

STREET PROOFING FOR CHILDREN

"Don't talk to strangers" ...is no longer considered an effective message to keep children safe. Stranger abduction in Canada is a rare occurrence. Predators who harm children are generally known to the child. A more appropriate term, "Tricky People," refers to a person who causes a child to get an "uh oh" feeling inside, and who may be trying to fool or harm them. The term Tricky People includes persons known to the child, and complete strangers. Please use the following tips to help teach your children how to stay safe.

BEGINNING WITH THE BASICS

Make sure your child knows the following:

- Full name, address and telephone number
- How to call 911 and use a payphone (911 on a payphone is free!)
- Who to go to for help (police, mothers with children, store employees, etc.)
- Safe places in their neighbourhood (trusted neighbour, library, etc.)
- A family 'code word' or 'password' in case of an emergency or change of plans
- To trust their "uh oh" feeling: their instincts

AT SCHOOL OR AT PLAY

Teach your children to:

- Walk with a buddy or group, never alone
- Avoid dangerous, secluded places such as vacant buildings, alleys, construction sites, wooded areas and railway tracks
- Always take the safest routes to friend's houses and to and from school, and never take shortcuts
- Not wear their name on clothing
- Avoid showing expensive jewellery, electronics or clothing at school
- Walk confidently and be alert to their surroundings
- Cross the street safely at marked crosswalks and not from between parked cars

AT HOME ALONE

Your children should:

- Check in with their caregiver or trusted neighbour when they arrive home
- Have a key to the house (avoid hiding one outside)
- Know how to lock windows and doors, as well as how to use the alarm system
- Know to never allow anyone into the home without a parent's permission
- Know to never tell a caller at the door or on the telephone that they are alone
- Know how to locate important telephone numbers such as a parent's work, other relatives, trusted neighbours, police, fire and poison control
- Know how to escape in case of fire

ABOUT THEIR BODY

CHILDREN NEED TO KNOW:

If they feel uncomfortable, it is always okay to tell a trusted adult. Touching should never be kept secret, and all touching can be talked about. They have the right to say 'no' to any touch that makes them feel uncomfortable or yucky, or in any situation they feel in danger or threatened. Only they can decide how a touch makes them feel – if no one listens to them the first time, they should keep telling until they get help. "I can say NO to any touch I don't like"
