Parents and Teachers Sara Madderson,2020-09-29 At two of London's most exclusive prep schools there are strict rules against parents fraternising with teachers Well that's the theory in any case Jenna a Year 3 teacher at St Cuthbert's catches the eye of the school's highest profile parent a world famous action movie star with far reaching consequences Meanwhile over at Chiltern House Astrid is still licking her wounds after her husband left her Her daughter's PE teacher Callum may be her best chance of rediscovering her joie de vivre Astrid's friend Natalia whose life revolves around motherhood these days finds herself questioning everything she's taken for granted when her husband becomes embroiled in a MeToo scandal Really the only ones behaving themselves are the kids

Confident Parents, Confident Kids Jennifer S. Miller,2019-11-05 Confident Parents Confident Kids lays out an approach for helping parents and the kids they love hone their emotional intelligence so that they can make wise choices connect and communicate well with others even when patience is thin and become socially conscious and confident human beings How do we raise a happy confident kid And how can we be confident that our parenting is preparing our child for success Our confidence develops from understanding and having a mastery over our emotions aka emotional intelligence and helping our children do the same Like learning to play a musical instrument we can fine tune our ability to skillfully react to those crazy wonderful big feelings that naturally arise from our child's constant growth and changes moving from chaos to harmony We want our children to trust that they can conquer any challenge with hard work and persistence that they can love boundlessly that they will find their unique sense of purpose and they will act wisely in a complex world This book shows you how With author and educator Jennifer Miller as your supportive guide you ll learn the lies we ve been told about emotions how they shape our choices and how we can reshape our parenting decisions in better alignment with our deepest values how to identify the temperaments your child was born with so you can support those tendencies rather than fight them how to align your biggest hopes and dreams for your kids with specific skills that can be practiced along with new research to support those powerful connections about each age and stage your child goes through and the range of learning opportunities available how to identify and manage those big emotions that only the parenting process can bring out in us and how to model emotional intelligence for your children how to deal with the emotions and influences of your choir the many outside individuals and communities who directly impact your child s life including school the digital world extended family neighbors and friends Raising confident centered happy kids while feeling the same way about yourself is possible with Confident Parents Confident Kids Home-school Relations Glenn William Olsen, Mary Lou Fuller, 2003 This study demonstrates how narratives by Frederick Douglass and Herman Melville argue that subjugation is an unnatural condition and that left on their own all men will join together into communities to fully realize their potential as men Parents & Teachers Working Together Carol Davis, Alice Yang, 2005 Provides advice for elementary teachers on collaborating with parents to enhance a child s educational experience The Essential Conversation Sara Lawrence-Lightfoot, 2003-08-26 NATIONAL BESTSELLER A renowned Harvard University professor offers valuable insights incisive lessons and deft guidance on how to communicate more effectively to help parents and teachers make the most of parent teacher conferences the essential conversation between the most vital people in a child s life An enormously important volume that will help us all understand what happens when children leave home in order to learn at school Robert Coles author of Children of Crisis and Lives of Moral Leadership The essential conversation is the crucial exchange that occurs between parents and teachers a dialogue that takes place more than one hundred million times a year across our country and is both mirror of and metaphor for the larger cultural forces that define family school relationships and shape the development of our children Participating in this twice yearly ritual so friendly and benign in its apparent goals parents and teachers are often wracked with anxiety In a meeting marked by decorum and politeness they frequently exhibit wariness and assume defensive postures Even though the conversation appears to be focused on the student adults may find themselves playing out their own childhood histories insecurities and fears Through vivid portraits and parables Sara Lawrence Lightfoot captures the dynamics of this complex intense relationship from the perspective of both parents and teachers She also identifies new principles and practices for improving family school relationships In a voice that combines the passion of a mother the skepticism of a social scientist and the keen understanding of one of our nation s most admired educators Lawrence Lightfoot offers penetrating analysis and an urgent call to arms for all those who want to act in the best interests of their children      New Ways to Engage Parents Patricia Edwards, 2016 Just as populations change ideas about how to encourage and work with parents also need to evolve This practical resource by bestselling author Patricia Edwards provides school leaders and classroom teachers with new and creative ways in which to welcome encourage and involve parents Enacting these types of practices requires a special kind of commitment from teachers and school leaders which often coincides with a particular kind of mindset about families and one's responsibility to engage them Educators often develop this mindset as they deepen their understanding of families literacy language culture race class and themselves Edwards pulls these understandings together and presents them