytelling Senior follows these mothers and fathers as they wrestle with some of parenthood s deepest vexations and luxuriate in some of its finest rewards Meticulously researched yet imbued with emotional intelligence All Joy and No Fun makes us reconsider some of our culture s most basic beliefs about parenthood all while illuminating the profound ways children deepen and add purpose to our lives By focusing on parenthood rather than parenting the book is original and essential reading for mothers and fathers of today and tomorrow Grown

Regretting Motherhood Orna Donath,2017-07-11 A provocative and deeply important study of women s lives women s choices and an unspoken taboo that questions the societal pressures forcing women into motherhood Women who opt not to be mothers are frequently warned that they will regret their decision later in life yet we rarely talk about the possibility that the opposite might also be true that women who have children might regret it Drawing on years of research interviewing women from a variety of socioeconomic educational and professional backgrounds sociologist Orna Donath treats regret as a feminist issue as regret marks the road not taken we need to consider whether alternative paths for women currently are blocked off She asks that we pay attention to what is forbidden by rules governing motherhood time and emotion including the cultural assumption that motherhood is a natural role for women for the sake of all women not just those who regret becoming mothers If we are disturbed by the idea that a woman might regret becoming a mother Donath says our response should not be to silence and shame these women rather we need to ask honest and difficult questions about how society pushes women into motherhood and why those who reconsider it are still seen as a danger to the status quo Groundbreaking thoughtful and provocative this is an especially needed book in our current political climate as women s reproductive rights continue to be at the forefront of national debates
