Hope's relatability, kindness, empathy, and can-do attitude will inspire a generation of do-gooders. This new series is a response to the very palpable feeling that not only can young people save the world, they will. Partnering With Parents in Elementary School Math Hilary Kreisberg, Matthew L. Beyranevand, 2021-02-03. How to build productive relationships in math education. I wasn't taught this way, I can't help my child. These are common refrains from today's parents and guardians who are often overwhelmed, confused, worried, and frustrated about how to best support their children with what they see as the new math. The problem has been compounded by the shift to more distance learning in response to a global pandemic. Partnering With Parents in Elementary School Math provides educators with long-overdue guidance on how to productively partner and communicate with families about their children's mathematics learning. It includes reproducible surveys, letters, and planning documents that can be used to improve the home-school relationship, which in turn helps students, parents, teachers, and education leaders alike. Readers will find guidance on how to understand and empathize with what fuels parents' anxieties and concerns. Align as a school and set parents' expectations about what math instruction their children will experience and how it will help them. Communicate clearly and productively with parents about their students' progress, strengths, and needs in math. Run informative and fun family events to support homework. Coach parents to portray a productive disposition about math in front of their children. Educators, families, and students are best served when proactive, productive, and healthy relationships have been developed with each other and with the realities of today's math education. This guide shows how these relationships can be built. Wayside School Beneath the Cloud of Doom Louis Sachar, 2020-03-03. where everyone is welcomed with open arms A school where students from all backgrounds learn from and celebrate each other's traditions A school that shows the world as we will make it to be An important book that celebrates diversity and inclusion in a beautiful age appropriate way Trudy Ludwig author of The Invisible Boy Coping with Kids and School Linda Albert, 1984 The Diverse Schools Dilemma Michael J. Petrilli, 2012-11-15 Many of today's parents yearn to live in or near the lively culturally vibrant heart of the city in diverse walkable neighborhoods full of music and theater accessible to museums and stores awash in ethnic eateries and radiating a true sense of community This is a major shift from recent generations that saw middle class families trading urban centers for suburbs with lawns malls parks and good schools But good schools still matter And standing in the way of many parents' urban aspirations is the question Will the public schools in the city provide a strong education for my kids To be sure lots of parents favor sending their sons and daughters to diverse schools with children from a variety of racial and socioeconomic backgrounds But can such schools successfully meet the educational needs of all those different kids How do middle class children fare in these environments Is there enough challenge and stimulation in schools that also struggle to help poor immigrant children reach basic standards Is there too much focus on test scores And why is it so hard to find diverse public schools with a progressive child centered approach to education These quandaries and more are addressed in this groundbreaking book by Michael J Petrilli one of America's most trusted education experts and a father who himself is struggling with the Diverse Schools Dilemma If I Built a School Chris Van Dusen, 2025 In this exuberant companion to If I Built a Car a boy fantasizes about his dream school from classroom to cafeteria to library to playground My school will amaze you My school will astound By far the most fabulous school to be found Perfectly planned and impeccably clean On a scale 1 to 10 it's more like 15 And learning is fun in a place that's fun too If Jack built a school there would be hover desks and pop up textbooks skydiving wind tunnels and a trampoline basketball court in the gym a robo chef to serve lunch in the cafeteria field trips to Mars and a whole lot more The inventive boy who described his ideal car and house in previous books is dreaming even bigger this time The House on Mango Street Sandra Cisneros, 2013-04-30 A TODAY SHOW ReadWithJenna BOOK CLUB PICK NATIONAL BESTSELLER A coming of age classic about a young girl growing up in Chicago Acclaimed by critics beloved by readers of all ages taught in schools and universities alike and translated around the world from the winner of the 2019 PEN Nabokov Award for Achievement in International Literature Cisneros draws on her rich Latino heritage and seduces with precise spare prose creating unforgettable characters we want to lift off the page She is not only a gifted writer but an absolutely essential one The New York Times Book Review The House on Mango Street is one of the most cherished novels of the last fifty years Readers from all walks of life have fallen for the voice of Esperanza Cordero growing up in Chicago and inventing for herself who and what she will become In English my name means hope she says In Spanish it means too many letters It means sadness it means waiting Told in a series of vignettes sometimes heartbreaking sometimes joyous Cisneros's masterpiece is a classic story of childhood and self discovery and one of the greatest neighborhood novels of all time Like Sinclair Lewis s Main Street or Toni Morrison s Sula it makes a world through people and their voices and it does so in language that is poetic and direct This gorgeous coming of age novel is a celebration of the power of telling one s story and of being proud of where you re from
