

ENCOURAGE DAILY HOMEWORK

Homework helps children practice crucial skills. Failing to do homework means missed opportunities for learning and growing, as well as getting teacher feedback.

MEET WITH THE TEACHER

Ask about areas of growth for your child.

Try to do this regularly so that you know where your child is struggling, and the best way to get them help throughout the school year.

MAKE TIME TO READ WITH YOUR CHILD

Read with your child for at least 10 minutes per day.

Once you've finished reading a chapter or section of text, ask your child about what you read about together.

PRACTICE FILLING IN TEST ANSWERS

Elementary parents should encourage your child to practice filling in an answer sheet with the bubbles like a test form will have. Don't do all your test prep on a computer.

PREPARING YOUR CHILD FOR TESTING

EXPLAIN WHAT THE TEST WILL LOOK LIKE

Ask your child's teacher if there are sample tests you could use to practice at home with your child.

MAINTAIN GOOD SLEEP AND NUTRITION HABITS

Make sure your child gets enough sleep. This includes the weekends before test week.

Ensure your child eats nutritious food leading up to test days. Ensure nutrition is balanced at least a week before testing begins.

Talk about when your child can expect breaks, what to do if they need to use the restroom, or how to get help from a teacher during a test.
