Parents Give Your Kids A Chance:

Love-Centered Parenting Crystal Paine, 2021-03-16 Do you worry that you're messing up your kids? Do you get stressed when you think about their futures? New York Times bestselling author Crystal Paine knows how you feel. A mom of four, Crystal has struggled with anxiety over parenting. She wanted to parent with grace instead of a system of rules where kids are expected to do all the right things. She wanted to be a safe place for her children and she definitely didn't want to be remembered as the sort of mom who yelled, wounded her kids with words, or worse, cared more about her reputation than her kids' hearts. In this book, Crystal shares the life-changing lessons that God has been teaching her about raising kids with love and grace. In Love-Centered Parenting, Crystal will reveal the no-fail secret to launching your kids, uncover the root of why we often feel so frustrated and irritated with our kids, share the four most important choices we can make as parents, give you the tools to keep going when you want to give up, help you get your kids to talk to you. It is possible to parent from a place of freedom and rest, giving your kids what they truly need to thrive in this world. Made to Move Mountains Kristen

Welch, 2020-03-03 Life is an incredible journey with ups and downs. We soar, struggle, scale, and stumble, and often stand at the edge of cliffs, afraid to step into the unknown, unsure of where we will land. But instead of running away, we are called by God to stand firm, muster up what faith we can, and take a step. Because we were made to move mountains. In this inspiring book, Kristen Welch calls you to step out in faith and climb the mountain in front of you, not because you are good enough or adequate or able, but because God makes a way where there is no way. With heartbreaking and hopeful personal stories, Scripture, and questions for contemplation, she draws you out of fear and into a holy confidence, showing you that the mountain in your path was put there on purpose so that you could exercise and grow your faith. Doing Life with Your

Adult Children Jim Burns, 2019 If you have an adult child, you know that parenting doesn't stop when a child reaches the age of eighteen. In many ways, it gets more complicated. Both your heart and your head are as involved as ever, whether your child lives under your roof or rarely stays in contact. In Doing Life with Your Adult Children, parenting expert Jim Burns helps you navigate the toughest and the most rewarding parts of parenting your grown kids. Speaking from his own personal and professional experience, Burns offers practical answers to questions such as these: Is it OK to give advice to my grown child? What's the difference between enabling and helping? What boundaries should I have if my child moves back home? What do I do when my child doesn't seem to be maturing into adulthood? How do I relate to my grown child's significant other? What does it mean to have healthy financial boundaries? How can I support my grown children when I don't support their values? Including positive principles on bringing kids back to faith, ideas on how to leave a legacy as a grandparent, and encouragement for every changing season, Doing Life with Your Adult Children is a unique book on your changing role in a calling that never ends. How to Raise Kids Who Aren't Assholes Melinda Wenner Moyer, 2022-06-21 How to Raise Kids

Who Aren't Assholes is a clear, actionable, sometimes humorous but always science-based guide for parents on how to shape their kids into honest kind generous confident independent and resilient people who just might save the world one day On social media in the news and from the highest levels of government kids are increasingly getting the message that being selfish obnoxious and cruel is okay We know of course that young people have the capacity for great empathy resilience and action and we all want to bring up kids who will help build a better tomorrow But how do we actually do this How to Raise Kids Who Aren't Assholes is a deeply researched evidence based primer that provides a fresh often surprising perspective on parenting issues from toddlerhood through the teenage years Science journalist Melinda Wenner Moyer outlines the traits we want our children to possess including honesty generosity and antiracism and then she provides scientifically based strategies that will help parents instill those characteristics in their kids Learn how to raise the kind of kids you actually want to hang out with and who just might save the world

When Good Kids Make Bad Choices Elyse Fitzpatrick, James Newheiser, Laura Hendrickson, 2005-03-01 There is perhaps no greater fear in a parent's heart than the thought that a much loved and well cared for child will make bad choices or even become a prodigal What are parents to do in such circumstances Authors Jim Newheiser and Elyse Fitzpatrick speak from years of personal experience as both parents and biblical counselors about how hurting parents can deal with the emotional trauma of when a child goes astray They offer concrete hope and encouragement along with positive steps parents can take even in the most negative situations Includes excellent advice from Dr. Laura Hendrickson regarding medicines commonly prescribed to problem children and offers questions parents can ask pediatricians before using behavioral medications A heartfelt and practical guide for parents

Parenting Your Kids with Grace (Birth to Age 10) Dr. Greg, Lisa Popcak, 2021-04-01 Believe it or not the Catholic family isn't primarily a human institution It's a divine one By uniting with the sacramental life of the Church your common ordinary crazy family becomes something sacred a domestic church Family therapist and parent Gregory Popcak and his wife Lisa are back with Parenting Your Kids with Grace Building on their best selling book Parenting with Grace first published twenty years ago this new volume draws on the same parenting principles and provides up to date research to guide parents through each stage of child development from birth to age ten Practical faithful and humorous Parenting Your Kids with Grace addresses four key questions Are Catholic families called to be different from other families in the way we relate to one another in the home If so how What does an authentic family based approach to Catholic spirituality look like in practice What can the latest research tell us about creating a faithful home and raising faithful kids How can Catholic families be outposts of evangelization and positive social change By checking our basic assumptions about parenting against both the Church's vision and what science can teach about living out that vision in healthy ways we can discover God's plan for parenting healthy godly kids