in a straightforward concise and easy to use guide that is perfect for professional learning communities and teacher preparation courses New Ways to Engage Parents is essential reading for all educators who care deeply about engaging a wide range of parents in today's schools It is my hope that this book inspires teachers to seek ways to make schools more equitable and caring spaces for all children From the Foreword by Catherine Compton Lilly University of Wisconsin Madison Long a leader in the field Professor Patricia Edwards reinforces the fact that education is a shared responsibility of home school and community She presents scores of practical ideas and resources to enable educators to involve all parents in their children's education Joyce L Epstein Johns Hopkins University Finally a book that brings partnering with parents into the 21st century This is a book teachers will want to keep at their fingertips Jeanne R Paratore Boston University      Parents and Teachers Francesco Arcidiacono, 2021-12-31 The present volume proposes different international scientific contributions coming from professionals and researchers interested in teaching learning and social interactions within a range of various educational settings These scientific investigations as well as professional experiences as teachers are interconnected because they are built around the connections between teachers students and parents The chapters offer a plurality of methodologies and approaches dealing with different educational aspects related to adults and children's involvement in various cultures The contributions propose a set of analyses of the relationships between school and family in risk situations and within different dialogical frames The chapters assume specific perspectives in considering the family school interactions and incorporate analytical reflections connected to specific situations such as the COVID 19 pandemic and the question of inclusive education The volume intends to foster a new comprehension of the dynamics involving school actors and families Each contribution looks at the interconnections between teachers students and parents in order to highlight the centrality of the role of social actors within various educational settings in which the processes of teaching and learning are developed In this sense schools and families are presented as communities continuously engaged in interpersonal relationships and soliciting various processes of appropriation of cultural semiotic professional and emotional resources The volume proposes approaches that are useful to better understand how teachers students and parents can contribute in different and complementary ways to build meaningful frameworks for the processes of teaching and learning      Communication for Teachers Joseph L. Chesebro, James C. McCroskey, 2002 This book provides a synthesis of important research on communication instruction and builds on that by discussing how beginning teachers can apply the information to their own teaching With eleven chapters written or co written by some of the most prolific instructional communication researchers this book provides diverse viewpoints and perspectives on a wide range of topics that impact teachers communication with students in a classroom setting For beginning teachers at all grade levels

A Teacher's Inside Advice to Parents Robert Ward,2016-10-20 It is self evident that parents and children garner the benefits of a great teacher but also pay some kind of price for anything less than a sterling teacher Likewise teachers and children share the advantages of committed capable parents but also suffer consequences when parental responsibility and efficacy falters Therefore parents and teachers must be allies who share common expectations methods and goals This book divided into three parts will help everyone achieve this goal Book Fiesta! Pat Mora,2009-03-10 Take a ride in a long submarine or fly away in a hot air balloon Whatever you do just be sure to bring your favorite book Rafael L pez s colorful illustrations perfectly complement Pat Mora s lilting text in this delightful celebration of El d a de los ni os El d a de los libros Children s Day Book Day Toon Toon Includes a letter from the author and suggestions for celebrating El d a de los ni os El d a de los libros Children s Day Book Day Pasea por el mar en un largo submarino o viaja lejos en un globo aerost tico No importa lo que hagas no olvides traer tu libro preferido Las coloridas ilustraciones de Rafael L pez complementan perfectamente el texto r tmico de Pat Mora en esta encantadora celebraci n de El d a de los ni os El d a de los libros Tun Tun Incluye una carta de la autora y sugerencias para celebrar El d a de los ni os El d a de los libros The author will donate a portion of the proceeds from this book to literacy initiatives related to Children s Day Book Day La autora donar una porci n de las ganancias de este libro a programas para fomentar la alfabetizaci n relacionados con El d a de los ni os El d a de los libros Dear Parents Dana Arias,2013 In this powerful book you will learn how parents and teachers can work together in the spirit of harmony for the benefit of their students and children alike Dana offers a series of letters which are basically an ongoing conversation which can help you as the parent better prepare your student to succeed academically You will learn to decode the mysteries behind the things teachers ask from parents and you will learn how partnering with teachers in specific ways can help students become better learners The information here will help you take control of your child s education and strengthen your family in simple and easy ways through the biggest tool you have as a parent dialogue It will allow you to see a transformation in your child s thinking patterns conversation and writing skills All of these changes can transfer into better grades a happier student and even a more peaceful home environment Counsels to Teachers, Parents, and Students Regarding Christian Education Ellen G.
